HUSKER POWER: A NATIONAL LEADER

Husker Power is a nationally recognized brand and a source of pride for Nebraska Athletics.

NEBRASKA WAS THE FIRST TO:

- Have a paid strength coach
- Lift weights in-season
- Hold a summer conditioning class
- Offer a degree for strength coaching

With 14 staff members, including men's basketball strength coach Tim Wilson, it is one of the most comprehensive strength and conditioning organizations in the country. Husker basketball student-athletes train in the Hendricks Training Complex, which features a 5,000-square foot weight room.

Before returning to college athletics, Wilson spent 11 years in the NBA with the Milwaukee Bucks and has worked with the Chicago White Sox, as well as Oregon, Pittsburgh and UNLV.

DRAFTED HUSKERS

The first NBA draft of collegiate players was held following the 1947-48 season, but the league did not begin to keep records of team-by-team draft lists until 1952. Here is a list of the 27 Cornhusker players drafted by the NBA since 1949:

1949	Claude Retherford, St. Louis Bombers
1950	Bus Whitehead, Chicago Stags (7th)
1951	Bob Pierce, Indianapolis Olympians (5th)
1952	Jim Buchanan, Boston Celtics (6th)
1954	Bill Johnson, Boston Celtics (11th)
1960	Herschell Turner, Syracuse Nationals (6th)
1966	Grant Simmons, Washington Bullets (12th)
1967	Willie Campbell, Seattle SuperSonics (15th)
1968	Stuart Lantz, Houston Rockets (3rd) Tom Baack, Detroit Pistons (10th)
1970	Jim Brooks, Houston Rockets (12th)
1971	Marvin Stewart, Philadelphia 76ers (2nd) Leroy Chalk, Boston Celtics (13th)
1972	Chuck Jura, Chicago Bulls (3rd) Mike Peterson, Portland Trail Blazers (16th)
1974	Brandy Lee, Atlanta Hawks (10th)
1976	Jerry Fort, Boston Celtics (3rd)
1979	Carl McPipe, Philadelphia 76ers (5th)
1981	Andre Smith, Cleveland Cavaliers (7th)
1982	Jack Moore, Kansas City Kings (9th)
1985	Curtis Moore, Portland Trailblazers (6th)
1986	Dave Hoppen Atlanta Hawks (3rd)
1991	Rich King, Seattle SuperSonics (1st/14th pick)
1994	Eric Piatkowski Indiana Pacers (1st/15th pick)
1998	Tyronn Lue, Denver Nuggets (1st/23rd pick)
1999	Venson Hamilton, Houston Rockets (2nd/50th pick)
2019	Isaiah Roby, Detroit Pistons (2nd/45th pick)

Note: Nate Branch was drafted by the American Basketball Association's Oakland franchise in 1967; Stuart Lantz was drafted by Oakland in 1968; Marvin Stewart was drafted by the New York Nets in 1971; and Chuck Jura was selected by the Utah Stars in 1972.

NEBRASKA BASKETBALL HISTORY

1996 NIT CHAMPIONS

RETIRED JERSEYS

#42 DAVE HOPPEN

#42 - DAVE HOPPEN (1983-86)

Nebraska's all-time leading scorer, Hoppen had his No. 42 jersey retired at the end of Senior Night on Feb. 26, 1986. Hoppen totaled 2,167 points before a knee surgery cut short his senior year. Hoppen broke or tied 19 school records as a Husker. A third-round draft pick in 1986, he spent six seasons in the NBA. Hoppen was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1996 and Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

#22 - STU LANTZ (1966-68)

Stu Lantz became the second Husker basketball player to have his jersey retired when it was retired on Oct. 17, 1989. A two-time first-team All-Big Eight performer, Lantz totaled 1,269 points and 571 rebounds in his three-year Husker career. He went on to play eight years in the NBA with four teams (San Diego/Houston Rockets, Detroit Pistons, New Orleans Jazz, Los Angeles Lakers). Lantz was charter member of the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1989.

#52 - ERIC PIATKOWSKI (1991-94)

Eric Piatkowski became the third Husker to have his jersey retired, as he was honored on Feb. 18, 2006. Piatkowski was a two-time All-Big Eight selection as he totaled 1,934 points in helping NU to four straight NCAA Tournaments during his collegiate career. A first-round draft pick in 1994, he spent 14 seasons in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, Houston Rockets, Chicago Bulls and Phoenix Suns. Piatkowski, who was also inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006, highlighted the inaugural class of the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

#10 - TYRONN LUE (1996-98)

Tyronn Lue became the fourth Husker to have his jersey retired when he was honored on Feb. 2, 2017. Lue, who ranks in the top 10 in 13 categories during his three-year Husker career, earned All-Big 12 honors in 1998 helping Nebraska to the NCAA Tournament. A first-round draft pick in 1998, he spent 11 seasons in the NBA, including a pair of titles with the Los Angeles Lakers. A 2013 Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, Lue coached the Cleveland Cavaliers to an NBA title in 2016 and three NBA Finals appearances.

NEBRASKA'S ACADEMIC RESOURCES

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Eight academic counselors, three learning specialists and two assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support from approximately 75-100 tutors on staff is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. The tutorial program is certified as a model tutoring program by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the Scott Technology Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Academic support staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and select returning student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting neuropsychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

New laptops are provided to all student-athletes for use during their academic career at Nebraska. The Herman Student Life Complex has printers and desktop computers available for student-athletes to use in the facility.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, Haymarket Park, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, Pinnacle Bank Arena and the Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex all have athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

Nebraska uses advanced equipment, including two anti-gravity treadmills (pictured, top) to help athletes recondition after injuries. Nebraska's Athletic Medicine Center also features a hydrotherapy area that includes a three-level laned pool, as well as hot and cold plunge tanks (pictured, middle). The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment.

SPORTS PSYCHOLOGY

Continuing its commitment to complete care for all student-athletes, Nebraska has four full-time in-house athletic psychologists and a sports psychiatrist who work directly with student-athletes, teams and coaches. Under the leadership of Senior Associate Athletic Director for Performance Dr. Todd Stull and Director of Sports Psychology Dr. Brett Haskell, the Huskers' sports psychology staff provides counseling, psychological services, mental skills training, teambuilding and leadership development services for each of Nebraska's 24 sports and more than 600 Husker student-athletes. The staff works directly with student-athletes to help them develop skills to enhance personal well-being, address mental health and substance use issues to optimize performance.

MAKING AN IMPACT

LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

The Life Skills staff provides proactive education to all incoming and returning student-athletes designed to promote responsible decision-making, enhance one's personal brand and prepare student-athletes for life after sports. Interactive presentations are delivered during summer bridge sessions, orientations and year-by-year tiered development workshops.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills staff member who will assist with personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT & NETWORKING

Nebraska Life Skills organizes an annual Student-Athlete Career Fair Networking Night and other career events aimed at connecting Huskers with companies desiring competitive, hard-working, accountable candidates. Athlete Network and UNL's Handshake Link provide opportunities to explore career opportunities across the country.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes readily accept the role-model challenge, collectively giving more than 8,000 hours annually to impact thousands across the state of Nebraska. Outreach events include but are not limited to hospital visits, mentoring, school assemblies, statewide rallies, Make-A-Wish, School is Cool and Husker Heroes. During the 2018-19 academic year, 384 Husker student-athletes completed at least six service projects earning spot on the coveted Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

LEADERSHIP

Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with countless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Nebraska Football Road Race, Inner Circle, N-Vest or N-VOLVED. UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for common goals. Nebraska Life Skills has funded and coordinated an annual service abroad trip that allows 20 student-athletes to work together toward a common goal while enriching cultural competencies.

RECOGNITION

In 2018-19, 14 Husker Basketball student-athletes were named to the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. A host of other recognition opportunities at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA levels that all reflect the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement also are available.

POST-ELIGIBILITY OPPORTUNITIES

Since 2015, every student-athlete who letters and graduates will have a three-year window to benefit from one of three post-eligibility opportunities each valued at $7,500. Upon completion of required seminars, graduates can either study abroad, complete an internship or begin graduate school within the University of Nebraska-Lincoln or the University of Nebraska Medical Center.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The Life Skills program also is responsible for all Diversity and Inclusion initiatives for Husker Athletics. Since 2016, the Diversity and Inclusion Summit has reached all student-athletes and staff with programming emphasizing respect, acceptance and unity. Numerous other special events are coordinated in collaboration with campus departments highlighting the diversity within Husker Nation. N-Vest is a new mentoring program aimed at fostering successful transitions while connecting participating athletes with campus or community mentors to aid in personal and career development.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

The University of Nebraska, celebrating its 150th anniversary in 2019, was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. Nebraska, which joined the Big Ten Conference in 2011, is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. The consortium was renamed on June 29, 2016. The BTAA includes all 14 Big Ten Institutions and the University of Chicago. The Big Ten Academic Alliances and the institutions together have annual research expenditures topping $10.2 billion — more than the Ivy League and the University of California System combined — and they educate a total of nearly 600,000 students with approximately 50,000 full-time faculty members.

NEBRASKA AND ADIDAS

Nebraska student-athletes are fitted with the finest adidas footwear, uniforms, apparel and accessories as part of the apparel manufacturer's lucrative sponsorship deal with the Nebraska Athletic Department.

From head to toe, Husker athletes receive the newest gear to not only look sharp, but to also have the latest technology at their disposal. Devaney Center Equipment Manager Pat Norris works closely with an on-campus adidas representative to make sure Husker basketball players have everything they need to represent the University in a proper manner. From warmups to workout gear and shoes to winter coats, Norris orders the best fitting, most appropriate gear for the Huskers every season, so they can look their best on and off the court.

Nebraska's relationship with adidas began in 1995, and in August of 2017, Nebraska and adidas extended their partnership until 2028.

THORIR
THORBJARNARSON

For Nebraska men's basketball coach Fred Hoiberg, the building process began quickly. With the graduation of three multi-year starters, including All-Big Ten performer James Palmer Jr. and Glynn Watson Jr., as well as the departure of NBA Draft pick Isaiah Roby, the Huskers were going to have a different look in 2019-20.

Hoiberg and his staff hit the recruiting trail hard after his hiring in late March, retooling the roster, while also keeping a pair of recruits signed by the previous staff. Their hard work was recognized, as Nebraska's incoming class was ranked No. 41 nationally by 247Sports. It marked the Huskers' second-highest class of the Big Ten era and a remarkable feat for a class that was put together in six weeks. The newcomers feature a pair of junior college recruits who were among the top-10 prospects in the country (Cam Mack and Jervay Green), two freshmen who rated among the top 150 seniors by 247Sports (Samarī Curtis and Yvan Ouedrāgo) and two transfers who were top-100 players coming out of high school (Haanif Cheatham and Dalano Banton).

With the roster established, a trip to Italy allowed the Husker coaching staff an opportunity to get 10 practices with the team, as well as four games to see different combinations on the court and to work on the Huskers' up-tempo attack. While the Huskers won all four games and averaged 82 points per game, Hoiberg believes the trip's biggest benefit came away from the gym.

"Italy was a great trip for us, and the biggest reason why was all of our new players had to spend quality time together," Hoiberg said. "We've got 14 guys that have never really played with each other coming into the summer. The only two guys who have been in the Big Ten are Thorir (Thorbjarnarson) and Dachon (Burke), and Burke was on the sideline during his sit-out year. There are so many new faces and unknowns with this group. Everybody kind of came in and there were a lot of individuals, and I think we left Italy as a team, and that was the most important part to me."

Hoiberg, who guided Iowa State to four straight NCAA Tournament bids in his five seasons at ISU, likes the competitiveness he sees in the gym, but wants to make sure a solid foundation is set early on.

"For our guys with the newness of it, we've put in such a small part of the system to this point. It is really focusing on the basics and trying to get a head start in that," Hoiberg said of the team's focus heading into practice in late September. "To this point, it's been trying to put in a defensive foundation and trying to put in the basics on the offensive end, predicated on spacing and the things you have to do well to be a successful team."

"I'm excited to get more hours with these guys. It has been a very eager group. They want to do more, but I feel at this point, we have to get the basics down."

As the Huskers prepared for the start of practice in late September, Hoiberg has a full roster at his disposal. Mack (illness) and Ouedrāgo (national team duties) missed the team's summer practices, but were able to go through individual and group work since the start of the fall semester.

his third season as a Husker. Last season, he played in 25 games, averaging 2.0 points, 2.1 rebounds and 1.2 assists per game while posting a 2.2-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio. He earned a spot in the rotation after a season-ending injury to Isaac Copeland Jr., and played in 16 of the Huskers' final 17 contests, including five starts in the Big Ten Tournament and NIT.

Thorbjarnarson, who played for the Iceland National Team over the summer, continued to show flashes of his potential and high basketball IQ, recording a career-high five steals in the Huskers' win over No. 21 Maryland and closing the year with eight points, three assists and two steals in the second-round NIT loss at TCU. He also grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds in 17 minutes off the bench against No. 24 Wisconsin.

The other returnee from last season is junior Dachon Burke, who transferred from Robert Morris and sat out the 2018-19 season. A 6-foot-4 guard, Burke earned second-team All-Northeast Conference honors in 2017-18 after averaging 17.6 points, 5.8 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 2.1 steals per game. As a sophomore at Robert Morris, he ranked in the top five in the NEC in both scoring and steals and was a four-time conference player of the week. He tallied 30 double-figure efforts in 32 contests as a sophomore, including 11 20-point games. Burke's competitiveness, experience and scoring ability give him a chance to be a major contributor in 2019-20.

One of the most significant recruits that Hoiberg signed in the spring was sophomore point guard Cam Mack. The No. 3 overall junior college recruit and top point guard in the nation according to JUCORecruiting.com, Mack was the highest-rated junior college recruit to sign with Nebraska since the website began in 2011. Mack played at Salt Lake Community College in 2018-19, averaging 19.1 points and 5.9 rebounds per game while topping the team in assists (7.6 apg), steals (2.4 spg) and blocked shots (0.6 bpg). He was in the top 25 nationally in both assists (fifth) and steals (24th) and boasted a 2.8-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio.

In his lone season at the school, Mack totaled five 30-point games, including a 40-point outburst against Casper College, which included 6-of-12 from 3-point range. He dished out 10 or more assists nine times, including a season-best 14 in one contest, while totaling a trio of triple-doubles and nine double-doubles.

Jervay Green joins Mack as two of the top-10 junior college recruits in the nation last season and was the No. 2 combo guard in the country playing at Western Nebraska Community College. Green garnered second-team NJCAA All-America honors in 2018-19, averaging 23.6 points, 5.7 rebounds and 5.3 assists per game, as he shot 55 percent from the field, including 39 percent from 3-point range. Green ranked eighth nationally in scoring at Western Nebraska CC and was the Region IX Player of the Year.

He had six 30-point games as a sophomore, highlighted by a school-record 51-point performance against Iowa Lakes CC. In that game, Green was 10-of-14 from 3-point range. Green totaled three double-doubles on the year, including a 26-point, 14-assist effort against North Platte CC.

Samari Curtis gives the Huskers another legitimate scoring option. The 6-foot-4 guard was Mr. Basketball in the state of Ohio last year, averaging 33.8 points, 7.3 rebounds, 5.8 assists and 2.4 steals per game at Xenia High School. A four-star recruit by ESPN and a top-200 recruit by 247Sports, Curtis totaled nine 40-point games as a senior, including a 52-point performance, and averaged more than 30 points per game as a junior and senior. In all, he totaled more than 2,100 points in high school and has the shooting range to make an immediate impact.

In-state walk-ons Charlie Easley and Jace Piatkowski round out the Husker backcourt. Easley was one of the top players in the state playing at Lincoln Pius X High School, averaging 23.3 points, 6.1 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 3.1 steals per game to earn first-team all-state honors last year from the Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald.

Piatkowski, the son of former Husker legend and NBA standout Eric Piatkowski, averaged 18.6 points and 3.3 rebounds per game at Elkhorn South High School. He led the team with 46 3-pointers and also shot 77 percent from the foul line in 2018-19.

WINGS

Haanif Cheatham, a 6-foot-5, 194-pound guard from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was the first newcomer to commit to Hoiberg and will be counted on for his leadership and versatility. A former top-100 recruit, Cheatham has made 73 Division I starts in his career, including 63 in two-plus seasons at Marquette.

Cheatham spent last season at Florida Gulf Coast, averaging 13.2 points, 4.8 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 1.2 steals per game in 10 games before season-ending surgery. He reached double figures eight times, including a 23-point effort on 10-of-16 shooting against South Dakota State and a 20-point night against Florida Atlantic. He began his career at Marquette, garnering Big East All-Freshman Team honors in 2015-16 and earning the team's Best Defensive Player Award in each of his two full seasons at the school (2015-16, 2016-17). He has the ability and skill set to play a number of spots in Hoiberg's lineup.

One component of Hoiberg's system is strong 3-point shooting and the addition of graduate transfer Matej Kavaz will greatly help the Huskers in that area. Kavaz, a 6-foot-8 guard from Slovenia, played at Seattle University and shot 44.7 percent from 3-point range during his three seasons at the school. His percentage ranks sixth nationally among all active players heading into 2019-20. Last year, Kavaz averaged 10.3 points and 4.6 rebounds per game while shooting 46 percent from 3-point range. He battled a shin injury which sidelined him for eight games and limited him the remainder of the season. Prior to the injury, he had reached double-figures in 13 of his first 16 contests. Kavaz looks to return to his 2017-18 form when he averaged 15.2 points and 5.1 rebounds while leading the WAC in both 3-point percentage (.474) and 3-pointers per game (2.8).

While Cheatham and Kavaz provide length on the wing, sophomore Shamiel Stevenson possesses the physicality to match up with the bigger wings in the Big Ten. Stevenson, a 6-foot-6, 245-pound guard/forward from Toronto, transferred to Nevada last winter, but did not play a game for the Wolfpack. He began his collegiate career at Pittsburgh in 2017-18, as he played in 32 games, including 13 starts as a true freshman. He averaged 8.5 points on a team-high 50.5 percent shooting and was second on the Panthers with 4.4 rebounds per game. Stevenson, who reached double figures 13 times, showed good touch, hitting nearly 38 percent from long range.

Dalano Banton may have the highest ceiling of the Husker wings, but will sit out this season after transferring from Western Kentucky. Banton, a 6-foot-8, 195-pound guard, was a former top-100 recruit who will have three years of eligibility beginning in 2020-21. Last year, he played in 31 games, averaging 3.4 points, 3.0 rebounds and 2.1 assists per game. He made 12 starts and showed his versatility in a win over No. 15 Wisconsin when he nearly had a triple double with 13 rebounds, 10 assists and eight points. He also had 11 points and six assists against St. Mary's. Banton, who reclassified to graduate high school in 2018, will use the sit-out year to get stronger and refine his game so he can make a major impact next season.

FRONTCOURT

The most intriguing prospect on the roster may be freshman Yvan Ouedraogo, who arrived on campus at the start of the semester following a stint with the French U18 team in the summer. He helped the French team to a 6-1 record and a fifth-place finish, as he played in all seven games for France.

A 6-foot-9, 260-pound forward, Ouedraogo attended the National Institute of Sport, Expertise, and Performance (INSEP) and selected Nebraska over TCU, Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt. This past season, Ouedraogo played in 26 games for Centre Fédéral de Basketball, which is a program in the top amateur league in France. Despite turning 17 last March, he averaged 5.4 points and 4.4 rebounds per game. He has also represented France in international competition, including the 2018 FIBA U16 European Championships, when he averaged 12.7 points and 9.7 rebounds per game.

Kevin Cross has the size and physicality to earn significant time as a true freshman. The 6-foot-8, 240-pounder was a two-time all-state performer at Mills University Studies High School in Arkansas, leading his team to a combined 58-7 record and two state tournament runner-up finishes. Cross, who chose Nebraska over Oklahoma State and TCU, averaged 18 points, 10 rebounds and two assists per game, as the school went 28-5 before losing in the state title game. Cross had a 29-point, 21-rebound effort as a senior and closed his high school career with 24 points and nine rebounds in the state championship game.

Akol Arop comes to Lincoln with solid credentials, as he was the Nebraska Gatorade Player of the Year in 2019. The 6-foot-6 forward averaged 19.4 points on 62 percent shooting, 10.9 rebounds and 2.6 blocks per game at Omaha Creighton Prep last season, earning first-team all-state honors from the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. A three-time all-state performer, Arop tallied 19 double-doubles as a senior and earned a reputation as one of the best defensive players in the state during his high school career.

Derrick Walker brings much-needed experience to the Husker frontcourt after spending the past two seasons at Tennessee. The 6-foot-8, 235-pound forward played in 64 games for the Volunteers, who won an SEC title in 2018 and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 last season. Walker averaged 0.8 points and 1.1 rebounds per game as a sophomore, but played in 30 games and shot 53 percent from the field. As a freshman, he was an integral part of the Tennessee rotation, shooting nearly 60 percent from the floor, including 68 percent in SEC play. A Kansas City, Mo., native, Walker will sit out this season and have two years of eligibility beginning in 2020-21.

Freshmen walk-on Bret Porter will add depth to the Husker frontcourt. Porter, who is believed to be the first four-generation athlete in program history, returned from a torn ACL to average 6.2 points and 4.4 rebounds per game as a senior. The 6-foot-6 forward averaged 13.5 points and 7.5 rebounds as a junior at Millard North High School in Omaha.

SCHEDULE

The 11-game non-conference slate opens on Nov. 5 against UC Riverside, the first of four straight home games to open the 2019-20 season. NU will travel to the Cayman Islands Classic for three games in late November, while the December portion of the slate features a trip to Georgia Tech for the Big Ten/ACC Challenge and the annual intrastate matchup at Creighton.

"It's an important part of the season," Hoiberg said. "You want to set the tone for when you start the conference games. I like our schedule. We will play at Creighton, which will be a top-20 team, on the road in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge at Georgia Tech and play three quality games in the Cayman Islands. We also have some other teams which will come in here and give us a big challenge."

While it may be tough to duplicate the Big Ten's success from last year when a conference-record eight teams made the NCAA Tournament, the 20-game schedule will be challenging for the young Husker squad.

Conference play begins on Dec. 13, when the Huskers travel to Indiana before the home opener two days later against a Purdue team that went to the Elite Eight and took eventual national champion Virginia to overtime. NU will close non-conference play with a pair of games before resuming in January.

The Huskers open 2020 at Pinnacle Bank Arena with matchups against Rutgers (Jan. 3) and Iowa (Jan. 7). The remainder of January features home games with Indiana (Jan. 18) and Michigan (Jan. 28). The meeting with the Wolverines will feature the Big Ten's newest head coaches in Hoiberg and Michigan's Juwan Howard. The rest of NU's January schedule includes road tilts at Northwestern (Jan. 11), Ohio State (Jan. 14), Wisconsin (Jan. 21) and Rutgers (Jan. 25).

The February slate is highlighted by a visit by Final Four qualifier Michigan State, which will likely open the season as the No. 1 team in the country, on Thursday, Feb. 20. It is one of three home games against NCAA qualifiers that month, as NU also hosts Wisconsin (Feb. 15) and Ohio State (Feb. 27) as well as Penn State (Feb. 1). NU also makes road trips to Iowa (Feb. 8), Maryland and Illinois (Feb. 24) in February.

NU's only home game in March is a Senior Day matchup with Northwestern on March 1, before the Huskers close out Big Ten play at Michigan (March 5) and Minnesota (March 8). The Big Ten Tournament takes place at Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis from March 11-15.

The Huskers toured the Roman Colosseum as part of the team's 10-day trip to Italy in August.

HUSKER BASKETBALL NOTEBOOK

► The Huskers got a head start on the 2019-20 season by traveling to Italy for 10 days in August. NU visited Rome, Florence and Como during the trip, while also going 4-0 against teams from Italy and Lithuania.

► While Nebraska has only one player who has previously played at Nebraska (Thorir Thorbjarnarson), a good portion of the roster has Division I experience. The Huskers feature six transfers, including five newcomers, who have combined for more than 3,000 points at the Division I level. Dachon Burke Jr. is the only returnee in the group after he began his collegiate career at Robert Morris before sitting out the 2018-19 season at Nebraska.

► Nebraska's 14 newcomers (11 scholarship, three walk-ons) is the highest newcomer total in Division I this season. East Carolina is second nationally with 13 newcomers.

► One strength of the Husker coaching staff is a familiarity with each other, as three staff members had worked with Hoiberg as assistant coaches during his previous stint at Iowa State from 2010 to 2015. Matt Abdelmassih also worked under Hoiberg in the front office with the Minnesota Timberwolves, while Bobby Lutz was an assistant coach with the Windy City Bulls in the G League while Hoiberg coached the Chicago Bulls.

► Junior college transfers Cam Mack (third) and Jervay Green (eighth) were both ranked in the top-10 nationally by JUCORECruiting.com in this year's recruiting class. NU is the only school in the country with two of the top-10 junior college transfers in 2019. They are also the two highest rated junior college players signed by the Huskers since 2011, the first year listed in the database. Prior to this year, Dylan Talley was NU's highest junior college recruit by the site, as he was 11th in 2011.

► Since moving into Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2013, the Huskers have ranked in the top-15 in attendance nationally all six years. NU averaged 15,341 fans per home game to rank 10th nationally in attendance in 2018-19. Pinnacle Bank Arena will be sold out for the upcoming year, as all available season tickets were sold out in August.

Nebraska is one of nine schools in the country to average 15,000+ fans per contest every year since 2013-14. The others include Kentucky, Syracuse, Louisville, North Carolina, Wisconsin, Indiana, Kansas and Creighton.

In all, the Big Ten has led NCAA Basketball in attendance for 43 straight years, dating back to the 1976-77 season. Big Ten schools drew more than a combined three million fans for the fifth straight year in 2018-19.

► Thorir Thorbjarnarson and Yvan Ouedraogo spent part of the summer representing their home nations. Thorbjarnarson played in three games for Iceland's Senior National Team during the Games of the Small States of Europe, averaging 10 points per game. Ouedraogo played for France's U-18 team at the FIBA European Championships, as the team went 6-1 and earned a fifth-place finish. He averaged 4.0 points, 3.6 rebounds and 0.8 steals per game as the second-youngest member of the team.

In addition, former Huskers Tai Webster (New Zealand) and Jorge Brian Diaz (Puerto Rico) represented their nations in the 2019 FIBA World Cup. Diaz started all five games in helping Puerto Rico reach the second round, while Webster averaged 13.4 points and 4.8 assists as New Zealand's starting point guard.

► Isaiah Roby ended Nebraska's NBA Draft drought, as he was selected in the second round by the Detroit Pistons (No. 45 overall) before his rights were traded to Dallas. It was the highest a Husker basketball player had been picked since Tyrone Lue went with the No. 23 pick in the 1998 NBA Draft. Roby was one of three former Huskers in the 2019 NBA Summer League, joining James Palmer Jr. (Phoenix) and Andrew White III (New York).

2019-20 SCHEDULE NOTES

- ▶ The Huskers' exhibition game with Doane on Oct. 30 will mark the 14th time since 2001 that Nebraska will play an in-state opponent in an exhibition game. Doane was also NU's exhibition opponent in 2011.
- ▶ The season-opener against UC Riverside on Nov. 5 marks the earliest season-opening date in school history. The Highlanders are also one of two first-time opponents on the 2019-20 schedule, as NU will also meet Texas A&M-Corpus Christi for the first time on Dec. 29. NU could also meet another first-time opponent in George Mason on the second day of the Cayman Islands Classic.
- ▶ Nebraska's appearance in the Cayman Islands Classic (Nov. 25-27) will mark the Huskers' first regular-season trip outside the United States since playing the 2010 Puerto Rico Tipoff. NU will be looking for its first in-season tournament title since the 2000 San Juan Shootout.
- ▶ Nebraska will look to continue its success on the road in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge when it faces Georgia Tech on Dec. 5. The Huskers are 3-1 away from Lincoln in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, posting wins at Wake Forest (2012), Florida State (2014) and Clemson (2018). The Huskers are one of two Big Ten teams with a winning record on the road in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, while NU's three road wins tied for second among Big Ten programs since the event began in 1999. NU's first appearance in the event came in 2011.
- ▶ The 2019-20 schedule features 20 Big Ten games, which includes seven double-play opponents (Indiana, Iowa, Rutgers, Ohio State, Northwestern, Wisconsin and Michigan). The Huskers' home single plays are Purdue, Penn State and Michigan State, while the Huskers will travel to Maryland, Illinois and Minnesota.
- ▶ The 2020 Big Ten Tournament returns to Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis for the 11th time in the event's history, but the first since 2016.
- ▶ A minimum of 26 regular-season games will be broadcast nationally, including 19 appearances on the Big Ten Network, four on FS1 and three on the ESPN family of networks (ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU). In addition, four other regular-season games will be available online on BTN+.

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Thorir Thorbjarnarson (pronounced Thor-EAR thorb-YAR-nar-son) returns as the most experienced returning player on the Huskers' 2019-20 roster. He played in 25 games as a sophomore and made seven starts, including all five of the Huskers' Big Ten and NIT Tournament games. Thorbjarnarson's combination of size and high basketball IQ allow him to play several positions in Fred Hoiberg's attack. More importantly, Thorbjarnarson showed extensive improvement and consistency in his shooting during the offseason, showing off his improved 3-point shooting during the Huskers' trip to Italy in August.

While he averaged just 6.3 points per game during the four games in Italy, he was third on the team in rebounding (3.6 rpg), assists (3.0 apg) and steals (1.7 spg) while posting a team-best 12-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio.

2019 (SUMMER)

Thorbjarnarson played in three games for Iceland's Senior National Team during the Games of the Small States of Europe, averaging 10 points per game in about 20 minutes per contest. He had 14 points against Montenegro and closed out the event with 14 points against Cyprus in the third-place game.

2018-19 (SOPHOMORE)

Thorbjarnarson made an impact, as he played in 25 games, including seven starts, as NU made its second straight NIT appearance. He averaged 2.0 points, 2.1 rebounds and 1.2 assists per game, while posting a 2.2-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio in just over 12 minutes per game. He earned a spot in the rotation after a season-ending injury to Isaac Copeland Jr., and played in 16 of the Huskers' final 17 contests, including all five postseason games.

After a rash of season-ending injuries in the backcourt, he moved into the starting lineup for the Huskers' postseason run and filled in admirably. He averaged 5.2 points, 2.8 rebounds, 1.6 assists and 2.2 steals per game over NU's final five games, closing the year with eight points, three assists, and two steals in the second-round NIT loss at TCU. Thorbjarnarson had a career-high four assists and three steals in the first-round win over Butler. He played a major role in NU's win over No. 21 Maryland in the Big Ten Tournament, recording a personal-best five steals. He also had five points against No. 19 Wisconsin and four against both Maryland and Rutgers.

Thorbjarnarson's biggest moment of the year came in the final seconds of overtime against Iowa in the regular-season finale, as he blocked Jordan Bohannon's 3-point attempt to preserve NU's 93-91 win. He had four points, three assists and two blocked shots as NU rallied from a nine-point deficit in the final 50 seconds of regulation. He played double-digit minutes five times in Big Ten play. He took advantage of an opportunity against No. 24 Wisconsin, grabbing a career-high 10 rebounds in 17 minutes. That performance started a string of four straight games in which he played at least 10 minutes, including starts against nationally ranked Maryland and at Purdue. In all, he played in 11 of NU's final 12 Big Ten games.

His biggest offensive effort came in the season opener against Mississippi Valley State, when he scored a career-high nine points and grabbed four rebounds in 21 minutes. He also provided a spark against Oklahoma State, dishing out two assists in a four-minute stint that helped NU erase a seven-point deficit.

2018 (SUMMER)

Thorbjarnarson played for Iceland's U-20 National Team in July of 2018. At the FIBA U-20 European Championships, he averaged 9.4 points, 4.0 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 1.6 steals per game, ranking second on the team in scoring and first in assists. He closed tournament action with three straight double figure efforts and averaged 18.5 points on 67 percent shooting, including 55 percent from 3-point range, in Iceland's final two contests.

2017-18 (FRESHMAN)

Thorbjarnarson was one of three true freshmen to earn playing time on NU's 22-win team. He played in nine games, totaling eight points, four rebounds and three assists in 19 minutes of work. His best performance of the year came in the win over Delaware State on Dec. 22, when he had six points, including a pair of 3-pointers, and an assist in four minutes of action. He also had a basket, rebound, assist and steal in just two minutes against Marist on Nov. 24. He appeared in three Big Ten games, as well as the Big Ten Tournament opener against No. 13 Michigan at Madison Square Garden. He tallied two rebounds and an assist in the win over No. 23 Michigan on Jan. 18.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Thorbjarnarson was one of the top youth players in Iceland, playing in the country's top league as well as in the national team program. Thorbjarnarson made his national team debut in 2017, representing his nation in the Small States of Europe event, helping Iceland to a third-place finish. He also played for the U-20 national team at the FIBA European Championships. At the 2016 FIBA U-18 European Championships, Thorbjarnarson was the third-leading scorer in the tournament, averaging 19.6 points per game, including a 39-point effort and three other 30-point games. He also chipped in 6.3 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 4.9 steals per game. In 2016, he was selected as MVP of the Nordic Championships with the U-18 team, including a 33-point performance in the finals to lead Iceland to victory. Thorbjarnarson played for KR Reykjavik in the Icelandic League for three years, helping the team to three straight titles and a pair of Icelandic Cups in 2016 and 2017. In his final season, he averaged 10.2 points, 2.6 rebounds and 1.9 assists per game for a team that went 26-8 and won the league championship in the top pro league in the country. Thorbjarnarson shot 53 percent from the field, including 38 percent from 3-point range and was selected as the top young player in the league. He also considered UMass, UConn, Utah, Drexel and UAB before signing with Nebraska.

PERSONAL

The son of Thorbjorn Jonsson and Hildur Fridleifsdottir, Thorir was born on May 26, 1998, in Akureyri, Iceland. Thorir graduated from Menntaskólinn i Reykjavik in May of 2017. He has three older brothers, Leifur, Jon Askell and Kristofer. Thorir is majoring in psychology.

DACHON BURKE JR.

#11

GUARD | 6-4 | 180 | JUNIOR

HOMETOWN: ORANGE, N.J.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: ROBERT MORRIS COLLEGE

- Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2019)
- Second-Team All-Northeast Conference (2018)
- Four-Time Northeast Conference Player of the Week

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Junior guard Dachon Burke (pronounced DAY-shawn) has spent the last year waiting for his opportunity. After transferring from Robert Morris, Burke gave the Husker starters fits in practice during his sitout year and is poised to fill some of the offensive void for the Big Red. The 6-foot-4 guard was a second-team All-Northeast Conference pick at Robert Morris, where he averaged 17.6 points, 5.8 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 2.1 steals per game in 2017-18. Burke, who was fourth in the NEC in scoring and first in steals, uses his athleticism to get to the basket and to the free throw line, and his experience will be valuable to a Husker attack that returns one player with Big Ten experience.

During the Huskers' trip to Italy, Burke led NU in scoring at 13.5 points per game while also chipping in 2.3 steals and a team-high 1.0 blocks per game.

2018-19 (REDSHIRT)

Burke sat out after transferring from Robert Morris and was a valuable member of the Husker scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Burke began his collegiate career at Robert Morris University, spending two seasons with the Colonials before transferring to Nebraska in the summer of 2018. He earned second-team All-Northeast Conference recognition for Coach Andrew Toole, averaging a team-high 17.6 points per game while also adding 5.8 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 2.1 steals per game as a sophomore. Burke led the NEC in steals per game and ranked fourth in scoring and 14th in rebounding during his sophomore season. He put up 30 double-figure efforts in 2017-18 and finished the year on RMU's top-10 list in both points (562, seventh) and field goals (210, eighth). A four-time NEC Player of the Week, Burke had a pair of double-doubles and had 11 20-point efforts, including a career-high 29-point outburst against eventual tournament champion LIU Brooklyn.

As a freshman, he played in 33 games, including 17 starts, and averaged 7.6 points, 3.9 rebounds and 1.5 steals per game. He had 11 double-figure games, including a season-high 17-point effort against Sacred Heart.

He prepped at Coastal Academy, averaging 17.2 points, 6.0 assists and 4.4 rebounds per game after playing his high school basketball at Orange (N.J.) High School. As a senior, he averaged 17.0 points and 5.4 assists per game and was second-team All-Essex County in 2015.

PERSONAL

Dachon is the son of Tamika Rumph and Dachon Burke Sr., and was born on Nov. 25, 1997, in Orange, N.J. He has one brother, Tamir Coram, and one sister, Quaniesh Rumph. Burke majors in human development and family science.

HAANIF CHEATHAM

GUARD | 6-5 | 194 | REDSHIRT SENIOR

HOMETOWN: FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: FLORIDA GULF COAST UNIVERSITY

• Big East All-Freshman Team (2015-16)

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Haanif Cheatham (pronounced Hah-NEEF CHEE-tum) was the first recruit to sign with Nebraska following the hiring of Fred Hoiberg and will be a key piece of the 2019-20 Huskers. The fifth-year senior has the length and versatility to play several positions in the new-look Husker attack, as he can play on the wing or inside at the forward spot if NU goes with a smaller lineup. Cheatham quickly became one of the leaders following his arrival on campus this summer and brings high-level experience to NU after playing at Marquette and Florida Gulf Coast.

Cheatham has made a team-high 73 starts at the collegiate level, including 63 over two-plus years at Marquette. Husker coaches rave about his competitiveness and ability to affect the game on both ends of the court. Last season, Cheatham was on pace to set career bests, averaging 13.2 points and 4.8 rebounds per game at Florida Gulf Coast before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury that ended his year after just 10 games. Following surgery, Cheatham is now fully healthy entering his final collegiate season.

During the Huskers' trip to Italy, he was second on the team in scoring at 11.8 points per game, while topping the Huskers at 6.3 rebounds per game

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Cheatham spent the 2018-19 season at Florida Gulf Coast, averaging 13.2 points, 4.8 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 1.2 steals per game, as he started 10 games before season-ending surgery. He reached double figures eight times, including a 23-point effort on 10-of-16 shooting against South Dakota State and a 20-point night against Florida Atlantic. He shot 45 percent from the field, including percent from 3-point range, in his only year at the school.

He spent two-plus seasons at Marquette, earning Big East All-Freshman Team honors in 2015-16 and earned the team's Best Defensive Player Award in each of his first two full seasons at the school (2015-16, 2016-17). He started all 33 games as a freshman, averaging 11.8 points on 49 percent shooting, 3.4 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game. He reached double figures 21 times, including a career-high 24 points on 7-of-12 shooting against Jackson State, a contest he went 4-of-4 from 3-point range. In Big East play, he reached double figures 12 times, including three 20-point performances in a four-game stretch. He also averaged 16.5 points per game in the Golden Eagles' two Big East Tournament contests.

CAREER HIGHS (AT MARQUETTE & FGCU)

Points	24, Jackson State (11/29/15)

As a sophomore, Cheatham averaged 8.7 points and 3.8 rebounds per game, while starting 25 of 32 games for Marquette, which went 19-13 and reached the NCAA Tournament. He was third on the team with 71 assists, while cutting his turnovers from 88 to 51. He reached double figures 14 times, including six consecutive games to open the season. He had a season-high 22 points on 8-of-11 shooting vs. IUPUI, while reaching double figure six times in Big East action, including 17 against Seton Hall. Cheatham started Marquette's first five games as a junior, averaging 8.2 points and 2.8 rebounds per game, before transferring Cheatham was a consensus top-100 prospect coming out of Pembroke Pines Charter High School under head coach Dave Roca. He was ranked No. 73 nationally by CBSSports.com, No. 76 by Rivals and No. 83 on ESPN's top-100 recruits ranking. As a senior, he helped his team to a regional finals appearance, averaging 24.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game before falling to eventual state champion Miami Norland. He garnered first-team all-state honors by the Florida Association of Basketball Coaches. As a junior, he averaged 26.2 points, 7.5 rebounds, 4.4 assists and 3.0 steals per game en route to another regional final appearance. His junior campaign was highlighted by four triple-doubles, which helped him earn Florida Dairy Farmer's Class 6A Player-of-the-Year accolades. He played AAU ball for Nike Team Florida and was invited to compete in the Kevin Durant Skills Academy, LeBron James Skills Academy and Nike Global Challenge.

PERSONAL

Haanif Cheatham was born on Sept. 6, 1996, in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He is the son of Ingrid Weiss and Terry Cheatham. Haanif has three sisters (Kinyet Fincher, Gloria Fincher and Lisa Brock) and one brother (Billy Brock). Cheatham received his undergraduate degree in communication studies from FGCU the summer of 2019 and is working on his master's degree in family & community services.

HOMETOWN: LJUBLJANA, SLOVENIA
 PREVIOUS SCHOOL: SEATTLE UNIVERSITY

- Preseason First-Team All-WAC (2018-19)
- Second-Team All-WAC (2017-18)
- WAC Freshman of the Year (2016-17)

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Shooting is paramount in Fred Hoiberg's system and the addition of Matej Kavvas (pronounced MAH-tey KAH-vahs) is a significant one for the Husker basketball program. Kavvas, a 6-foot-8 guard, is one of college basketball's top 3-point shooters, as he enters the 2019-20 season ranked third among active Division I players in 3-point percentage (.447). Kavvas was a three-year performer at Seattle University, earning All-Western Athletic Conference honors in 2017-18. Kavvas possesses a high basketball IQ and has the skillset to make significant contributions. One of two fifth-year seniors on the 2019-20 roster, Kavvas will be counted on for his leadership as he helps guide a young, but talented roster.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

A preseason first-team All-WAC selection in 2018-19, Kavvas was limited to 24 games because a significant shin injury suffered in early January. He finished the season averaging 10.3 points and 4.6 rebounds per game while shooting 46 percent from 3-point range. At the time of his injury, he was averaging 14.1 points and 6.3 rebounds per game and had reached double-figures in 13 of his first 16 contests. He totaled three 20-point games in 2018-19, including a 26-point outburst vs. Omaha and a 22-point, 13-rebound effort against Longwood. He missed nearly six weeks of action with the injury, as Seattle went 1-7 in that stretch. Kavvas saw limited action the rest of the season until Seattle's CollegeInsider.com Tournament game against Presbyterian when he had 11 points and five rebounds in 20 minutes.

Kavvas was a second-team All-WAC selection as a sophomore, as he averaged 15.2 points, 5.1 rebounds and 1.2 assists per game. He led the WAC in both 3-point percentage (.474) and 3-pointers per game (2.8) while also finishing third in the conference in scoring and 11th in rebounding. Kavvas was eighth nationally in 3-point percentage in 2017-18. He reached double figures 28 times, including nine games of at least 20 points. He had a career-high 27-point outing against Detroit Mercy, when he went 7-of-9 from 3-point range. Kavvas also had 25 points on 8-of-14 shooting against Washington and 20 points on 7-of-14 shooting against Cal.

Kavvas earned WAC Freshman-of-the-Year accolades in 2016-17, as he averaged 8.6 points and 2.9 rebounds per game while shooting 40 percent from 3-point range to rank fourth in the conference. In all, he finished in double figures 13 times as a freshman and was the team's third-leading scorer in WAC play at 11.6 ppg. He missed his first season at the school after suffering a knee injury during the summer of 2015.

Before college, he was a member of the Slovenia U16 and U18 teams and averaged 13.4 points and 5.2 rebounds per game at the 2014 U18 European Championships. He played his club ball with Jance Ljubljana and helped them to a fourth-place finish. He was the MVP of the Slovenian Junior League, highlighted by a 44-point, 11-rebound performance. Kavvas also looked at Marquette, Oregon State, Wichita State and San Diego after graduating Seattle, but only visited Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Kavvas was both on July 27, 1996, in Ljubljana, Slovenia. He is the son of Branka and Stefan Kavvas. He has one older brother (Andraz), who plays overseas after playing at Harding (Ark.) University. JERVAY GREEN

#23

GUARD | 6-3 | 210 | JUNIOR

HOMETOWN: DENVER, COLO.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: WESTERN NEBRASKA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2019-20 OUTLOOK

One of two junior college transfers in the Huskers' recruiting class, Jervay Green gives the Huskers a combo guard who could slide into any spot in the backcourt. Green, a 6-foot-3, 210-pound guard, was one of the nation's top junior college recruits when he signed with the Huskers last November, spurning a number of schools, including Iowa State and Arizona State. Green comes off a strong sophomore campaign at Western Nebraska Community College, averaging 23.6 points, 5.7 rebounds and 5.3 assists per game en route to second-team All-NJCAA All-America honors. He was ranked by JUCOREcruiting.com as the No. 8 player and No. 2 combo guard in the class of 2019. Green's combination of athleticism and basketball IQ have impressed the Husker coaching staff and put him in a position to see significant minutes in his first season at Nebraska. He played well during the Huskers' Italian trip, averaging 8.3 points, 3.5 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.0 steal per game in the four games. He shot 45 percent from the floor and had a 2.6-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Green comes to Nebraska after a decorated career at Western Nebraska Community College playing for Coach Cory Fehringer. Green finished his two-year career as the program's second all-time leading scorer with 1,278 points and also finished in the top 10 in career assists (fifth, 297), steals (seventh, 114) and 3-pointers (sixth, 134). He was rated as the No. 8 player nationally and No. 2 combo guard in the class of 2019. Green is the third WNCC product to play for the Huskers and first scholarship player since Bernard Garner in the mid-1990s.

As a sophomore, he garnered second-team NJCAA All-America honors, averaging 23.6 points, 5.7 rebounds and 5.3 assists per game. Green shot 55 percent from the field, including 39 percent from 3-point range, while knocking down 2.7 3-pointers per game. He ranked eighth nationally in scoring, as Western Nebraska CC finished with a 24-8 record. For his efforts, he was the South Region IX Player of the Year and was Co-Player of the Year in all of Region IX in 2019. Green was in double figures in 31 of 32 contests, and had 19 games with at least 20 points during his sophomore campaign. He had six 30-point games, including a school-record 51 point performance against Iowa Lakes CC, which included 10-of-14 from 3-point range. He also had a 44-point effort against the College of Southern Idaho, a 40-point game against Laramie County Community College and 38 points against Casper College in the Region IX semifinals. He totaled three double-doubles on the year, including a 26-point, 14-assist effort against North Platte CC.

As a freshman, he averaged 14.9 points, 2.1 rebounds, 3.7 assists, and 1.7 steals a game in helping Western Nebraska CC to a 27-8 record and the program's first regional title in 17 years in 2018. He finished the year scoring in double figures in 23 of the team's last 24 games, culminating with a 35-point effort against Central Wyoming College at the regional tournament.

Green graduated from Denver's George Washington High School where he averaged nearly 20 points, four rebounds, four assists and three steals for a team that went 25-3 and was the Class 5A runner-up as a senior. He scored over 1,000 points in high school and set the school's single-game scoring record with 64 points, breaking the mark held by former NBA star Chauncey Billups.

PERSONAL

Jervay Green was born on Sept. 30, 1998, in Denver, Colo. He is the son of Dorothy Bletson. He has one sister (On'hay Phillips) and two brothers (Calvay Green and Revey Norton). Green is majoring in human development & family science at Nebraska.

DERRICK WALKER

FORWARD | 6-8 | 235 | JUNIOR

HOMETOWN: KANSAS CITY, MO.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Despite sitting out the 2019-20 season, Derrick Walker's impact on the Husker program will be significant. He comes to the Huskers after spending his first two years at the University of Tennessee, helping the Volunteers to 56 wins and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. That experience and leadership will be vital in helping a young Husker frontcourt develop during the course of the year. During offseason workouts, Walker's voice was often heard in practice, helping players communicate on the court, especially on the defensive end. While working hard to improve his own skill set, Walker's size and physicality will be helpful to freshmen post players Kevin Cross and Yvan Ouedraogo, as they prepare for the rigors of the Big Ten season. Walker will have two years of eligibility remaining after sitting out the 2019-20 season.

one sister (Mayah) and one younger brother (Trinton Roland). Derrick is a human development and family science major at Nebraska. While at Tennessee, he was a participant in the 2018 Joint Student-Athlete Leadership Council in Birmingham, Ala., serving as one of 25 Basketball Leadership Council representatives.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Walker played in 30 games as a sophomore, as Tennessee reached the NCAA Sweet 16 and finished with a 31-6 record in 2018-19. He came off the bench and averaged 0.8 points and 1.1 rebounds per game in just over five minutes per contest. He shot 53 percent from the floor, including 6-of-7 from the field in SEC play. He had five points, two boards and a pair of assists in a win over Georgia.

As a freshman, he was an integral member of the Volunteers' 2017-18 SEC title team, appearing in 34 of the Vols' 35 contests and averaging 1.9 points and 2.2 rebounds in 8.8 minutes per game. He was efficient on the offensive end, shooting nearly 60 percent from the floor, including 68 percent (19-of-28) in SEC action. He totaled five or more points six times, including career bests in points (10), field goals (five) and minutes (25) at South Carolina when he hit all five field goal attempts. He set personal bests in both rebounds (seven) and blocks (two) at Alabama and also grabbed seven boards against Ole Miss. In all, he reached double-figures in minutes 11 times, including seven games against SEC competition.

He spent his senior and postgrad years at Sunrise (Kan.) Christian Academy, where he averaged 14 points and seven rebounds per game in 2016-17. He was a four-star prospect by ESPN.com and three-star choice by Rivals and 247Sports, which rated him as the No. 2 prospect in Missouri in 2017. Walker played for the MoKan Elite in the summer of 2016, helping the team win the Nike Peach Jam championship. On that team, he played with 2018 first-round NBA picks Trae Young and Michael Porter Jr. He spent three seasons at Raytown High School, helping the school to a conference title and earning second-team all-conference honors. Walker, who attended the same high school as former Husker legend Tyronn Lue, also played three years of football at the school.

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Dalano Banton (pronounced duh-LAH-no BAN-ten) is the second top-100 transfer brought to the Husker program in the offseason. He began his career at Western Kentucky and played in 31 games as a true freshman, highlighted by a 13-rebound, 10-assist, eight-point performance in a win over nationally-ranked Wisconsin. A 6-foot-8, 195-pound guard, Banton possesses great vision for his size and is a challenging matchup for opposing guards. Banton played during the Huskers' trip to Italy, averaging 5.8 points, 3.5 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 1.3 steals per game in helping the Huskers post a 4-0 record. Banton, who reclassified before enrolling at Western Kentucky, will use his sit out year to gain strength and make strides in his all-around game. He will have three years of eligibility after sitting out the 2019-20 season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Banton played 31 games at Western Kentucky in 2018-19, averaging 3.4 points, 3.0 rebounds and 2.1 assists per game. He made 12 starts and showed his versatility in a win over No. 15 Wisconsin when he nearly had a triple-double with 13 rebounds, 10 assists and eight points in a career-high 38 minutes. Banton was one of only six players in Division I basketball to have a game with at least eight points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists in 2018-19. He had three double-figure scoring efforts on the season, including a season-high 11 points against both Belmont and St. Mary's, as he also had six assists and three blocks against the Gaels.

Banton, who reclassified into the 2018 senior class after graduating early, was ranked in the top 100 recruits nationally in 2018 by Rivals (No. 80) and 247Sports (No. 92). He played his senior year at Redemption (N.Y.) Christian Academy and was named conference MVP. He also played in the BioSteel All-Canadian Game and finished with 19 points, eight rebounds and three steals on 9-of-16 shooting. Banton also played in the All-Canadian Signature Game and was named to the NPSI All-Tournament Team as a senior.

PERSONAL

Dalano Banton was born on Nov. 7, 1999 in Toronto, Ontario. He is the son of Damian Banton and Suzanne English. Banton has not declared a major at Nebraska.

CAM MACK

GUARD | 6-2 | 175 | SOPHOMORE

HOMETOWN: AUSTIN, TEXAS

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: SALT LAKE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2019-20 OUTLOOK

One of the major cogs of Fred Hoiberg's up-tempo offense is a point guard who can play with great pace and get others involved, and the addition of junior college transfer Cam Mack provides the Huskers with that type of floor general. Mack, a 6-foot-2, 175-pound point guard, was the top junior college point guard in the country and No. 3 overall player according to JUCORecruiting.com. He was the highest-rated recruit to sign with Nebraska since the website began in 2011, and pairs with Jervay Green to give NU a new-look backcourt. Mack played at Salt Lake Community College last season, averaging 19.1 points and 7.6 assists per game to rank fifth nationally in assists while posting a 2.8-to-1 turnover ratio. Mack has the ability and quickness to get into the paint and either score or create for his teammates.

Mack got a late start to his Husker career after arriving on campus in late July, as he was unable to practice or play in Italy because of illness, but was back to 100 percent for the start of the fall semester.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Mack spent the 2018-19 season at Salt Lake Community College for Coach Todd Phillips, helping the Bruins to a 20-9 record and a berth in the Region 18 semifinals. A first-team All-Region 18 honoree, Mack averaged a team-high 19.1 points per game. He topped the Bruins in assists (7.6 apg), steals (2.4 spg) and blocked shots (0.6 bpg) while grabbing 5.9 rebounds per game from his point guard spot. He ranked fifth nationally in assists per game while finishing 24th nationally in steals. Mack shot 46 percent from the field and boasted a 2.8-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio.

On the season, Mack totaled five 30-point games, including a 40-point outburst against Casper College, which included 6-of-12 from 3-point range. He dished out 10 or more assists nine times, including a season-best 14 in one contest, while totaling a trio of triple-doubles and nine double-doubles. He closed his season with a 30-point, seven-rebound, six-assist performance against the College of Southern Idaho in the Region 18 semifinals.

A member of the high school class of 2017, 247Sports counted Mack as a three-star recruit, the No. 48 point guard prospect in the nation and the 18th ranked recruit overall in the state of Texas. He spent part of the 2017-18 season at Stephen F. Austin before attending Salt Lake CC. Mack played his first three years of high school basketball for Aggieland Homeschool, leading the Panthers to a 46-13 record as a junior by averaging 19.4 points, 6.7 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 2.3 steals per game. Mack enrolled at Christian Life Preparatory High School for his senior season and promptly led his team to a Texas Christian Athletic League Class 4A state championship after averaging 24.5 points, 2.5 rebounds, 1.5 steals and 1.2 assists per game. He played on the AAU circuit for the Houston Defenders, averaging 11.9 points, 6.5 assists and 3.5 rebounds per game while helping the team post a 10-2 record on the circuit. Mack selected Nebraska over St. John's, Gonzaga and Arizona among others.

PERSONAL

Cameron Mack was born on Austin, Texas, on May 21, 1998. He is the son of Erika Jasper. He has one brother (Christian). Cam majors in human development and family science at Nebraska.

SHAMIEL STEVENSON

GUARD/FORWARD | 6-6 | 245 | SOPHOMORE
HOMETOWN: TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA
PREVIOUS SCHOOL: UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA
• Academic All-ACC (2018)
2019-20 OUTLOOK

Shamiel Stevenson (pronounced Sha-meal) is an intriguing addition to the Husker roster, as he brings two traits - experience and physicality - which are needed with so many newcomers. A 6-foot-6, 245-pound guard/forward, Stevenson spent the his freshman year and the early part of his sophomore season at Pittsburgh, starting 13 times for the Panthers as a true freshman in 2017-18. He averaged 8.5 points per game while shooting over 50 percent from the field and ranking second on the team in rebounding in 2017-18. In the Huskers' system, he could see time in the frontcourt or on the wing, depending on what lineups the Huskers use. After arriving on campus in July, Stevenson helped the Huskers go 4-0 on the trip to Italy, averaging 7.8 points, 3.3 rebounds and 1.3 steals per game.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Stevenson spent the 2017-18 season and the first semester of 2018-19 at Pittsburgh before transferring to Nevada in January of 2019.

As a freshman at Pitt in 2017-18, Stevenson played in 32 games, including 13 starts, and averaged 8.5 points, 4.4 rebounds and 1.0 assist per game for the Panthers. He shot a team-high 50.5 percent from the field and was second on the team in rebounding. He also shot 37.5 percent from 3-point range and got to the foul line a team-high 112 times, a total which ranked fourth among ACC freshmen. He reached double figures 13 times as a freshman, including a career-high 19 points against Montana, when he went 7-of-10 from the field and added six rebounds and three assists. Stevenson posted seven of his double-figure efforts in ACC play, including 17 points against Florida State and 16 at nationally-ranked Miami. He grabbed five or more rebounds on 15 occasions, including a career-high nine caroms at Virginia Tech and against Mount St. Mary's. He played in just four games in 2018-19 before transferring to Nevada following the fall semester.

Stevenson played his senior year at Hillcrest Prep in Arizona, averaging 14.2 points, 6.3 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.2 blocks in his only season at the school. He shot 38 percent from 3-point range and 85 percent from the line, helping the school to a 33-6 record and a No. 9 ranking in the MaxPreps Independent poll. He was selected to play in the BioSteel All-Canadian Game in 2017 and also won the slam dunk contest in the event. Stevenson was also the MVP of the North Pole Hoops Showcase in Ontario, finishing with 22 points, 15 rebounds, four assists, two steals and two blocks in the Top 20 Prospect Game. He was rated as the No. 34 small forward in the 2017 recruiting class by 247 Sports. He also spent two seasons at Wassatch Academy in Utah, averaging 10.9 points and 5.9 rebounds as a junior in helping the school to a 29-4 record and an appearance in the Dick's Sporting Goods High School National Tournament. Stevenson played on the AAU circuit with U-Play Canada, and was invited to compete for a spot on the 2015 Canadian U19 FIBA World Championship National Team. He also played in the 2015 adidas Nations camp, averaging 9.0 points on 73 percent shooting and 3.7 rebounds per game against some of the top prospects from around the world.

PERSONAL

Stevenson is the son of Karen Stevenson and was born on April 24, 1998, in Toronto, Ontario. He has two brothers (Andrew and Takai). In the classroom, he was an academic All-ACC selection at Pittsburgh in 2018 and majors in human development and family science at Nebraska.

FORWARD | 6-6 | 200 | FRESHMAN

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: CREIGHTON PREP HIGH SCHOOL

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Akol Arop (pronounced A-Call uh-Rope) makes the short trip to Lincoln after being one of the state's best high school players at Creighton Prep High School. Arop was the Gatorade Player of the Year last season, averaging 19.4 points, 10.9 rebounds and 2.6 blocks per game as Creighton Prep went 22-5 and reached the Class A state tournament. Arop, who primarily played inside at the high school level, uses his athleticism to make impact plays on both ends of the court and could see time at several spots depending on his development. As he continues to adjust to the college game, Arop will have opportunities to make an impact during his first season as a Husker. Arop comes from an athletic family, as his older brother, Aguek, was the state's Gatorade Player of the Year in 2016, and plays at San Diego State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Arop was the top senior prospect in Nebraska in 2019, playing for Coach Josh Luedtke at Omaha Creighton Prep. A three-year all-state honoree, Arop finished his varsity career with 1,268 points on 66 percent shooting, 733 rebounds and 162 blocked shots as Creighton Prep posted a 69-10 record and three state tournament appearances over the last three seasons.

Arop was the Gatorade Player of the Year in Nebraska and first-team all-state pick by the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star in 2018-19, averaging 19.4 points on 62 percent shooting, 10.9 rebounds and 2.6 blocks per game. He was second in Class A in rebounding and third in blocked shots, as the Junior Jays went 22-5 and advanced to the 2019 Class A State Tournament. Arop reached double figures in 26 of 27 games as a senior, including 19 double-doubles. He recorded a pair of 30-point games as a senior, including a 35-point, 12-rebound performance against Omaha Benson.

A three-star prospect by Rivals, ESPN and 247Sports, Arop helped Creighton Prep to a 26-1 record and the Class A state title in 2018. He was a first-team all-state selection from both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star, averaging 16.0 points on 66 percent shooting, 9.7 rebounds and 2.1 blocks per game. He garnered all-state and first-team all-metro accolades for the first time as a sophomore, averaging 15.0 points, 8.6 rebounds and 1.7 blocks per game, while setting the Class A single-season record for highest field goal percentage (.755). In the classroom, he was on the Creighton Prep honor roll for six semesters.

Arop also played AAU ball for the Omaha Sports Academy, averaging 12.4 points per game on the 2018 adidas Gauntlet, while shooting 62 percent from the field, including 40 percent from 3-point range.

PERSONAL

Akol Arop was born on Dec. 1, 2001, in Egypt before his family moved to the United States in 2003. He is the son of Arop and Aleuliny Arop, and is one of nine kids with two sisters (Achol and Athiang) and six brothers (Arop, Ajang, Makoar, Aguek, Deng, and Jacob). His older brother (Aguek) plays basketball at San Diego State. Akol is a business administration major at Nebraska.

KEVIN CROSS

FORWARD | 6-8 | 240 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: MILLS UNIVERSITY STUDIES HIGH SCHOOL

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Freshman Kevin Cross comes to Nebraska with an opportunity to play extended minutes as a freshman. The 6-foot-8, 240-pound forward was a two-time all-state performer in Arkansas, averaging 18 points and 10 rebounds as a senior at Mills University Studies High School. His team earned state runner-up finishes in both 2018 and 2019. Cross provides an intriguing mix of skills for Coach Fred Hoiberg's attack, as he can handle the ball on the perimeter and can step out to 3-point range. Cross has impressed the staff with his high basketball IQ during offseason workouts and has worked hard to add strength to prepare for the transition to Big Ten action. Cross can play either frontcourt spot and has the ability to help stretch the defense. He played in all four games in Italy, averaging 6.8 points and 4.3 rebounds per game, reaching double figures twice on the trip.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

One of the top players in the state of Arkansas, Cross signed with Nebraska in May of 2019. He played for Coach Raymond Cooper at Mills University Studies High School, earning all-state honors in Arkansas in 2018 and 2019.

As a senior, Cross helped Mills to a 28-5 record and runner-up honors in Class 4A, averaging 18 points, 10 rebounds and two assists per game. For his efforts, he was named first-team all-state in Class 4A by the Arkansas Basketball Coaches Association and garnered second-team all-state (all classes) by the Arkansas

Democrat-Gazette. Cross had 24 points and nine rebounds in the state title game loss to Magnolia. His two best performances as a senior were a 34-point, 20-rebound effort and a 29-point, 21-carom performance. Following the season, he earned MVP honors at the All-Metro Classic with a 32-point effort, which included six 3-pointers.

Cross was also a first-team all-state Class 5A selection by the coaches association and a second-team all-state honoree by the Democrat-Gazette as a junior, averaging 14.9 points and 6.8 caroms per contest as the team went 29-3 en route to a runner-up finish at the state tournament. Cross was a member of the honor roll during his high school career. Cross played his AAU ball for Coach Shaun Raynolds on the C.H.A.M.P.S. program. Cross selected Nebraska over Oklahoma State, TCU and Illinois.

PERSONAL

Kevin is the son of Kevin Cross Sr. and Latoyia Daniel, and was born in Little Rock, Ark., on June 22, 2000. He has a younger brother (Keaton) and a younger sister (Karrington). Cross has not declared a major at Nebraska.

HOMETOWN: XENIA, OHIO

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: XENIA HIGH SCHOOL

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Freshman Samari Curtis has quickly shown the skills to succeed in Fred Hoiberg's up-tempo attack. Curtis, a 6-foot-4 guard, was one of the most prolific scorers in the class of 2019, totaling over 2,100 career points at Xenia High School. As a senior, he earned first-team all-state honors after averaging 33.8 points, 7.3 rebounds, 5.2 assists and 2.4 steals per game. Curtis scored 40 or more points nine times as a senior and also added three double-doubles to show his versatility. He has impressed the Husker coaches with his ability to both score and distribute and has put himself in position to be a major part of the Huskers' rotation.

Curtis is the latest in a long line of Ohio Mr. Basketball selections to make their mark in the Big Ten. Over the last decade, the list has included standouts such as Kaleb Wesson (2017, Ohio State), Xavier Simpson (2016, Michigan), Marc Loving (2013, Ohio State), Trey Burke (2011, Michigan) and Jared Sullinger (2009-10, Ohio State).

Curtis played both guard spots during the Huskers' trip to Italy and averaged 8.3 points, 4.3 rebounds and a team-high 3.5 assists per game. Curtis was second on the team in 3-pointers and also posted a 1.75-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio in helping NU to a 4-0 record.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Curtis was one of the most prolific scoring guards in Ohio High School history and signed with Nebraska in May of 2019. He was Ohio Mr. Basketball in 2019, averaging 33.8 points, 7.3 rebounds, 5.2 assists and 2.4 steals per game for Coach Kent Anderson at Xenia High School. He shot 51 percent from the field as a senior, including 34 percent from 3-point range. He totaled nine 40-point efforts, including a 52-point performance, and had three double-doubles, including a triple-double with 28 points, 11 assists and 10 rebounds. Curtis also finished eighth in state history with 224 free throws and shot 77 percent from the line, as Xenia went 13-11 despite replacing four starters from the previous season.

He finished his career with a school-record 2,109 points, breaking the previous mark by nearly 500 points. Curtis led the Greater Western Ohio Conference (GWOC) in scoring each of the past three seasons, averaging more than 30 points per game in each of his final two seasons at the school.

Curtis, who originally signed with Cincinnati in November of 2018, was a four-star selection by ESPN.com, while he also ranked among the top-200 recruits nationally by 247Sports.

As a junior, he averaged 30.4 points, 5.2 assists and 5.1 rebounds per game while shooting nearly 50 percent from the field en route to third-team All-Ohio accolades by the Ohio Prep Sportswriters Association. A three-time All-GWOC selection and District 9 honoree, Curtis also garnered honorable-mention honors as a sophomore when he averaged 24.1 points per game. He played his AAU basketball for both the C2K Elite and All-Ohio Red programs. Curtis chose Nebraska over Cincinnati, Xavier and Virginia Tech.

PERSONAL

Samari Curtis was born on Dec. 15, 1999, in Xenia, Ohio. He is the son of Revanne Arrington and Nathan Curtis and has one younger brother (Marcus). Samari is a sports media and communication major at Nebraska.

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Charlie Easley joins the Nebraska basketball program as a walk-on for the 2019-20 season. A 6-foot-2, 190-pound guard, Easley stays home after starring at Lincoln Pius X High School, leading the school to a Class B state title in 2019. Easley was a first-team all-state performer, averaging 23.3 points, 6.1 rebounds and 4.1 assists per game as a senior and turned down Division I scholarship offers to walk on at Nebraska. Easley's poise, competitiveness and basketball IQ have impressed the coaching staff during the preseason workouts. Easley had a chance to earn playing time on the Huskers' trip to Italy after Cam Mack's illness, and Easley performed well, averaging 5.3 points per game, including a 15-point effort in the finale. He shot 61 percent from the field on the trip, including 5-of-7 from 3-point range, as he found a role in Fred Hoiberg's 3-point attack.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Easley was a three-year starter and finished with a school-record 1,412 points playing for Coach Brian Spicka. Easley earned first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and first-team Super-State accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star as a senior after leading Pius X to a 27-2 record and a Class B state tournament title. The co-captain of the Journal Star's all-state team, he averaged 23.3 points, 6.1 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 3.1 steals per game as a senior to pace the Thunderbolts in all four categories. Easley shot 51 percent from the field, including 45 percent from the 3-point line, and 86 percent from the foul line.

He was in double figures in all 29 games, including four 30-point games. Easley shined in the Class B state title game, totaling 25 points, 12 rebounds and six assists in a double-overtime win over Omaha Roncalli. For his efforts, he was selected as the captain of the all-state tournament team among all six classes.

Easley garnered third-team All-Nebraska honors from the World-Herald as a junior, averaging 17.6 points, 6.0 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.9 steals per game, as Pius X went 16-9 before falling to eventual state champion Creighton Prep in triple overtime in the first round of the Class A state tournament. He made an impact as a sophomore, averaging 13.2 points, 3.4 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 2.7 steals per game. In the classroom, Easley was an Academic All-State honoree by the Journal Star and was a member of the honor roll at Pius X High School.

Easley played AAU ball for the Omaha Sports Academy and Coach Andy King. Easley was teammates with fellow Husker freshmen Akol Arop, Jace Piatkowski and Bret Porter on the AAU circuit.

PERSONAL

Charlie is the son of Ed and Tiffany Easley and was both on Nov. 27, 2000, in Lincoln, Neb. Easley has one older brother (Jack), two younger brothers (Sam and Thomas) and a younger sister (Emma). Easley's father played collegiately at Nebraska Wesleyan. Charlie is a business administration major in UNL's College of Business.

HOMETOWN: OMAHA, NEB

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: ELKHORN HIGH SCHOOL

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Freshman Jace Piatkowski joined the Husker program in May of 2019 as a walk-on. He continues the Piatkowski legacy in the Husker basketball program, as his father, Eric, ranks second in school history in scoring and is one of four Huskers to have their jersey retired. His uncle, Troy, played three seasons in the late 1990s, helping NU make three postseason appearances. Jace enjoyed a solid career at Elkhorn South High School, averaging 18.3 points per game as a senior. Not surprisingly, he led his school with 45 3-pointers, averaging nearly 2.0 per game last winter. Piatkowski played in three of the Huskers' wins in Italy, hitting a 3-pointer in the opener. He will add depth for the Husker backcourt, as he gets stronger and adjusts to Division I basketball.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Piatkowski comes to Nebraska after starring at Elkhorn South High School for Coach Nolan Reilly. He totaled 775 points in his high school career, including 91 3-pointers, in three seasons on the varsity. As a senior, he averaged 18.6 points and 3.3 rebounds per game in 23 games, highlighted by a 36-point performance against Lincoln High.

He paced Elkhorn South with 46 3-pointers and also shot 77 percent from the foul line in 2018-19. For his efforts, he was a Class A honorable-mention all-state selection and a third-team all-metro selection from the Omaha World-Herald.

Piatkowski averaged 14.0 points and 3.2 rebounds per game as a junior. He topped ESHS with 45 3-pointers and shot nearly 40 percent from 3-point range while also shooting nearly 80 percent from the foul line. A three-year performer, Piatkowski also played AAU ball for Coach Andy King at the Omaha Sports Academy, teaming with fellow Husker freshmen Akol Arop, Charlie Easley and Bret Porter. Piatkowski is the third Elkhorn South product to play at Nebraska, joining Johnny Trueblood and Justin Costello.

Piatkowski was a member of the Elkhorn South honor roll all four years and earned Academic All-State accolades by carrying a 4.0 GPA. He had some scholarship interest from lower-level schools, and chose to walk on at Nebraska over a walk-on opportunity at Grand Canyon University.

PERSONAL

Jace is the son of Kristen and Eric Piatkowski and was born on May 1, 2001, in Santa Monica, Calif. He has two sisters (Paige and Paisley). Jace has not declared a major at Nebraska. Jace's father (Eric) was one of the greatest players in Husker school history, as he totaled 1,934 points from 1990 to 1994, helping Nebraska to four straight NCAA Tournaments. A two-time first-team All-Big Eight pick, Piatkowski was the MVP of the 1994 Big Eight Tournament, highlighted by a school-record 42-point effort against Oklahoma. He was a first-round draft pick in 1994 and played 14 seasons in the NBA. His No. 52 jersey was retired by Nebraska in 2006 when he was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame.

FORWARD | 6-6 | 215 | FRESHMAN

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: MILLARD NORTH HIGH SCHOOL

2019-20 OUTLOOK

Freshman Bret Porter was born to be a Husker. The 6-foot-6, 215-pound forward continues a family legacy that dates back more than a century, as he becomes Nebraska's first four-generation performer. While his father, grandfather and great-grandfather all played football for the Huskers, Bret paved a different route, shining on the basketball court at Millard North High School. He was a three-year starter and showed his toughness by returning to action months after a torn ACL prior to his senior season. Porter saw limited time in Italy, but played in three contests and had a basket in the opener. He will provide depth in the post, where NU has only two scholarship players available at the start of the year, and add strength to his frame.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Porter played for Coach Tim Cannon at Millard North High School, totaling 701 points, 317 rebounds and 177 assists during his high school career. A three-year starter, Porter showed toughness as a senior, returning from a torn ACL in the summer of 2018 to average 6.2 points on 52 percent shooting and 4.4 rebounds per game in 21 games. His effort helped Millard North to a 16-8 record and a Class A district finals appearance. Porter's best game as a senior was a 17-point, 10-rebound effort against Omaha North.

He was a key cog for the Mustangs during his junior campaign, starting all 24 games and averaging 13.5 points and a team-high 7.5 rebounds per game. He totaled five double-doubles as a junior, highlighted by a career-high 29-point, 10-carom outburst against Papillion-La Vista South. Porter moved into the starting lineup as a sophomore, averaging 10.8 points and 5.0 rebounds per game for the Mustangs.

Porter played his AAU ball with the Omaha Sports Academy under Andy King, as he teamed with fellow Husker freshmen Akol Arop, Jace Piatkowski and Charlie Easley and helped the program to a trio of top-25 national finishes.

PERSONAL

Bret is the son of Budge and Diane Porter and was born on Sept. 10, 2000, in Omaha. He has an older sister (Claire) and a twin sister (Brooke). Porter is a social science major at Nebraska. Bret is Nebraska's first four-generation athlete, as his father (Budge, 1975) grandfather (Mort, 1943, 1946-47) and great grandfather (Grove, 1913-15) all played football for the Cornhuskers.

2019-20 HUSKERS

#24

FORWARD | 6-9 | 260 | FRESHMAN

HOMETOWN: BORDEAUX, FRANCE

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF SPORT, EXPERTISE AND PERFORMANCE (INSEP)

2019-20 OUTLOOK

The arrival of freshman Yvan Ouedraogo (pronounced I-VAN way-drah-O-go) in August gives the Huskers some much-needed size in the frontcourt. The 6-foot-9, 260-pounder from Bordeaux, France, missed the entire summer and the Huskers' Italian trip as he represented his country in the U-18 European Championships. One of two top-150 recruits in Fred Hoiberg's first recruiting class, Ouedraogo oozes with potential, as he has a solid foundation of skills and the size and physicality to compete in the Big Ten despite not turning 18 until after the 2019-20 regular season. He will get an opportunity to play early, as the Huskers only have three eligible players over 6-7 on the 2019-20 roster. While there may be an adjustment as Ouedraogo adapts to college basketball at a young age, the coaching staff believes that he has a chance to eventually flourish with the Huskers.

2019 (SUMMER)

Ouedraogo spent most of the summer playing for France's U-18 team at the European Championships, as the team went 6-1 and earned a fifth-place finish. The second-youngest player on France's 12-man roster, he was a valuable reserve, averaging 4.0 points, 3.6 rebounds and 0.8 steals per game while playing 14.7 minutes per game. He reached double figures twice in tournament play, tallying 11 points in 12 minutes against Latvia in pool play and against Great Britain in the classification round. France was 6-0 when he played double-figure minutes.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Ouedraogo attended the National Institute of Sport, Expertise and Performance (INSEP). In 2018-19, Ouedraogo played in 26 games for Centre Fédéral de Basketball, which is a program in the top amateur league in France. Despite turning 17 in March of 2019, he averaged 5.4 points and 4.4 rebounds per game. Ouedraogo was also selected for the Adidas Next Generation Tournament in the U-18 Division, averaging 5.3 points and 4.3 rebounds against some of Europe's top youth competition, including a nine-point, 10-rebound performance.

He has also represented France in international competition, including the 2018 FIBA U16 European Championships, when he averaged 12.7 points and 9.7 rebounds per game. He finished second on the team in both scoring and rebounding to help France to a fourth-place finish and earned team MVP honors. He had a pair of double-doubles in the tournament, including a 23-point, 15-rebound performance in a win over Serbia in the quarterfinals and a 14-point, 15-carom effort against Estonia in the group phase.

Other prominent players to come from the INSEP program have included Clint Capela, Boris Diaw and Tony Parker. Ouedraogo selected Nebraska over TCU, Georgia Tech, Vanderbilt, Oregon and Miami.

PERSONAL

Yvan was born on March 22, 2002, in Bordeaux, France, and is the son of Jeannine Zangreyanogho and Désiré Ouedraogo. He has one younger sister (Alyson) and one younger brother (Axel). Yvan has not declared a major at Nebraska.

HOIBERG

FRED HOIBERG

HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON

ALMA MATER (YEAR): IOWA STATE (1995)

NCAA RECORD: 115-56 (FIVE SEASONS)

Fred Hoiberg ushered in a new era for Nebraska basketball, as he was named head coach on March 30, 2019, and formally introduced on April 2, 2019.

Hoiberg, who was born in Lincoln, is the 28th coach in the history of Nebraska men's basketball, a fraternity that includes his grandfather, Jerry Bush, who guided the Husker program for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963. Hoiberg's ties run deep to Nebraska as his other grandfather, Otto Hoiberg, was a history professor at the University, while his father, Eric, received his doctorate degree from Nebraska.

Hoiberg brings a distinguished resume to Lincoln that includes four years as an NBA front office executive, four years as an NBA head coach and five years at Iowa State, where he orchestrated the biggest turnaround in Big 12 history in 2011-12 and guided the school to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Following his 10-year NBA playing career, Hoiberg worked in the front office for the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves, serving as assistant general manager before being promoted to vice president of basketball operations. He left the Timberwolves to get into coaching, accepting the head job at Iowa State, his alma mater. Hoiberg led the Cyclones to four NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of Big 12 Tournament championships in his five seasons at the school. His success in Ames led him back to the NBA as head coach of the Chicago Bulls, where he helped the Bulls to a playoff appearance in his second season.

Hoiberg has experienced incredible success at the collegiate level. He won more games than any other player during his time as a Cyclone guard and then returned to post the top winning percentage of any coach in Iowa State history. He won four NCAA Tournament games at Iowa State – a program record – and developed four players who eventually became NBA Draft picks and four All-Americans in his five seasons.

CHICAGO BULLS HEAD COACH

Hoiberg was named an NBA head coach just five years into his coaching career. He led Chicago to immediate success, as the Bulls finished with a 42-40 record in his first year in 2015-16, when Hoiberg became just the fifth coach in franchise history to have a winning record in his debut season. The next season, Hoiberg took Chicago to the Eastern Conference Playoffs. The No. 8 seed Bulls went on the road and won the first two games of a first-round series against the top-seed Boston Celtics, becoming the first No. 8 seed to take a 2-0 lead against a No. 1 seed since 1993. Hoiberg became the fifth coach in NBA history to have each of his first two career playoff victories come on the road. The 2017 playoffs also marked the first time Chicago had won the first two games of a playoff series on the road since the 1993 NBA Finals. Overall, Chicago won more than 40 games in two of Hoiberg's three full seasons.

IOWA STATE HEAD COACH

Hoiberg led a resurgence at his alma mater, leaving a lasting legacy in five seasons. He guided Iowa State to a 115-56 record – including a 99-40 mark in his final four seasons – to post the top winning percentage (.673) in Cyclone history. Hoiberg led Iowa State to a program-record four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, while tying the school record with four NCAA Tournament coaching victories. Hoiberg also posted the top conference winning percentage (.557) in ISU history and guided Iowa State to back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles in 2014 and 2015.

Hoiberg inherited a Cyclone program that had not made the NCAA Tournament or had a winning conference record in five years. But after just one rebuilding year, Hoiberg guided the Cyclones to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments before leaving for the NBA. His 115 wins were the most by any coach in a five-year span in Iowa State history.

After a 16-16 debut season, Hoiberg led the Cyclones to a 23-11 record and the thir round of the 2012 NCAA Tournament. ISU went 12-6 in Big 12 play in Hoiberg's second season, winning nine more conference games than the previous season to post the biggest one-year turnaround in Big 12 history. Hoiberg was named the Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Hoiberg guided the Cyclones to another 23-win season in his third year, when Iowa State advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. In his fourth season, the Cyclones finished 28-8, won the 2014 Big 12 Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16. In Hoiberg's final season, Iowa State defended its Big 12 Tournament title and earned a No. 3 seed for the NCAA Tournament.

Hoiberg oversaw one of the nation's top offenses during his tenure at Iowa State. The Cyclones led the Big 12 with an average of 77.9 points per game in Hoiberg's final four seasons, ranking in the top 10 nationally in scoring twice in those four seasons. His Cyclones led the Big 12 in 3-pointers in four of his five seasons and in his final season at ISU, his team led the conference in scoring offense (77.8), field goal percentage (.476) assists per game (16.1), turnovers per game (11.0) and 3-pointers per game (7.7).

Fred Hoiberg led the Chicago Bulls for three-plus seasons, as he won 42 games in his first season and reached the NBA Playoffs the following campaign.

N 2019-20 NEBRASKA BASKETBALL HEAD COACH FRED HOIBERG

Hoiberg guided Iowa State to back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles in 2014 and 2015, and helped the Cyclones make four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Hoiberg also excelled at player development at Iowa State, producing four players who were selected in the NBA Draft. He also coached four All-Americans and 12 All-Big 12 players, including 2014 Big 12 Player of the Year Melvin Ejim, in his five seasons at Iowa State.

MINNESOTA TIMBERWOLVES FRONT OFFICE

After spending the final two seasons of his 10-year NBA career in Minnesota, Hoiberg transitioned into the Timberwolves' front office. Hoiberg served as the team's vice president of basketball operations in his final season, overseeing the day-to-day operations of basketball programs including college and pro scouting, salary cap management and NBA Draft preparations. He served as the Timberwolves' assistant general manager in his first three seasons in the front office, where he helped Minnesota orchestrate a draft-day trade for five-time all-star Kevin Love in 2008.

NBA PLAYING CAREER

Hoiberg was a 10-year NBA veteran, playing for the Indiana Pacers (four seasons), Chicago Bulls (four seasons) and Minnesota Timberwolves (two seasons). Hoiberg played in 541 games in his NBA career and was a member of three playoff teams, including a Timberwolves team that reached the 2004 Western Conference Finals. Hoiberg scored 2,944 points in his NBA career, and he was a 40 percent career 3-point shooter. Hoiberg led the NBA in 3-point shooting percentage in his final season in 2004-05 (48.3 percent) and was fourth in 2003-04 (44.2 percent). His pro career ended abruptly at the age of 33 after undergoing open-heart surgery to repair an aneurysm in his aortic root. Hoiberg was a second-round pick in the 1995 NBA Draft, when the Indiana Pacers chose him with the 54th overall selection.

IOWA STATE AND HIGH SCHOOL PLAYING CAREER

Hoiberg was a four-year starter at Iowa State from 1991 to 1995. He is a member of the ISU Hall of Fame and his No. 32 jersey was retired in 1997. Hoiberg is also a member of the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. Hoiberg was a two-time academic All-America selection as a player, including a first-team honoree as a senior. On the court, Hoiberg was recognized as a two-time All-Big Eight selection in addition to being named the 1992 Associated Press Big Eight Freshman of the Year and the 1995 Co-Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year. Hoiberg was also named a third-team All-American as a senior, averaging 19.9 points per game to help the Cyclones win a then-school-record 23 games.

Hoiberg started 123 of his 126 games as a Cyclone with career averages of 15.8 points, 6.9 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 1.6 steals per game. The Iowa State record holder for consecutive made free throws (34) and steals in a game (7), Hoiberg currently ranks fourth on the Cyclones' all-time scoring chart (1,993 points) and is in the top 10 in five other categories. He made 183 3-pointers in his career and won 78 games, both of which were the most in school history at the time of his graduation.

Hoiberg was a standout athlete for Ames High School before remaining in his hometown to attend Iowa State. As a senior, Hoiberg was Iowa's Mr. Basketball and he was also the Iowa Gatorade Player of the Year in football. On the basketball court, Hoiberg averaged 38.1 points per game in six tournament games while leading Ames to a state championship as a senior. On the gridiron, Hoiberg turned down a football scholarship offer from Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne to play basketball at Iowa State.

PERSONAL

The son of an Iowa State professor, Hoiberg earned his degree in finance from Iowa State in 1995. He was born in Lincoln on Oct. 15, 1972, and his grandfather, Jerry Bush, was Nebraska's men's basketball head coach for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963. Fred and his wife, Carol, have four children: one daughter, Paige; and three sons, Jack and twins Sam and Charlie.

Hoiberg's grandfather is former Husker basketball coach Jerry Bush. Known as the "Big Bear of the Coliseum," Bush guided NU from 1955 to 1963, and directed two of the greatest upsets ever – a 43-41 victory over top-ranked Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain, and a 55-48 victory over No. 4 Kansas State and Olympian Bob Boozer during the 1957-58 campaign.

Hoiberg's Iowa State teams led the Big 12 in 3-pointers per game four times in five seasons, and topped the conference in scoring offense in each of his last three seasons in Ames.

HOIBERG BY THE NUMBERS

.871 - During his tenure, Iowa State went 74-11 at home, winning 61 of 65 games over his final four seasons.

1 - Monte Morris led the NCAA in assist-to-turnover ratio in each of Hoiberg's final two seasons at Iowa State, and is the NCAA record holder for the best season and career assist-to-turnover ratios.

2 - Iowa State won Big 12 Tournament titles in 2014 and 2015, marking the school's first postseason titles since 2000.

3 - ISU ranked in the top 15 nationally in assist-to-turnover ratio in each of Hoiberg's final three seasons, including leading the nation in that category in 2013-14.

Hoiberg spent 10 years in the NBA and ranked in the top five of the NBA in 3-point shooting in his final two seasons in the league. In 2004-05, he shot 48.3 percent from 3-point range to lead the NBA.

4 - Consecutive NCAA appearances made by Iowa State between 2012 and 2015, marking the longest streak in school history.

32 - Hoiberg's No. 32 jersey was retired by Iowa State in 1997. He was a two-time All-Big Eight selection, the 1992 AP Big Eight Freshman of the Year, the 1995 Co-Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year, a 1995 third-team All-American and two-time Academic All-American for the Cyclones before embarking on a 10-year NBA career.

37 - Hoiberg's Iowa State teams were ranked in the AP top 25 for each of his final 37 weeks on the Cyclone bench, a streak that spanned from Dec. 2, 2013 to April 7, 2015.

77.8 - Points per game Iowa State averaged in five seasons under Fred Hoiberg. The Cyclones led the Big 12 in scoring offense in each of his final three seasons (2013-15).

1993 - Points that Hoiberg scored in his four seasons at Iowa State, a total which ranks fourth in school history. He helped the Cyclones to three NCAA Tournament appearances as a player and earned All-America honors as a senior when as ISU went 23-11 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Hoiberg, being guarded by Eric Piatkowski, was a third-team All-American as a senior at Iowa State in 1994-95, averaging 19.9 points per game to help the Cyclones win a then-school-record 23 games.

MATT ABDELMASSIH

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST SEASON

ALMA MATER (YEAR): ST. JOHN'S (2007)
 YEARS AS NCAA ASSISTANT COACH: NINE

One of the top young recruiters in the country, Matt Abdelmassih (pronounced Matt Abdel-massey) is reunited with Fred Hoiberg on the Husker sideline after spending the past four seasons at St. John's University.

Abdelmassih made an immediate impact at Nebraska, putting together a recruiting class that ranked in the top 45 nationally in just six weeks. The class was the Huskers' second-best class since joining the Big Ten in 2011.

During his tenure at St. John's, Abdelmassih helped the Red Storm improve from eight wins in his first season on the staff to 21 wins and the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance in five seasons in 2018-19 before coming to Lincoln to rejoin forces with Hoiberg.

Abdelmassih, who was tabbed the top transfer recruiter in the country by ESPN college basketball experts, recruited a majority of the 2018-19 Red Storm roster, led by two-time, first-team All-Big East selection Shamorie Ponds. In fact, all five starters on the 2018-19 team were recruited by Abdelmassih, as he brought in talented transfers such as Mustapha Heron (Auburn), Justin Simon (Arizona) and Marvin Clark Jr. (Michigan State) along with junior college transfer LJ Figueroa.

In 2016, Abdelmassih helped the Red Storm land a consensus top-25 recruiting class, according to major national recruiting services, which featured Ponds and one of the top junior college transfers in the country, Bashir Ahmed. Ponds, along with fellow first year Johnnie Marcus LoVett, was part of one of the top freshman scoring duos in the nation in 2016-17. For their efforts, both Ponds and LoVett were unanimously selected to the Big East All-Freshman team.

In his first year at St. John's, Abdelmassih quickly assembled nearly an entire roster of talented newcomers, including Big East All-Freshman Team honoree Kassoum Yakwe, to help rebuild the foundation.

Before returning to his alma mater, Abdelmassih was at Iowa State for five years under Hoiberg, spending his last four seasons as an assistant as the Cyclones made four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

An assistant director of operations for Iowa State in 2010-11, Abdelmassih was promoted to assistant coach in April of 2011. In his four seasons as an assistant coach, Iowa State amassed a 99-40 (.712) record, won back-to-back Big 12 Tournament titles (2014, 2015), made four-straight trips to the "Big Dance" (2012-15) and reached one NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 (2014).

Abdelmassih was instrumental in making Iowa State one of the primary destinations for some of the top transfers in the country, including DeAndre Kane and Royce White.

Recruited by Abdelmassih, Kane helped lead a 2013-14 squad that advanced to just the fourth Sweet 16 in program history and finished with a 28-8 mark that included a school-record nine wins against ranked teams. Kane earned All-America, first-team All-Big 12 and Big 12 Newcomer-of-the-Year accolades.

Another Abdelmassih recruit, White was the only Division I player to lead his team in scoring, rebounding, assists, blocks and steals in 2011-12. White earned All-America honors, was a unanimous first-team All-Big 12 choice and was the 16th overall selection in the 2012 NBA Draft.

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Abdelmassih worked for the Minnesota Timberwolves for two seasons. He joined the Timberwolves staff in 2008 as a basketball operations intern and worked directly with the coaching staff. Abdelmassih then moved to the front office in 2009-10 with a promotion to basketball operations assistant, a role in which he handled salary cap issues, draft preparation, scouting and free agent analysis.

Abdelmassih was a student manager for the St. John's men's basketball team from 2004-07. During his tenure with the Red Storm, Abdelmassih assisted the director of basketball operations with travel, video and camp responsibilities.

A 2007 graduate of St. John's, Abdelmassih earned a bachelor's degree in sport management. He and his wife Kelly have one son, Shea, born in November of 2018.

ARMON GATES

ASSISTANT COACH | SECOND SEASON

ALMA MATER (YEAR): KENT STATE (2006)

YEARS AS NCAA ASSISTANT COACH: 13

Armon Gates joined the Nebraska men's basketball staff in May of 2018, and is in his second season on the Husker basketball coaching staff.

A native of Chicago, Gates returned to the Big Ten after serving as associate head coach at the University of Florida under Mike White. Gates has coached and developed all-conference performers at three schools during his coaching career.

In his first season at Nebraska, he worked with the Husker backcourt, and helped the development of Glynn Watson Jr., who posted a career-high 13.6 points along with 4.1 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game in 2018-19.

Watson finished his career on Nebraska's top-10 lists in assists, steals and 3-pointers.

For the previous five seasons (2013-18), Gates was at Northwestern under Chris Collins, helping the Wildcats to a pair of 20-win seasons, including the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017. He also helped bring a top-30 recruiting class to Northwestern in 2014, while the 2018 class was listed as high as 24th nationally by 247Sports.

Gates worked with the Wildcat backcourt players, including Bryant McIntosh, who finished fifth on the Big Ten's career assist list with 700 en route to earning multiple All-Big Ten honors. He also worked with All-Big Ten performers Vic Law, Scottie Lindsey, Tre Demps and Drew Crawford, who also earned first-team Academic All-America honors as a senior in 2014.

Prior to coaching at Northwestern, Gates spent two seasons at Loyola Chicago (2011-13) during Porter Moser's first two seasons leading the program. During Gates' time with the Ramblers, Ben Averkamp earned All-Horizon League honors in both seasons, becoming the first Loyola player in five seasons to earn first- or second-team all-conference honors. Averkamp also garnered second-team Academic All-America honors in 2013.

Gates spent the 2010-11 campaign as an assistant at TCU, working with the Horned Frogs' guards and helping Hank Thorns become a third-team All-Mountain West Conference selection. Thorns ranked fourth nationally in assists per game (7.0 apg) and was 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio. His 225 assists ranked No. 2 in Mountain West Conference single-season history, while he also averaged 10.7 points per game.

Prior to his season at TCU, Gates spent two seasons (2008-10) as an assistant coach at Kent State, helping the Golden Flashes to the 2009-10 Mid-American Conference regular-season title. In his final year at Kent State, Gates was part of a staff that guided the Golden Flashes to the second round of the NIT.

Gates began his coaching career as a graduate staff assistant at Western Kentucky. In his lone season on the Hilltoppers' staff, the team recorded a 29-7 overall record and reached the NCAA Sweet 16.

During his playing days at Kent State, Gates helped the Golden Flashes to an 88-42 record and three postseason appearances. Kent State recorded four straight 20-win seasons during his time on campus, and he closed out his career tied for second in school history with 200 3-point field goals.

Gates graduated from Kent State in 2006 with a degree in leisure studies and earned his master's degree in sports administration from the same institution in 2007. He was a MAC All-Academic selection. Gates prepped at Hillcrest High School and spent one season at Brewster (N.H.) Academy before attending Kent State.

Armon and his wife Ashley have two daughters (Gaida and Milan) and two sons (Kaiere and Blaze). Gates' older brother, Dennis, was named head coach at Cleveland State in July of 2019.

DOC SADLER

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST SEASON | SEVENTH SEASON AT NEBRASKA

ALMA MATER (YEAR): ARKANSAS (1982)

YEARS AS NCAA ASSISTANT OR HEAD COACH: 26

Doc Sadler returned to Nebraska in April of 2019 after spending five seasons as the head coach of Southern Miss.

During his tenure, he helped the Golden Eagles improve their win total in each season since 2014-15, becoming one of three teams in the nation to hold that distinction. Despite two years of postseason bans, scholarship reductions and other inherited sanctions, Sadler guided Southern Miss to back-to-back Conference USA Tournament semifinal appearances in 2018 and 2019. In his final season at the school, he led the Golden Eagles to 20 wins and a runner-up finish in Conference USA.

He teamed up with Hoiberg at Iowa State in 2013-14, helping the Cyclones to a 28-8 record, a Sweet 16 appearance and the school's first Big 12 Tournament title since 2000. He coached a pair of All-Americans in Melvin Ejim and DeAndre Kane, while Ejim was named the Big 12 Player of the Year in 2014.

Sadler served as the head coach of the Nebraska program from 2006 to 2012, leading the Huskers to three NIT appearances (2008, 2009 and 2011) and posting a 101-89 record. Sadler's Huskers led the Big 12 in scoring defense three times in six seasons and posted nine wins over ranked opponents in his tenure. In 2010-11, the Huskers ranked in the top 20 nationally in both scoring and field-goal percentage defense. NU held opponents to 38.9 percent shooting - the lowest total by Nebraska in 50 years - while playing 19 games against teams which reached postseason play. He coached two Olympians while at Nebraska, while his most prominent pupil was Aleks Maric, a two-time All-Big 12 selection who totaled 1,630 points and 1,030 rebounds and finished his career holding 19 school or conference records.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Sadler had a phenomenal two-year run as the head coach at UTEP (2004-06), producing a record of 48-18. The Miners won 27 games and advanced to the 2005 NCAA Tournament in his rookie season, the ninth-best win total by a first-year head coach in NCAA history. UTEP won 21 games and advanced to the NIT in his last season in El Paso. He also coached for five seasons at Arkansas-Fort Smith (1999-2003), leading the program to a 120-39 mark and three postseason appearances as head coach.

Sadler, who graduated from Arkansas in 1982, previously worked as an assistant coach at eight current Division I schools, including Arkansas (1982-85, under Eddie Sutton), Lamar (1985-86, under Pat Foster), Houston (1986, under Pat Foster), Chicago State (1987-88, under Tommy Suits), Texas Tech (1991-94, under James Dickey), Arizona State (1994-97, under Bill Frieder), UTEP (2003-04, under Billy Gillispie) and Iowa State (2013-14, under Fred Hoiberg). He also was Director of Basketball Operations at Kansas in 2012-13 working for Bill Self.

A Greenwood, Ark., native, Sadler was a four-year student manager at Arkansas under the legendary Eddie Sutton, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1982 before beginning his collegiate coaching career with Sutton at Arkansas. Sadler added a master's of science degree in education from Northeastern State in 1991. Sadler and his wife, Tonya, who is also a native of Greenwood, Ark., have two sons, Landon and Matthew.

BOBBY LUTZ

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

One of the most respected coaches in college basketball, Bobby Lutz (pronounced LOOTS) brings more than 30 years of coaching experience to the Husker basketball program, as he joins Coach Fred Hoiberg's coaching staff as a special assistant to the head coach.

Lutz has won nearly 400 games as a college head coach and reached the postseason 22 times as either a head coach or an assistant, including 11 NCAA Tournament appearances. As a head coach, he guided team to postseason play in his 14 of his 21 seasons as a head coach.

Lutz is reunited with Hoiberg as the pair worked together at Iowa State during the 2010-11 campaign, building the foundation which led to the Cyclones' four straight NCAA Tournament appearances. In his lone season in Ames, he helped the Cyclones post their highest win total since the 2005-06 campaign.

Lutz most recently worked with Hoiberg in the Chicago Bulls organization, serving as an assistant with the Windy City Bulls in the NBA G League, as the team went 23-27 in its inaugural campaign.

Prior to coaching in the professional ranks, he spent five seasons at North Carolina State, where he was instrumental in helping the Wolfpack make four straight NCAA Tournaments, including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances under Mark Gottfried. He joined the staff in 2011-12, and was promoted to associate head coach for his final four years at the school. During that stint, North Carolina State won 108 games and won at least 22 games on four occasions. In 2015, Lutz was ranked by CoachStat.com as the top X's and O's assistant coach in the country.

Lutz is most known for his successful tenure at Charlotte from 1999 to 2010, where he guided his alma mater to eight postseason appearances (five NCAA, three NIT) in his 12 years at the helm. He is the winningest coach in 49er history, posting a record of 218-158 and is the only coach in school history to make back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances twice in his career.

A native of Denver, N.C., Lutz led Charlotte to a school-record five 20-win seasons and averaged more than 18 wins a year and won three Conference USA titles (1999, 2001 and 2004) in his tenure with the 49ers. He had four top-20 national recruiting classes and tutored 10 players who earned first team all-conference honors. Five times in his career a Lutz-coached 49er squad knocked off a top-10 opponent, including a win over No. 3 Cincinnati in 1999. Five of the eight wins over top-10-ranked opponents in Charlotte's history came under Lutz's watch.

In 2005, Lutz was a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year Award. During his 49ers tenure, he also was tabbed as the 2005 C-USA Coach of the Year by ESPN.com and CollegeInsider.com, and was named 1999 Conference USA Coach of the Year by the Birmingham News.

Prior to being named head coach, Lutz was an assistant coach at Charlotte for three seasons (1996-98) assisting Jeff Mullins for one year and working for Mullins' successor, Melvin Watkins, for two years. The 49ers compiled a record of 56-35 and went to back-to-back NCAA Tournaments when Lutz was an assistant for Watkins.

Prior to his stint at Charlotte, Lutz molded Pfeiffer, an NAIA school in Misenheimer, N.C., into a national power as head coach from 1986 to 1995. He posted a 181-91 record and qualified for six straight NAIA Tournament berths, including three Final Four appearances. His teams had a .785 winning percentage (153-42) from 1990-95, and he developed 10 NAIA All-Americans. Lutz began his coaching career as in 1984, serving as an assistant coach at Clemson for two seasons under Cliff Ellis.

Lutz graduated with High Honors from UNC Charlotte in 1980 with a degree in economics and psychology and a 3.82 GPA. He earned three other degrees: Lenoir-Rhyne, 1981 (A.B. Secondary Education); Winthrop, 1985 (M.A.T. Secondary Social Studies); Clemson, 1986 (M.A. Education - Administration & Supervision).

He is a member of Pfeiffer's Athletics Hall of Fame and the UNC Charlotte Alumni Hall of Fame

Lutz and his wife, Janet, have two adult daughters, Natalie and Christine.

LUCA VIRGILIO

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Luca Virgilio is in his first year as Director of Basketball Operations after being hired in May of 2019. Virgilio came to Nebraska after spending five seasons at St. John's, most recently as a management analyst for the Red Storm basketball program for the past two seasons. He was a part of the St. John's staff which made a pair of NCAA Tournaments (2015 and 2019) in his tenure at the school.

In his role at Nebraska, Virgilio serves as the primary day-to-day administrator within the basketball office, coordinating team travel and serving as a liaison to administration, academics, HuskerVision, athletic communications, digital communications, marketing and life skills.

In his role as St. John's management analyst, Virgilio was responsible for devising and delivering strategies to improve basketball operations by using advanced knowledge of research methods, information management and quantitative methods to analyze all areas of the program. Virgilio assisted the coaching staff by preparing analytical reports, delivering recommendations and overseeing the implementation of these strategies for practice and training, style of play, scouting, scheduling and recruiting.

During his time as assistant to head coach Chris Mullen, Virgilio provided support for a variety of daily operations within the program. His responsibilities included managing the team's schedule, organizing travel and supervising student-athlete development activities. Virgilio also assisted with the coordination of on-campus recruiting activities, maintaining NCAA compliance-related records and other duties as assigned by the head coach.

He began his tenure as a graduate assistant for two years, where he helped in daily operations, including the team calendar and overseeing the team's managers. Virgilio also aided both the assistant to the head coach and director of basketball operations with administrative responsibilities and team operations.

Virgilio graduated from St. John's in May 2016, earning a graduate master's degree in sport management with a concentration in international dimension of sport. Hailing from Italy, Virgilio earned a bachelor's degree in economics and business administration at Università degli Studi di Roma Tre in 2012 and a master's of science in business administration at Tor Vergata School of Economics in 2014.

He and his wife Caterina, were married in November of 2018.

SHERYL BURBACH

ASST. DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Sheryl Burbach is in her fifth season with the Husker basketball program and third as assistant director of basketball operations.

Burbach handles many of the business and operational functions for the coaching staff, including staff travel, expense accounts and budgeting. She also coordinates events around the Husker basketball program, including Legends Weekend and Nebrasketball Buddies Camp. She also assists in team travel, the coordination of the Fred Hoiberg Basketball Camps and Clinics, as well as day-to-day office operations.

Prior to joining the Huskers, Burbach worked for Nebraska's 4-H Office and Nebraska Extension.

Burbach is originally from Sumner, Neb., and moved to Lincoln during high school. She and her husband, Melvin, have four sons, John, Grant, Matthew and Christopher.

TIM

BASKETBALL STRENGTH COACH

Tim Wilson is in his ninth year as Nebraska's strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball. Wilson oversees the year-round training for the Husker basketball team and has played a major role in the physical development of several All-Big Ten performers at Nebraska, including James Palmer Jr., Isaac Copeland, Andrew White III, Tai Webster, Terran Petteway and Shavon Shields.

Wilson came to Nebraska after spending three seasons at the University of Oregon, serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Ducks men's basketball program. Wilson, a Falls City, Neb., native, spent three seasons at Oregon, helping the Ducks to 21 wins and the CBI Championship in 2011.

Prior to joining the Oregon staff, Wilson spent 11 seasons in the NBA working with the Milwaukee Bucks, where he developed and implemented the strength and conditioning programs on a year-round basis. The Bucks made the playoffs six times in his tenure in Milwaukee, including the Eastern Conference Finals in 2000-01. With the Bucks, he worked with NBA All-Stars Ray Allen, Michael Redd, Glenn Robinson and Sam Cassell, as well as former Husker Erick Strickland.

As strength and conditioning coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1991 to 1996, Wilson dealt exclusively with the football program. Wilson served under legendary college football coach Johnny Majors and helped several student-athletes on their way to successful professional careers.

Wilson had two tours of duty as strength coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, as he was named the first-ever strength coach for UNLV Athletics in 1981. At UNLV, he served under the late Jerry Tarkanian and the UNLV men's basketball program. Wilson, who trained student-athletes from all sports while with the Runnin' Rebels, was a part of the 1989-90 national championship men's basketball program featuring the likes of Larry Johnson, Stacey Augmon and Greg Anthony. He also helped prepare Randall Cunningham and Ickey Woods for future careers in the NFL. Wilson also spent four years with the Chicago White Sox (1986-89). He trained MLB Hall of Famer Carlton Fisk and all-stars Harold Baines and Ozzie Guillen during his time in the Windy City.

Wilson began his career as a graduate assistant at Nebraska after graduating from the school in 1981 with a degree in exercise science. Wilson has received certifications from both the NSCA (National Strength and Conditioning Association) and the NASM (National Academy of Sports Medicine). He has a PES and CES certification from the NASM.

Wilson and his wife Teri have one son, Tyler.

MATT
HOLT

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Matt Holt is in his third season as video coordinator for the Husker basketball program. In his role, he oversees film breakdown and exchanges for the coaching staff, coordinates the program's digital catalog and is in charge of the Husker managers.

Holt came to Nebraska after spending three seasons as the director of basketball operations at Northeastern University. During his tenure at Northeastern, Holt served in a variety of roles, as the program won at least 18 games in two of his three seasons and made the 2015 NCAA Tournament under longtime coach Bill Coen. Some of Holt's duties included video analysis for opponent and self-scouting, assisting the coaching staff in coordinating opponent scouting, helping to coordinate and monitor academic progress, as well as handling team travel and working with campus entities to coordinate team events such as Midnight Madness and Alumni Day. During his three seasons, Northeastern had six All-Colonial Athletic Association selections, including 2017 CAA player of the Year T.J. Williams.

In addition to his three years of experience in basketball administration, Holt also served as an assistant coach for three seasons. During his two-year stint at the University of New Haven, Holt recruited prospective student-athletes and facilitated player development and game preparation. He aided in the development of New Haven's Eric Anderson, who earned NE10 Defensive Player of the Year honors in both seasons Holt was an assistant. Holt also coordinated team travel, as well as community events such as youth camps, coaching clinics, and alumni weekends.

Holt spent the 2011-12 season at Rhode Island College, where he assisted in scouting opponents. He was responsible for organizing daily team schedules and worked closely with the compliance office to support academic progress for basketball student-athletes.

Holt, who graduated with a journalism degree from Northeastern in 2011, served as the head senior manager for the men's basketball team as an undergrad and helped coordinate team video needs and team travel logistics. He also received a master's degree in management of sports industries from New Haven in December 2013.

BUZZY CARUTHERS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Bertram "Buzzy" Caruthers joined the Nebraska basketball staff in August of 2019 as Director of Player Development. Caruthers has more than a decade of basketball coaching experience, including stints at the Division I, II and junior college ranks.

For the past three seasons, he worked in the Division II ranks, spending two years at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo., before coaching at Maryville University in 2018-19. At Lincoln, he helped the school to consecutive MIAA Tournament appearances, including 17 wins before falling to eventual national champion Northwest Missouri State in 2017.

He gained Division I experience as a graduate assistant at St. John's during the 2015-16 campaign, and he has also worked at Butler Community College, Chipola College, Dodge City Community College, Barstow High School and Sumner Academy of Arts and Science.

At the junior college level, Caruthers helped Butler achieve 19 wins and advance to the regional semifinal in 2016. At Chipola and Dodge City, Caruthers coached 20 players who went on to play at the either the NCAA Division I or Division II level, including four all-conference selections.

At Barstow, Caruthers helped turn around the basketball program, establishing a new culture of winning. He helped lead the team to a program-record 24-win season. Caruthers coached at the MOKAN Elite program and Kansas City's elite Nike skills program, as MOKAN Elite is one of the top grassroots programs in the nation. Caruthers also assisted with camps run by former Husker great Tyronn Lue and NBA performer Alec Burks. He also has worked with skill-development for a handful of professional players during the offseason. Through his camps and various coaching stops, Caruthers has coached more than 40 players who have gone on to play at the NCAA Division I or Division II level.

A native of Kansas City, Kan., Caruthers played his high school ball at Sumner Academy, leading the team to two state championships. Caruthers graduated from Hampton University with a bachelor of science degree in finance in 2006.

VINCE
FRITZ

GRADUATE MANAGER

Vince Fritz is in his second season as graduate manager for the Husker basketball program after being named to the position in August of 2018. In his role, Fritz helps in day-to-day operations of the Husker basketball program.

Fritz played collegiately at Missouri Southern for three seasons for Jeff Boschee. As a senior, Fritz played in 24 games as Missouri Southern went 20-10 in 2017-18, finished second in the MIAA and reached the 2018 NCAA Tournament. In his three seasons at the school, Fritz helped Missouri Southern to a combined 56-34 mark. He began his collegiate career at Sacred Heart (Conn.) University, where he spent his freshman season.

A native of Overland Park, Kan., Fritz prepped at Blue Valley Northwest High School where he played for coach and father Ed Fritz. A four-year letterwinner, Vince Fritz was a two-time all-state performer who helped his team to a pair of state championships in Kansas. During his junior season, Blue Valley Northwest went 25-0 and finished 19th nationally by USA Today. A two-time first-team Eastern Kansas League selection, Fritz finished as the third-leading scorer in school history. He also played football at BVNW, earning all-league accolades as a punter and defensive back.

Fritz comes from an athletic family. His father, Ed, has over 600 wins at the high school level in Kansas and has won four state titles since 2013 after playing at Baker University. His mother, Ann Costello, played collegiately at Nebraska from 1984-86, and won a trio of state titles at Blue Valley North. His uncle, Willie Fritz, is currently the head football coach at Tulane, while one grandfather, Vince Costello, is a member of the Cleveland Browns Hall of Fame and another, Harry Fritz, was a college football coach and executive director of the NAIA.

Fritz, who is pursuing his master's in educational administration, received his undergraduate degree from Missouri Southern in 2018.

JOHN HARRIS JR.
GRADUATE MANAGER

John Harris Jr. is in his first season as a graduate assistant for the Nebraska basketball program. In his role, he will assist in day-to-day operations for the Huskers.

A Lincoln native, Harris returns home after working in the private sector since earning his undergraduate degree from Benedictine (Kan.) College in business administration in 2017. In addition to working a full-time job, Harris also assisted with the MOKAN AAU Basketball program for the past two years and also handled personal training. At Nebraska, Harris is working on a master's degree in youth development.

As a collegian, Harris was a standout performer at Benedictine, earning All-Heart of America Conference honors in each of his final three seasons at the school. He was a four-year performer who totaled 1,282 career points, 412 assists and 114 steals at the school.

A two-time NAIA honorable-mention All-American, Harris averaged 14.5 points, 5.6 assists and 5.2 rebounds per game as a senior, while shooting 43 percent from 3-point range. Harris helped the school to a conference title and NAIA Division I National Tournament appearance – the first in 44 years for the program – in 2014 before returning to the national tournament the following year.

Harris starred at Lincoln High, earning All-City honors from the Lincoln Journal Star as a junior and senior and garnering second-team Class A all-state honors for the Links as a senior. Harris' grandfather, Albert Maxey, is a member of the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame and played for Hoiberg's grandfather, Jerry Bush, during the 1958-59 and 1959-60 seasons.

R.J.
PIETIG
MEN'S BASKETBALL HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

R.J. Pietig is in his 13th year serving as the head athletic trainer for the Nebraska men's basketball team. He originally joined the squad midway through the 2007-08 campaign, and joined the athletic medicine staff on a full-time basis in the summer of 2009. Pietig provides preventive care at practices and games as well as rehabilitation for injured student-athletes. He attends all practices and games including traveling with the team to all away contests. Pietig also oversees a pair of athletic training students who assist with the basketball program.

A native of Carroll, Iowa, Pietig graduated from Iowa State in 2007 with a degree in health and human performance, with a specialty in athletic training. He earned his master's degree in leadership education from Nebraska in May 2009. He and his wife, Bridget, have a son, Baker.

PAT
NORRIS
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pat Norris is in his 16th season as the equipment manager for the Husker men's basketball program and serves as the equipment manager for the Bob Devaney Sports Center and Hendricks Training Complex.

A member of the American Equipment Managers Association, Norris is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations for equipment checkout and upkeep for six Husker athletic squads, including the men's basketball team. He worked in a similar position as a student from 1997 to 1999.

Before joining the Husker staff, Norris worked five years in Chicago. He was an installations billing coordinator at Hub Group Distribution Services and an account manager at SCR Companies.

Norris has three children: Parker, Charlie, and Maisy, and resides in Lincoln.

JAKE BLATTNER
PERFORMANCE NUTRITION COORDINATOR

Jake Blattner joined the performance nutrition team as a performance nutrition coordinator in October of 2018 and works extensively with the Nebraska men's basketball, women's basketball and track and field programs.

Prior to joining the Nebraska staff, he served as a sports dietitian at Florida State University for three years. At the school, he provided personalized medical and performance nutritional therapy and managed individual athlete cases. Blattner also developed individual nutritional performance plans, which educate athletes and optimize performance based on specific goals. He oversaw daily operations in FSU's Sports Nutrition unit and designed a recovery card system allowing athletes to interact directly with sports nutritionists.

Previously, Blattner served internships at BiPro-Agropur Ingredients and Princeton University and worked with the La Crosse Loggers in the Summer Collegiate Baseball League. Blattner earned his bachelor's degree in community and medical dietetics from Viterbo (Wis.) University in 2015 and his master's degree in exercise physiology in 2018.

DR. DAVID
CLARE
TEAM PHYSICIAN/ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr. David Clare joined Nebraska's medical staff in 2007 as an orthopaedic surgeon. The son of Nebraska's former Chief of Staff Dr. Pat Clare, David joined Nebraska Orthopaedic & Sports Medicine, PC, in 1999.

Born and raised in Lincoln, Dr. Clare completed his undergraduate studies at Nebraska, where he was a member of the Husker football team from 1985 to 1988. He also attended and played football at Nebraska Wesleyan in 1989. Clare received his medical degree from the University of Nebraska Medical Center. His residency was done at the University of Texas Health Science Center followed by a Fellowship in Sports Medicine and Adult Reconstruction.

Clare's experience as a collegiate athlete complements his sports medicine fellowship training. He also has extensive fellowship training in adult reconstruction of the hip and total joint replacement. Clare is Board Certified in Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine and is a member of the American Orthopaedic Society of Sports Medicine.

LONNIE
ALBERS, M.D.

ASSOC. A.D./DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Dr. Lonnie Albers has served as director of athletic medicine at Nebraska since 1995 and has been working with the athletics department since 1985. Albers, an associate athletic director for the Huskers, oversees the operations of the athletic medicine and athletic training facilities and staff.

Dr. Albers practiced clinical medicine in Lincoln for more than 10 years and has more than 20 years of experience in urgent care. He previously served as a team physician from 1985 through 1995. Albers is responsible for the medical care of the student-athletes and maintains a pharmacy permit in order to dispense medicine to student-athletes as needed. Dr. Albers is board certified in Family Medicine.

Albers earned his bachelor's degree in biology and English from Nebraska in 1977 and his M.D. from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in 1980. A Hildreth, Neb., native, Albers is married to the former Jodelle Glushenko, and they have a son, Scott, and two daughters, Michelle and Angela.

CHRIS BACH

DIRECTOR OF NAPL

Chris Bach, Ph.D., CSCS, was named the director of the NAPL in September of 2018 and is in his third year working for the Husker Athletic Department. Prior to his work in the Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory, Bach served as a research assistant with the Institute of Sports Sciences and Medicine at Florida State University, where he focused on performance enhancement and the development of elite athletes.

Bach earned his bachelor's degree in biochemistry, cellular, and molecular biology (2010) and his master's degree in kinesiology with a concentration in exercise physiology (2012) at the University of Tennessee. He then earned his Ph.D. in exercise physiology at Florida State (2016), where his work focused on the integration of exercise training, nutrition, and environmental factors to improve body composition and athletic performance in athletes. Additionally, Bach is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Bach's research interests currently focus on the physiological aspects of athlete training and performance. He works with coaching, performance and athletic medicine staffs on the implementation of GPS, heart rate monitors and other technology to help monitor training load, optimize training and recovery and reduce the risk of injuries. This work has led him to collaborate with researchers on both a national and international level.

ANDREW CONSTANS

VIDEO PRODUCTION SPECIALIST

Andrew Constans joined the athletic department in April of 2017 as a video production specialist in HuskerVision. Constans handles conception and creation of big screen content and works on the Nebraska Football and Nebraska Basketball shows.

Prior to coming to Nebraska, Constans worked as a digital content producer at Nebraska-Omaha and was a student worker specializing in football and hockey at Minnesota.

A native of Eden Prairie, Minn., Constans graduated from Minnesota with a bachelor's degree in journalism.

DR. BRETT
HASKELL

DIRECTOR OF SPORT PSYCHOLOGY

Dr. Brett Haskell, Ph.D., was promoted to Director of Sports Psychology in July of 2018. In her role, Dr. Haskell provides counseling, psychological services, mental skills training, teambuilding and leadership development services for each of Nebraska's 24 sports and more than 600 Husker student-athletes. Haskell works closely with student-athletes to help them develop skills and techniques that enhance personal well-being, address mental health concerns and optimize performance. She also works with coaches to provide team interventions that build student-athlete resilience and grow mental resolve.

Dr. Haskell came to Nebraska in September of 2014 after serving as a counseling and sport psychology postdoctoral counselor at Kansas. Along with obtaining her doctoral degree from Kansas in Counseling Psychology, Dr. Haskell provided counseling and performance enhancement training to Jayhawk student-athletes for five years.

Dr. Haskell earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from Nebraska-Kearney in 2005 and her master's degree in sport psychology from North Carolina-Greensboro in 2008. While at UNK, she was a member of the Loper volleyball team. Dr. Haskell resides in Lincoln with her husband, Brian, son Ezra and daughter Parker.

DENNIS LEBLANC

EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE A.D./ACADEMICS

Dennis Leblanc was named Nebraska's Executive Associate Athletic Director for Academics in 2015, after being promoted from Senior Associate Athletic Director for Academic Programs and Student Services. He has directed the academic program since 1993. Leblanc, who has been with the Academic Support Program for Student-Athletes since 1987, joined the Nebraska Athletic Department in 1983 as a member of the track and field staff.

Under Leblanc's leadership, Nebraska has become the national leader in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for football and all sports, NCAA Today's Top Ten Award honorees and recipients of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Postgraduate Scholarship. Since he joined the academic staff in 1987, 262 of Nebraska's 338 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans have been honored, while NU has claimed 14 of its 17 NCAA Today's Top Ten Award recipients. Over 3,000 Husker student-athletes have earned their degrees during Leblanc's tenure.

The 90 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR), reported in the 2018-19 academic year, for the Nebraska student-athletes was the highest GSR ever achieved for the fifth consecutive year. In addition all Nebraska teams achieved an NCAA Academic Performance Rate (APR) of 977 or higher which is the best in school history and marks the fourth consecutive year that all teams attained an APR better than 950.

Over the past decade, Nebraska's academic support program for student-athletes has received outstanding reviews from the NCAA Certification Review Team and the Nebraska Faculty Intercollegiate Athletics Committee. In 2012, Nebraska's program became one of only 21 programs nationally to be certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A) for meeting the established standards of service for student-athletes as outlined by the N4A.

Leblanc is a member of the N4A, and in 2002 he received its prestigious Lan Hewlett Award presented to an athletic administrator in recognition of distinguished performance in providing personal, academic and professional guidance to student-athletes.

Leblanc was presented the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students at the 2004 University of Nebraska Honors Convocation, which recognizes individuals who go above and beyond their assigned duties, devoting extra time and effort in serving the needs of students. In 2005, he was presented with Honorary Mortar Board membership honoring him for his leadership and service to students. In 2007, Leblanc received the Hero Mentor Award through the American Red Cross, which annually recognizes a person for outstanding leadership and mentoring. In 2018, he was inducted into the Omicron Delta Kappa Society, which is a national leadership honor society, recognizing his leadership in athletics on campus.

Leblanc earned his bachelor's degree from Bethany College, and a master's degree from Wichita State University. He and his wife, Coreen, have four children: Olivia, Christian and twins Madeleine and Mackenzie.

SHAMUS MCKNIGHT

SR. ASSOCIATE COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR

Shamus McKnight joined the Nebraska Athletic Department in 1997 and currently serves as a Senior Associate Communications Director. He works directly with the Nebraska men's basketball and football programs.

At Nebraska, McKnight has been responsible for media guides across six sports that have earned "Best in the Nation" awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). In his 20 years at Nebraska, McKnight has earned more than 30 national publication awards from CoSIDA, including 18 publications that have placed in the top-five nationally.

He served as host communications director for the 2006 and 2008 NCAA Women's Division I Volleyball Championships and also served on Nebraska's on-site communications team for two football national championship games, four NCAA Baseball Super Regionals as well as NCAA or conference events in baseball, women's gymnastics volleyball and men's and women's tennis. McKnight is a 1996 graduate of Baldwin-Wallace University.

ALEX REHUREK

CREATIVE MEDIA SPECIALIST

Alex Rehurek joined the Nebraska Athletic staff on a full-time basis in July of 2019 as a creative media specialist. Rehurek handles social media for the Husker men's basketball program and helps with other sports on a day-to-day basis.

For the previous two years, he served as an intern at HuskerVision, where he worked as an editor for the Nebraska Football and Nebraska Basketball shows. He created highlight packages and big screen content for all of Nebraska's 24 varsity sports. As a student at Nebraska, he served as the Husker Vision contact for the soccer and softball programs.

Rehurek previously served as an adidas Brand Ambassador in 2015 helping to grow the Husker brand throughout Nebraska.

A native of Yankton, S.D., Rehurek graduated from Nebraska in 2017.

TUCKER ZELENY

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS ANALYTICS & DATA ANALYSIS

Tucker Zeleny was hired as the Director of Sports Analytics and Data Analysis in July of 2015. Zeleny joined the athletic department after building an impressive resume in various areas at UNL.

Zeleny heads a department that is in charge of working with Nebraska's 24 varsity sports to collect, analyze and summarize data related to team and individual performance. Zeleny and his staff also work with support staff areas within the department to collect, analyze and summarize data related to department operations.

Zeleny earned his doctorate in statistics from UNL in May of 2015. His dissertation involved multivariate time series on multiple time scales with applications toward weight lifting data collected by the Husker football team. Zeleny completed his bachelor's degree in mathematics at UNL in 2010 before joining the statistics department as a teaching assistant. He completed his master's degree in statistics in 2012.

A native of Carleton, Neb., Zeleny has worked as a data analyst at Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital and the Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory.

RONNIE
GREEN
CHANCELLOR

Ronnie D. Green became the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's 20th chancellor on May 8, 2016.

Prior to being named chancellor, Green served for six years as the Harlan Vice Chancellor of the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources. In this role, he also jointly served as the Vice President for Agriculture and Natural Resources of the University of Nebraska system. In 2015-16, Green also was UNL's Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, the institution's chief academic officer and responsible authority in the absence of the chancellor.

Green received bachelor's and master's degrees in animal science from Virginia Tech and Colorado State University, respectively. His doctoral program was completed jointly at the University of Nebraska and the USDA-ARS U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in animal breeding and genetics in 1988.

Green has served on the animal science faculties of Texas Tech University and Colorado State University, and as the national program leader for animal production research for the USDA's Agricultural Research Service and executive secretary of the White House's interagency working group on animal genomics within the National Science and Technology Council. Prior to returning to NU, Green served as senior global director of technical services for Pfizer Animal Health's animal genomics business.

Green has published 130 refereed publications and abstracts, nine book chapters and 56 invited symposia papers; and has delivered invited presentations in 43 U.S. states and 21 countries around the world. He is a past-president of both the American Society of Animal Science (ASAS) and the National Black and Bridle Club and has served in a number of leadership positions for the U.S. Beef Improvement Federation, National Cattlemen's Beef Association, National Pork Board, and the National Research Council of the National Academy of Sciences. He currently is a member of a number of boards including the Big Ten Conference, Neogen Corporation, Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity, and Supporters of Agricultural Research. He was named a fellow of ASAS in 2014 and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in 2015, and he received the Morrison Award, the highest academic honor given to an animal scientist, in 2017.

JOSEPHINE POTUTO, J.D.

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative (FAR) at the NCAA and conference level since May 15, 1997.

In 2002, Potuto was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation. From 2008-09 to 2011-12 she was president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FBS institutions). Among her NCAA positions, Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I

Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years). She was one of three Big 12 Conference representatives on the NCAA Division I Management Council, and served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee and an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues and educational programming for coaches, staff, and student-athletes. She currently serves on the NCAA Interpretations Committee.

A sports law expert, Potuto regularly lectures on sports issues in general and NCAA processes in particular. She has presented to, among others, the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, the National Association of College and University Attorneys, the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities, and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, as well as numerous university and law college conferences. She is an expert witness in litigation involving sports issues and a media "go-to" person. Potuto also lectures and consults on risk management and on free speech issues.

Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics. She has authored numerous articles on sports law issues. She recently completed an article on how baseball hitting informs legal argument. The article is in the National Baseball Hall of Fame archives.

Potuto teaches constitutional law, procedure, federal jurisdiction, and sports law. She has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. She currently teaches in the Summer Sports Law Institute at Oregon Law School.

Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books. She was elected to membership in the American Law Institute, the Nebraska State Bar Foundation, and the Douglass Society.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College, and her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall. She earned her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College.

She is a member of the bars of Nebraska and New Jersey and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

BILL MOOS

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Honor the past. Live the present.
Create the future.

Nine simple words that carry impressive significance and undeniable responsibility. Words that Nebraska's athletic director uses to lead his programs and set the tone for building champions in competition and in life.

William H. (Bill) Moos was named Nebraska's Athletic Director on Oct. 15, 2017, and fully assumed those responsibilities on Oct. 23, 2017.

Moos, who became the 15th athletic director in the history of the storied Cornhusker program, has more than 25 years of experience as an athletic director at three Division I schools (Nebraska, Washington State, Oregon, Montana). More importantly, he owns an impressive track record of success in building outstanding programs, developing long-term relationships and for doing what is best for his schools, its fans and most importantly, its student-athletes.

In less than two full years at Nebraska, Moos has hired eight Husker coaches, including high-profile hires in football and men's basketball. He drew universal praise for hiring national coach of the year Scott Frost as Nebraska's head football coach in December of 2017. Fifteen months later, Moos was lauded for another hire that made a major national splash when he tabbed Fred Hoiberg to lead the Husker men's basketball program.

In addition to hiring Frost during his first season, Moos hired Mark Hankins to coach the men's golf team and Sean Maymi to lead the men's tennis program. Hankins led Nebraska to its best conference finish since 1999 in his first season, while Maymi won as many Big Ten matches in his first year as the Huskers had won in the previous two seasons combined. Moos hired four more coaches during his second year, including former Huskers to lead the women's gymnastics (Heather Brink), rifle (Rachel Martin) and baseball (Will Bolt) programs. All three were among the most successful student-athletes in their sport's history, as Brink and Martin were both individual NCAA champions at Nebraska, while Bolt was a member of two College World Series teams. In 2019, Moos also tabbed Lisa Johnson to lead the women's golf team.

Moos has hired first-class coaches who fit his championship culture, one that he continues to instill within the department. In his first year, Moos watched the volleyball team win its fifth national title and second in three seasons, while bowling finished third at the NCAA Championships and both the men's and women's gymnastics teams, the rifle squad and the wrestling team posted top-10 NCAA finishes. Four of those six teams finished in the top 10 again in Moos' second season, highlighted by the volleyball team's national runner-up finish and another third-place performance by the bowling team.

Nebraska has also continued its excellence in the classroom, producing nine CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in Moos' tenure, including four first-team selections. The awards have increased Nebraska's nation-leading total to 338 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all sports.

Moos came to Lincoln after spending seven-plus years at Washington State (2010-17). He previously served 12 highly successful seasons as the athletic director at Oregon (1995-2007). During his time at his alma mater, Moos wasted little time in making his impact felt in Cougar Athletics, spearheading a department-wide rebranding effort with Nike while securing a 10-year, $35 million marketing rights agreement with IMG College. In addition, the 2004 WSU Alumni Achievement Award winner gained Regents approval for a $130 million addition and remodel of Martin Stadium, featuring a remodeled press box with luxury seating, including suites, loge boxes and club room.

Also included in the project was a state-of-the-art video board and an 80,000-square-foot football operations building that served as the stadium's showpiece and opened in May 2014. As the dean of Pac-12 athletic directors, Moos was at the forefront of the conference's procurement of a 12-year, $3 billion television contract with FOX and ESPN, a landmark agreement in college athletics. Under Moos' direction, the Cougar Athletic Fund's Annual Giving program saw an 81 percent increase in gifts while CAF donor members rose from nearly 4,000 to more than 7,500.

Additional facility enhancements under Moos included a center-hung video board in Beasley Coliseum that was installed prior to the 2011-12 season, giving Cougar basketball one of the premier fan experiences in the conference. An indoor golf hitting facility was also completed in early 2013, and Lower Soccer Field underwent a major renovation making the venue TV-ready while also providing one of the best playing surfaces on the West Coast, along with the addition of lights and a new scoreboard.

Other enhancements were made to the Mooberry track facility, Bailey-Brayton Field, the basketball practice gym, Gibb Pool and the Simmelink Indoor tennis courts. In Moos' seven years at WSU, Cougar student-athletes and coaches accounted for 805 academic all-conference selections, 130 all-conference accolades, 45 All-America honors and three Pac-12 Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Moos served as Oregon's director of athletics from July of 1995 to 2007. While at Oregon he oversaw a 17-sport athletic department that grew to national prominence during his tenure. Oregon's annual athletic department budget grew from $18.5 million in his first year to more than $40 million by 2007, becoming 100 percent self-sufficient during that time. Under his direction the Duck Athletic Fund donor base increased from 4,930 to 12,290, resulting in an annual gifts increase from $4.1 million to $15.3 million.

Moos initiated more than $160 million in facility improvements while at Oregon. Included in that was the $90 million Autzen Stadium renovation in 2002, which added 12,000 new seats, 32 new suites, a new Club at Autzen and a new press box to the stadium. In his 12 years, the Ducks ranked first in Pac-10 football attendance 11 times, reaching 100 percent capacity in each of those seasons.

During Moos' tenure, Oregon athletics captured 13 Pac-10 championships across six different sports. He increased opportunities for women by adding two intercollegiate programs, soccer and lacrosse, and negotiated an all-inclusive shoe and apparel contract with Nike, one of only 14 in the country at the time. From an academic standpoint during Moos' tenure, Oregon student-athletes collected 722 academic all-conference selections, 34 Academic All-America selections, nine NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients and one NCAA Top Ten Award.

During his first stint as a collegiate athletic director at Montana (1990-95), Moos created an academic support program and hired its first athletic academic coordinator, developed a facility enhancement plan that created more than $4 million in improvements, and lifted the school's fund-raising efforts to show a 300 percent increase in private and corporate gifts. Academically, Montana student-athletes were equally successful as the athletic department achieved a graduation rate 20 percent higher than the general university enrollment. Under Moos' watch Montana garnered 269 academic all-conference selections, five Academic All-Americans and two NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients.

Moos began his athletic career as an athletic administrator in 1982 as assistant athletic director at Washington State. He also served as the school's associate athletic director (1988-90). At Washington State, he was director of development for more than five years and associate director for nearly two years, supervising all external operations. Prior to that, he managed and owned private businesses in Washington and Oregon for eight years. He was a student assistant football coach at Washington State for the 1973 season, then spent part of 1974 in Washington, D.C., serving as a government intern.

Raised on a wheat and cattle ranch in eastern Washington, Moos attended high school in Olympia when his father served in the governor's cabinet. Moos earned his bachelor's degree in history from WSU and was a three-year letterman in football before concluding his collegiate career by representing Washington State in the 1972 East-West Shrine All-Star Game in San Francisco.

He served as co-captain on the Cougars' 1972 squad and garnered first-team All-Pac-8 Conference honors. Moos and his wife Kendra have three daughters, Christa, Brittany and Kaiti; and two sons, Bo and Benjamin.

Nebraska Athletic Director Bill Moos has more than a quarter of a century of experience as an athletic director, including stints at Oregon and Washington State.

JOHN JOHNSON

SENIOR DEPUTY A.D./CHIEF OF STAFF

John Johnson joined the Nebraska Athletic Department in July of 2019 as Senior Deputy AD - Chief of Staff. Johnson oversees the administration office and the Nebraska men's basketball program.

Prior to coming to Nebraska, Johnson served as the Senior Associate Athletic Director at Washington State University, with a focus on external operations, facility development and strategic planning. He also served as interim athletic director for the Cougars after Bill Moos was hired at Nebraska.

Johnson's time at Washington State started in 2004 when he arrived as the senior associate athletic director. From 2004-10 Johnson worked alongside athletic director Jim Sterk, Johnson had oversight of WSU's athletic foundation, now known as the Cougar Athletic Fund, as well as external operations, including sponsorships, marketing, ticket sales, radio and television revenues and communications. Additionally, he had sport supervision for football, baseball, soccer, golf, along with track and field.

He played a major role in fundraising and management of multiple facility projects, including the Phase I renovation of Martin Stadium, the baseball indoor hitting and pitching facility, the Simmelink Indoor Tennis Courts renovation and the Tom and Barbara Wilson Indoor Rowing facility.

When Moos arrived as director of athletics in 2010, Johnson turned his focus to strategic planning and increased facility development. He oversaw the development of the department's facilities master plan through a comprehensive analysis of sports, department and university goals, and strategic initiatives. He managed the design and construction of the Martin Stadium Renovation, the $120 million project included the construction of a new press box, club seating and suite areas. The renovation also included the construction of the Cougar Football Complex operations building.

Additional facility projects he had oversight on in included the renovation of the Lower Soccer Field, the Moobery Track and Field Complex just prior to the 2013 Pac-12 Championships, the indoor hitting facility for men's and women's golf, the video board at Beasley Coliseum, and renovating the men's and women's basketball lockerrooms.

Johnson arrived at WSU after serving as the director of athletics at Weber State from 1997-2004. While at Weber State, Johnson oversaw all aspects of the intercollegiate athletics program. He was responsible for the upgrading of the university's facilities, including the construction of the Stewart Stadium Sky-Suites/ Press Box facility, which was completed in September of 2001. Johnson secured nearly $5 million for the project, which included corporate suites, club seating, meeting rooms and reception areas, along with a new 36-seat press box. In addition to the six-story facility, Johnson also secured funding for a complete renovation of the athletic department office space, football locker rooms, weight room and athletic training room.

Johnson drew substantial financial support for the Weber State athletic programs through a 70 percent increase in corporate sponsorships and a 50 percent increase in annual giving. He also secured the first $1 million-plus gift in department history.

Johnson arrived at Weber State after serving as the director of athletics at Eastern Washington University from 1993-97. While at Eastern, Johnson was responsible for the general administration and management of 15 sport programs, staff and support personnel.

Johnson served as President of the NCAA Division I-AA Athletic Director's Association for the 2000-2001 year. At the 2001 NACDA Convention held in Salt Lake City, Johnson was honored as the Division I-AA West Region Athletic Director of the Year. He also served on the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet, and served on the NCAA Division I Football Executive Committee, the National Football Foundation Executive Committee, and the NCAA Division I-AA Football Championship Committee.

A 1982 graduate of Eastern Washington with a bachelor's degree in business, he later earned a master's in business from EWU in 1984. A graduate of East Valley High School in Spokane Valley, Wash., he later was a football student-athlete at Montana State and Eastern Washington.

Johnson and his wife, Lisa, have two children: daughter, Ellie, and son, Cooper. Lisa is currently the head coach for the Nebraska women's golf program.

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The Big Ten is a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field, as schools have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships.

The history of the Big Ten traces back nearly 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on Jan. 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern and Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bona fide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that followed in coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On Feb. 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana and Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew, and in 1912 Ohio State joined the conference, bringing its membership back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse over the last four years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan faced Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of six men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971 and James E. Delany in 1989. Those five served prior to current Commissioner Kevin Warren, who assumed the role on Sept. 16, 2019. Delany announced his retirement on March 4, 2019, concluding a 30-year career with the conference on Jan. 1, 2020.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Penn State for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,800 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in almost 60 million homes in the United States and Canada via the nation's major video providers and more than 300 additional video providers across the country. BTN is also available through the majority of OTT providers, and via the Fox Sports App, which delivers live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BTN Plus streams hundreds of additional events each season.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from Maryland (Nov. 19) and Rutgers (Nov. 20). Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame would join the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning in 2017-18.

Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten conference center hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions, Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly CIC) related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum - the Big Ten Experience - which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. For more information on the Big Ten Experience, go to bigten.org.

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

The Big Ten staff works to meet the educational needs of students competing in intercollegiate athletics to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 28 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 2,000 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel, and services media and fans interest for information on the Big Ten.

Jason Dourisseau was a two-year starter for the Huskers and helped the Huskers to a pair of NIT appearances during his career.

Walter Pitchford helped the Huskers to 19 wins and a berth in the 2014 NCAA Tournament, the school's first since 1998.

N 2019-20 NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

SERIES RESULTS VS. NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Andre Almeida was the first Husker basketball player from Brazil and helped NU to a berth in the 2011 NIT.

Bernard Day scored 802 points in his two-year career and shared the Jack Moore Award as team MVP during the 1985-86 season.

Ryan Anderson became the first Husker to score 1,000 points, grab 500 rebounds and hit 150 3-pointers in his collegiate career.

SERIES RESULTS VS. NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Dylan Talley led the Huskers in scoring and assists en route to earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors in 2013.

Mikki Moore ranks second in school history with 236 blocked shots. Moore also has three of the top-eight single-season totals in school history.

Shavon Shields was a two-time All-Big Ten selection in his career and finished fifth on NU's career scoring chart.

2018-19 REVIEW

One of the old adages that Tim Miles often said was the team you had in March was always different in November and December, and for the 2018-19 Huskers, the resilience proved to be invaluable in grinding out a second straight postseason bid.

The Huskers were down to just eight players because of injuries and suspensions heading into the Big Ten Tournament and found themselves in a dogfight in the opening round against Rutgers. Trailing 51-45 with just under seven minutes remaining, if NU was going to make a second-straight postseason appearance, now was the time to make a surge.

The Huskers started getting stops on the defensive end, holding the Scarlet Knights without a point for over six minutes. Isaiah Roby rattled off six straight points to give NU a lead, but the run would continue, as Roby, James Palmer Jr. and Glynn Watson Jr. combined for 15 unanswered points to keep NU's season alive.

While Palmer's season-high 34 points, including a school-record 27-point second half, took the headlines, the play of the Huskers' supporting cast keyed the 68-61 victory. Walk-on Johnny Trueblood gave NU four steals, four rebounds and two assists, as NU was a +20 with him in the lineup against the Scarlet Knights.

"They were rolling pretty good," Miles said. "Then we just got defensive stops. I think Johnny got a couple steals, Roby got a couple blocks. They didn't get any second shots...And now all of a sudden you're feeling like you have a little rhythm."

One day later, the Huskers would face another stiff test in No. 21 Maryland. The Terrapins swept the Huskers during the regular season, including a 15-point victory in Lincoln, but the Huskers turned the tables in Chicago. NU held Maryland to just 36 percent shooting, while Palmer's 24 points led three Huskers in double figures in a 69-61 win. Nebraska led by 14 early in the second half, but saw Maryland cut the lead to five before the Huskers answered with a 9-0 run to keep Maryland at bay.

"We believe in each other. That's the main thing," Watson said following the Huskers' win over Maryland. "It's a new season - anything can happen and you're seeing it right now. We stand together, every guy putting in work to help us win."

It was another unlikely hero that day, as Thorir Thorbjarnarson had a career-high five steals while Roby, Tanner Borchardt and Trueblood keyed a defensive effort which held All-Big Ten center Bruno Fernando to just three points on 1-of-4 shooting.

"We just wanted to aggravate him as much as possible," Miles said of the defensive effort after Fernando averaged 15.5 points and 18.0 rebounds against the Huskers in Big Ten play. "Just make him play in a crowd, send different guys at him, whatever it took."

The Huskers' would have one more battle, taking No. 19 Wisconsin to the wire before falling 66-62. Watson had 24 points as Nebraska, playing its third game in as many days, overcame a 13-point first-half deficit to take the lead with 10 minutes left and was within two with two minutes remaining, but the Badgers held on for the 66-62 win.

While the Huskers were short-handed, the effort during the Big Ten Tournament made their seventh-year coach proud.

"I'm proud to be their coach. I thought that they fought as hard as they could," Miles said. "And we were in a great situation, late even, chance to tie or go ahead."

The Huskers, who were ranked in the top-25 for a portion of December and January, battled injuries during the season half of the year. NU lost starters Isaac Copeland and Thomas Allen to season-ending injuries and struggled down the stretch before an improbable win over Iowa in the regular-season finale kick-started their postseason hopes.

Nebraska trailed 74-65 with 47 seconds left before Watson and Palmer keyed a 16-7 surge over the next 40 seconds, culminating with Palmer's game-tying layup with 12 seconds left in regulation. Watson and Palmer both hit a pair of 3-pointers, while Amir Harris hit a pair of free throws after making just two of 12 from the charity stripe on the season. Harris, who played through a knee injury which would end his season, proved to be the hero in overtime, hitting a game-winning basket with 10 seconds left before Thorbjarnarson blocked Jordan Bohannon's 3-pointer at the overtime buzzer to preserve the 93-91 win.

The strong finish gave the Huskers a chance to continue their season in the NIT with a home game against Butler. After losing in the first round the previous season, the Huskers rode a career-high 28 points from Roby to an 80-76 win.

"Last year we really felt like it was a letdown to be in the NIT," Roby said. "This year we went to Chicago, and we felt like we earned our spot in the NIT this year."

The Huskers' unlikely postseason run would end at TCU despite a 16-point, 13-rebound performance by Borchardt in his final game as a Husker. A former walk-on, Borchardt was forced into the starting lineup because of injuries, but made major contributions down the stretch. On the year, he shot 61 percent from the field and had two double-doubles, including an 18-rebound, 12-point effort at Illinois.

Roby, who became Nebraska's first NBA draftee in 20 years, made significant strides in his first full season as a starter, averaging 11.8 points and pacing NU in rebounds (6.9 rpg) and blocked shots (1.9 bpg). He totaled five 20-point efforts and was the only Big Ten player in the top 10 in the conference in both steals and blocked shots.

Palmer, who earned a training camp invite with the Los Angeles Clippers, led the Huskers in scoring at 19.7 points per game while ranking in the top five in the Big Ten in both scoring and steals (1.4 spg) to earn all-Big Ten honors for the second straight year. Palmer, whose 1,276 points were the most by a two-year player at NU, set the Huskers' single-season scoring record with 708 points.

Watson enjoyed the finest season of his career, averaging 13.6 points and leading the Huskers in assists (3.1 apg), while finishing on NU's career top-10 list in games played, starts, assists and steals. Watson closed his career with a 17-point, nine-rebounds, six-assist performance against TCU and played every minute during the Huskers' Big Ten Tournament and NIT contests.

The Huskers, who returned their top four scorers from the previous season, got off to a blistering start, winning seven of their first eight games to break into the top 25.

After a loss at Minnesota in early December, the Huskers returned home for a showdown with Creighton at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Nebraska took control from the onset, shooting 53 percent from the field, including 14-of-27 from 3-point range, in a 94-75 rout. Palmer paced the NU attack with 30 points, including 6-of-7 from 3-point range, to lead five Huskers in double figures. The Huskers closed non-conference play with three more double-figure wins to move to No. 24 in the polls when Big Ten play resumed.

The Huskers were 3-3 in the Big Ten following one of its most impressive performances of the year, a 66-51 win at No. 25 Indiana. Watson and Copeland combined for 29 points, as the Huskers built an 18-point first half lead and cruised to the road win, setting up a showdown with Michigan State. The Huskers had won 20 in row at Pinnacle Bank Arena and gave the sixth-ranked Spartans all they could handle before MSU escaped Lincoln with a 70-64 victory in front of a crowd of 15,923.

"That place was rocking as loud as I've ever heard a place lately, and we found a way to win," Michigan State Coach Tom Izzo said. "It was probably one of the bigger wins on the road under the circumstances of those three freshmen having to play minutes in a tough environment."

While the loss stung, an injury nine days later would take the wind out of the Huskers' sails.

Against Ohio State, the Huskers and Buckeyes were in a two-point game early in the second half before Copeland suffered a career-ending knee injury. The fifth-year senior was second on the team in both scoring (14.0 ppg) and rebounding (5.4 rpg) and his injury depleted a frontcourt which was already short on depth. Copeland's injury triggered a slump, as Nebraska lost 11 of its next 13 games before the win over Iowa in the regular-season finale.

CAREER RECAP

Borchardt walked on to the Husker program, but became an instrumental part of NU's rotation the past two seasons. Borchardt played in all 36 games as a senior, setting career highs in scoring (3.3 ppg), rebounding (4.6 rpg) and field goal percentage (.608) as a senior. His 167 rebounds trailed only Isaiah Roby on the 2018-19 team. He posted two double-doubles in 2018-19, including a 16-point, 13-rebound performance against TCU in the second round of the NIT. At Illinois, Borchardt grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds, the most by a Husker since Aleks Maric in 2007. After playing in just nine games in his first two seasons, Borchardt played in 20 contests as a junior, helping the Huskers to 22 wins, including 13 Big Ten triumphs. For his efforts, he was put on scholarship in December of 2017, and was on scholarship his last three semesters at Nebraska. In the classroom, he was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree and graduated with a degree in management in May of 2019.

CAREER RECAP

Copeland spent two and a half seasons in the Husker basketball program after transferring from Georgetown in January of 2017. He made an immediate impact at Nebraska, he earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors in helping the Huskers to 22 wins, including 13 Big Ten victories. He averaged 12.9 points, 6.1 rebounds and 1.0 blocked shot per game in 2017-18, ranking second on the team in all three categories. He had a career-high 30 points against North Dakota and ranked double figures 23 times in 2017-18. Copeland was on his way to a strong senior season, 14.0 points on 53 percent shooting and 5.4 rebounds per game before suffering a career-ending knee injury on Jan. 26. At the time of his injury, Copeland had 16 double-figure contests in his first 19 games, including a trio of 20-point efforts. He finished his collegiate career with over 1,300 points, 600 rebounds and 100 blocked shots. He graduated from Nebraska in May of 2018 with a degree in sociology.

CAREER RECAP

Palmer spent the three years at Nebraska, finishing his Husker career ranked second on NU's scoring average chart with an average 18.5 points per game. He also ranked among NU's career leaders in both free throws made (378, sixth) and attempted (503, seventh). He was a two-time All-Big Ten and all-district honoree who helped NU to consecutive postseason appearances in 2018 and 2019. As a senior, he averaged 19.7 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game to earn all-district and All-Big Ten honors. He was third in the Big Ten in scoring, setting single-season NU marks for points (708) and free throws made (215). He burst on the scene as a junior, averaging 17.2 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game, ranking in the top five in scoring to garner first-team all-Big Ten honors. He graduated from Nebraska in August of 2019 and was an invitee to training camp with the Los Angeles Clippers.

CAREER RECAP

Roby was a mainstay in the Husker lineup for three years, totaling 786 points, 530 rebounds and 154 blocked shots before declaring for the 2019 NBA Draft. A second-round draft pick, he enjoyed a breakout 2018-19 campaign, establishing career highs in scoring (11.8 ppg) and rebounding (6.9 rpg) while adding 1.9 blocks per game. He finished among the Big Ten leaders in blocked shots (third) and steals (1.3, ninth) and was the only Big Ten player to rank in the top 10 in both blocks and steals. Roby tallied three double-doubles and posted a career-high 28 points in Nebraska's NIT win over Butler. Roby moved into the starting lineup midway through his sophomore season, as Nebraska set a school record with 13 conference wins on its way to a 22-11 mark. He averaged 8.7 points and a team-high 6.3 rebounds per game while ranking fourth in the Big Ten in blocked shots at 2.0 per game.

CAREER RECAP

Trueblood walked on to the Husker program and played an instrumental role in helping the Huskers return to postseason play in his final two years at NU. As a senior, he became the Huskers' sixth man during the Big 12 Tournament and NIT after a pair of season-ending injuries. Despite playing just 37 minutes in NU's first 30 games, Trueblood tallied at least 25 minutes in all six postseason games for the Big Red. He set then-career highs in points (six), rebounds (seven), assists (six) and minutes (31) in NU's 80-76 win over Butler before closing his career with a personal-best eight points and three assists in the second-round loss to TCU. Trueblood played 10 games as a freshman in 2015-16 before returning to the team in 2017-18. He was a three-year letterwinner and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in each of the past two seasons. Trueblood graduated with a degree in business administration in 2019.

CAREER RECAP

Watson wrapped up one of the most distinguished careers in school history in 2019. A four-year starter, he holds NU's school mark with 134 games played and closed his career on the top-10 of NU career lists in steals (177, fourth), assists (382, seventh) and 3-pointers (184, fourth) while also totaling 1,532 career points. As a senior, he started all 36 games in helping Nebraska reach the NIT for the second straight season, averaging a career-high 13.6 points per game along with 4.1 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game. He reached double figures 27 times in 2018-19, including five 20-point games. He started 32 games as a junior, helping the Huskers to 22 wins, including a school-record 13 Big Ten wins. As a sophomore, he ranked among the Big Ten leaders in scoring (13.2 ppg) and steals (1.4 apg) as he played in 31 games, including 29 starts. Off the court, he was a three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship team and graduated in August of 2019. He will play in Greece in 2019-20.

Opened on Aug. 29, 2013, Pinnacle Bank Arena is the home of the Nebraska men's and women's basketball programs. Located in the Haymarket District in downtown Lincoln, Pinnacle Bank Arena has a basketball capacity of 15,000 and is quickly becoming one of the premier concert destinations in the Midwest. Since its opening, it has hosted concerts ranging from Jay-Z, Paul McCartney, Jason Aldean, Katy Perry, The Eagles and Michael Bublé.

Pinnacle Bank Arena opened to rave reviews during its first year of operation. It was a nominee for best New Major Concert Venue by Pollstar Magazine, one of five facilities in the world chosen for the honor. In April of 2014, the facility was chosen as the Best Arena in College Basketball by Athletic Business, a magazine source for athletic, fitness and recreation professionals.

The 470,400-square foot arena was created with basketball in mind. The facility features a split upper concourse, allowing fans to be closer to the floor than in a typical arena. Pinnacle Bank Arena also features expansive premium seating with 36 suites, 20 loge boxes and over 800 club seats in addition to court-side seating. Other arena amenities include free wi-fi, a Panasonic video board which is 16 1/2 feet tall and 22 feet wide, as well as an upper video board which is six feet tall and 22 feet wide, and retractable seating to allow an intimate environment on game days as well as over 160 concession points of sale. The arena also features an expansive student section with 1,000 seats on the 100 Level, including behind both team benches.

The $179-million dollar arena is easily accessible in downtown Lincoln as nearly 5,100 parking stalls are within walking distance of the facility, including three new parking garages and the Festival Space to the north of Pinnacle Bank Arena. Pinnacle Bank Arena is part of a $344 million project in the Haymarket District in downtown Lincoln which also includes a 200-room hotel, 100,000 square feet of retail space, another 100,000 square feet of office space and 100 residential units.

PINNACLE BANK ARENA OPENING

Opening night for the Huskers at Pinnacle Bank Arena was a smashing success. The pregame ceremonies included performances from Tommy Lee and DJ Aero (upper left), the Cornhusker Marching Band (middle and lower left) while Karmin (top right) sang the national anthem. A sellout crowd of 15,119 was on hand as Nebraska defeated Florida Gulf Coast, 79-55, behind a game-high 28 points from Shavon Shields. Use your smart phone to watch some of the highlights from opening night at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

Mikki Moore led Nebraska to the 1996 NIT championship game, where the Huskers defeated St. Joseph's, 60-56, to earn their first-ever basketball title on the national level.

Cookie Belcher shares the school record with six steals in a postseason game. He accomplished the feat on three occasions as a Husker.

HISTORY OF NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

By Mike Babcock

As near as anyone can determine, the University of Nebraska was first represented by a men's basketball team on Feb. 2, 1897, just six years after Dr. James A. Naismith set down the rules of the game at the International YMCA Training School in Springfield, Mass.

A team from the Lincoln YMCA was the opponent, and Nebraska posted an 11-8 victory at Grant Memorial Hall, the home of the Huskers for all but two seasons until the Coliseum opened in 1926. The same teams played in Grant Hall three weeks later with a similar result, as NU won 23-14. Nebraska had to rally in the second game. The Hesperian, a student newspaper, reported: "At the end of the first half the score stood 9 to 6 in favor of the visitors but during the second half our boys took a brace and some excellent work was done."

Such was the modest beginning of a program that has enjoyed its greatest success since 1980. In that span, NU has earned a 684-569 record and 22 postseason appearances, including seven NCAA Tournaments, while adding a Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament title in 1994 and the 1996 National Invitation Tournament championship.

Nebraska doubled its schedule in 1898, losing twice to the Lincoln YMCA and splitting two games with the Omaha YMCA. A 16-12 loss against the Omaha YMCA provided evidence as to why Nebraska finished 1-3 that season. According to The Hesperian account: "The great difficulty of the University team was mere recklessness. Our boys have been playing with a loose interpretation of the rules. The officials were strict and of course the resulting advantage was in favor of Omaha." Then as now, overly aggressive play had its drawbacks.

Nebraska played teams from other universities for the first time in 1899, winning two games against Nebraska Wesleyan and one against Doane en route to the unofficial state championship. The next season, Nebraska played an out-of-state opponent for the first time, defeating the University of Kansas, 48-8, at Lincoln. That game still ranks as the worst loss for a Jayhawk team and was the first for either school against a present-day NCAA Division I school.

The Kansas team was coached by Dr. Naismith. The Nebraska student yearbook, Sombrero, wrote: "A closely contested game was looked for. The Jayhawkers were, however, completely outclassed, the score being 48-8." Based on the victory against Kansas and four other similarly decisive victories, "the basketball team for this year was undoubtedly superior to any in the west," the Sombrero concluded. It would be several years before such a claim could be made again.

Nebraska hired its first full-time coach in 1911. E.O. "Jumbo" Stiehm, who scored 24 points against Nebraska as a Wisconsin basketball player in 1908, coached both football and basketball. His first Husker basketball team won 14 of 15 games, its only loss coming at Minnesota, 40-15. The student newspaper, The Daily Nebraskan, blamed the loss on Nebraska's inability to adjust to the Gophers' "100-foot floor."

A Daily Nebraskan account of Nebraska's 29-28 season-ending victory against Kansas at Lincoln in 1912 provides evidence that some fans' behavior hasn't changed much over the years.

"The game as a whole was entirely unsatisfactory, being marred by rough tactics of the visitors, incompetent work on the part of the referee and interruptions by the audience, which were in part justifiable."

Nebraska shared the Missouri Valley Conference championship with Kansas in 1912 and 1914 and won the title outright in 1913 under Stiehm's leadership. The 1913-14 team was "so fast it took a movie camera to catch 'em," according to the Cornhusker student yearbook. It was described as a "point-a-minute" team, which wasn't quite accurate. Typically, games lasted 40 minutes (though that wasn't always the case), and Nebraska averaged 30 points per game. Guard Sam Carrier became Nebraska's first All-America basketball player in 1913. He and Carl Underwood led the Huskers to 17 victories in 19 games. Underwood was the Missouri Valley Conference scoring leader with 66 points in 10 conference games.

Nebraska won another conference title outright in 1916, after Sam Waugh replaced Stiehm as the Cornhuskers' coach for one season. Stiehm, who coached the first game of the season before giving way to Waugh, had planned to remain at Nebraska through the basketball season before leaving to become coach and athletic director at Wisconsin. But the Nebraska Athletic Board decided to replace him.

Waugh was succeeded by E.J. "Doc" Stewart, whose three Cornhusker teams had a combined record of 29-23. Nebraska was 22-2 in 1919-20 and 11-3 in 1920-21 under Coach P.J. Schissler. After the 1919-20 season, Schissler challenged the University of Chicago to a game, but to no avail. The Cornhuskers also were invited to a postseason AAU tournament in Atlanta but didn't go.

Schissler's teams played as independents. Nebraska lost its affiliation with the Missouri Valley Conference because of a decision to play a football game against Oklahoma in Omaha in 1919. Conference rules prohibited such games (Oklahoma had not yet joined the Missouri Valley Conference). Nebraska returned to the Missouri Valley Conference in 1921, and Owen Frank replaced Schissler as basketball coach. The remainder of the Roaring 1920s was, for the most part, undistinguished.

Basketball was rough and tumble. There was a center jump after every basket and no requirement to cross mid-court in 10 seconds or less. The ball was a lot different, too, more like a medicine ball, which contributed to some dull games.

The most significant event during the 1920s was the building of the Coliseum, which was dedicated on Feb. 6, 1926. The Cornhuskers dropped a 25-14 decision to Kansas in the first game at their new home, which was built at a cost of $445,000 and seated 8,000 for basketball. Prior to that, Nebraska played most of its home games in Grant Hall, which seated about a fourth as many fans as the Coliseum and was located just to the north of where the Sheldon Art Gallery now stands.

Athletic Director Fred Leuhning arranged for Nebraska to play its home basketball games at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum in 1921, in order to accommodate more spectators. The Cornhuskers played two seasons at the Fairgrounds Coliseum, which had a wider court than Grant Hall.

The first game there was played on Jan. 14, 1921. Nebraska defeated conference opponent Grinnell 31-10 before an audience of 1,500, according to newspaper estimates. After two seasons, the Cornhuskers returned to Grant Hall, which had been remodeled, and continued to play home games there until the NU Coliseum opened.

Nebraska ended the decade with an 11-5 season under Charles T. Black, a former Kansas All-American in 1928-29. In the next 19 seasons, the Huskers had just two winning records, back-to-back campaigns under Coach W.H. Browne in 1935-36 and 1936-37. The 1937 team tied Kansas for the Big Six championship, after finishing second to the Jayhawks in 1936.

The 1930s produced four more Cornhusker All-Americans: center Don Maclay in 1931, guard Steve Hokuf in 1933, guard George Wahlquist in 1936 and guard Robert Parsons in 1937. Maclay was the Big Six scoring leader in 1930, scoring 112 points in 10 league games.

Harry Good was hired as head coach in 1946 and after two losing seasons, turned Nebraska's fortunes around. In 1948-49, Good's Huskers went 16-10, tied Oklahoma for the Big Seven regular-season championship and defeated the Sooners, 57-56, in a conference playoff to qualify for an NCAA playoff game. The NCAA Tournament was structured differently then, and the Cornhuskers needed to win that playoff to advance into the NCAA field. They lost to Oklahoma A&M, the Missouri Valley Conference champion, 52-35, at Kansas City, Mo. Coach Henry P. Iba's Aggies went on to finish second to Kentucky, coached by Adolph Rupp, in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1949-50, Nebraska again won 16 games and shared the Big Seven crown with Kansas and Kansas State. That marks the last time the conference had a three-way tie at the top. "We were King in our day," Claude Retherford once told a newspaper reporter. "They were firing football coaches left and right, but we packed 'em in. Oh, people were interested in football, Bus Whitehead was a two-time All-Big Seven selection in 1949 and 1950. The court at the Hendricks Training Complex is named after Whitehead, who passed away in 2010.

Claude Retherford was the leading scorer on NU's 1949 Big Seven Championship team.

All-Star Game in New York City's Madison Square Garden. When he graduated, Whitehead held nine school scoring records.

Nebraska basketball experienced another drought beginning in 1950-51, with 15 consecutive losing seasons. Despite playing for a team that finished last in the Big Seven in 1952, Husker guard Jim Buchanan earned All-America and all-conference honors. And even though the late Jerry Bush, dubbed the "Big Bear of the Coliseum," never produced a winning team in his nine seasons as head coach at Nebraska, his colorful personality and uncanny ability to fashion upsets kept Cornhusker fans entertained.

The most dramatic upset during Bush's tenure as coach came on Feb. 22, 1958, against Kansas. The Jayhawks featured 7-foot center Wilt Chamberlain and were ranked fourth in the nation when they came to Lincoln. Earlier in the season, the Jayhawks had defeated the Huskers, 102-46, at Lawrence, Kan., with Chamberlain matching Nebraska by scoring 46 points. Nebraska scored a 43-41 victory in the rematch, when 5-9 guard Jim Kubacki hit a 15-foot jump shot with two seconds remaining.

But that's only part of the drama. Kubacki, a senior from Toledo, Ohio, spent all but the final 6:53 of the game sitting on the bench in street clothes, forced there by a knee injury and the kind of fate from which legends are built. When the Cornhuskers' captain, Gary Reimers, left the game with leg cramps, Kubacki convinced Bush to let him suit up. Four minutes and seven seconds later, Kubacki went into the game. Two minutes and 44 seconds after that, he hit the winning shot.

Bush also had the distinction of coaching the school's first 1,000-point scorer, guard Herschell Turner, who came from Indianapolis, Ind., where he was rated the second-best high school player in the state as a senior, behind only crosstown-rival Oscar Robertson. Turner earned All-America honors in 1959 and followed with All-Big Eight honors in 1960 and ended his Cornhusker career with 1,056 points.

Following the 1962-63 season, Bush was replaced as head coach by Joe Cipriano, who brought the nickname "Slippery Joe" and up-tempo basketball to the Coliseum. His teams pressed full-court and ran a fast-break offense, which led the Big Eight in scoring average in 1966, 1967 and 1968.

Cipriano's first two teams had a combined record of 17-33. But his third team, in 1965-66, was one of the most successful in school history, finishing 20-5 and second to Kansas in the Big Eight. All-Big Eight guard Grant Simmons, the first Cornhusker to earn academic All-Big Eight honors, was the team's leader.

The 1966-67 team finished 16-9 and made the school's first appearance in the 16-team National Invitation Tournament, played at New York City's Madison Square Garden. Guard Stu Lantz was a two-time All-Big Eight pick and led the Cornhuskers in scoring and rebounding in both 1966-67 and 1967-68.

Guard Marvin Stewart and center Chuck Jura earned All-Big Eight honors for Cipriano in 1971 and 1972, respectively. Guard Jerry Fort, who finished his career with a then-school-record 1,882 points, was the first Nebraska player chosen first-team all-conference three times, from 1974 through 1976. With Fort's leadership, Nebraska began a string of 14 winning seasons.

but basketball was THE game on the Nebraska campus when we played." Retherford earned All-Big Seven recognition in 1949 after leading the conference in scoring with a 12.4 points-per-game average.

The Cornhuskers had another first-team All-Big Seven performer in 1949, Milton "Bus" Whitehead. The 6-10 center from Scottsbluff, Neb., also earned all-conference honors in 1950, when he averaged a then-school-record 15.7 points per game. Whitehead was named to the District V All-America team by Collier's Magazine. Whitehead also was the first Cornhusker selected to play in the East-West

In the fall of 1976, Cornhusker basketball moved out of the Coliseum and into the state-of-the-art Bob Devaney Sports Center. Located on the State Fairgrounds, the $13 million athletic complex was financed by a special cigarette tax.

Cipriano coached Nebraska to another 20-victory season in 1977-78. The Cornhuskers, led by All-Big Eight guard Brian Banks, finished with a 22-8 record and advanced to the second round of the NIT. Despite failing health — a battle against cancer that he finally lost — Cipriano shared coaching duties with his assistant, Moe Iba, in 1979-80, and took Nebraska to the NIT again. For their efforts, the duo shared United Press International Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Cipriano brought Nebraska into the modern era, coaching 17 seasons and 450 games. His record was 253-197, and those 253 victories represent nearly one-sixth of Nebraska's all-time total. Following Cipriano's death, Iba was named head coach, and he continued Cipriano's winning ways. In Iba's six seasons on the bench, Nebraska was 106-71 and advanced to postseason play four times.

Center Andre Smith was the 1981 Big Eight MVP and twice earned All-Big Eight honors. However, it was the late Jack Moore, a 5-10 playmaker from Muncie, Ind., who captured the hearts of Nebraska fans from 1980 through 1982. Moore earned All-Big Eight honors in 1982, when he won the Naismith Award, given annually to the nation's top player under 6-feet tall. The first three-time academic All-Big Eight pick in Nebraska history, Moore scored 1,204 points and hit .901 from the free throw line during his career.

The cornerstone of Iba's teams from 1983 through 1986 was Omaha, Neb., native Dave Hoppen, a three-time All-Big Eight center and the first Nebraska basketball player to have his jersey number (42) retired by the school. In 1982-83, Hoppen's freshman season, the Cornhuskers were 22-10 and won three games in the NIT before losing to DePaul in the semifinals at Madison Square Garden. The Cornhuskers returned to the NIT each of the next two seasons, advancing to the second round both times.

Hoppen's college career, though, was ended by a knee injury he sustained in a game at Colorado on Feb. 1, 1986. He finished as the school's all-time scoring leader with 2,167 points and broke or tied 19 school records during his four-year stay. After Hoppen's injury,

Andre Smith was the Big Eight Player of the Year for Nebraska in 1981.

N 1919-20 NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

HISTORY OF NEBRASKA BASKETBALL

Iba's team regrouped and went on to earn the school's first-ever "official" NCAA Tournament berth. Nebraska lost to Western Kentucky in the first round of the Southeast Regional, 67-59. Following the game, Iba announced his resignation.

On March 27, 1986, Danny Nee was officially introduced as Nebraska's 24th basketball coach. During a news conference to announce his hiring, Nee said a "new era" in Cornhusker basketball was beginning.

Nee's 14 teams appeared in postseason play 11 times and topped the 20-victory mark in seven seasons. In his first season, Nebraska was 21-12 and finished third in the NIT.

After a 13-18 record in his second season, the Cornhuskers got back over the .500 mark with a 17-16 record in 1988-89 and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

Nebraska missed the school single-season record for losses by one in 1989-90 (10-18), then won a school-record 26 games, with only eight losses, in 1990-91. The Cornhuskers reached the Big Eight Tournament championship game for the first time and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, losing to Xavier 89-84 in the first round of the regionals at Minneapolis, Minn.

The 1990-91 team included two first-round NBA draft picks, senior Rich King and redshirt freshman Eric Piatkowski. The 7-2 King was the tallest player in Cornhusker history.

Piatkowski, Nebraska's sixth-man in 1990-91, went on to win first-team all-conference honors twice. He ranks second on the Cornhuskers' career-scoring list with 1,934 points, and he is the only Nebraska player to finish with at least 1,900 points, 600 rebounds (669) and 300 assists (322). In 2006, Piatkowski became the third Husker, joining Hoppen and Stu Lantz (No. 22), to have his jersey number (52) retired.

Three more NCAA Tournament appearances followed the record-shattering 1991 season. In 1992-93, the Huskers registered their highest league finish under Nee by tying for second in the Big Eight.

In addition to reaching the NCAA Tournament for a fourth consecutive season and recording back-to-back 20-victory seasons for the first time in school history, Nee's 1993-94 team made history by winning the school's first Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament title. The Cornhuskers defeated Oklahoma, Missouri and Oklahoma State, in that order, to earn the tournament championship.

Nebraska's NCAA Tournament run ended at four in 1994-95, but the Huskers kept their postseason streak alive with an NIT berth, advancing to the second round. The 1995-96 team struggled down the stretch but was back in the NIT and capped its season with a run to the tournament title.

The Huskers won two games on the road and scored more than 80 points in four of their five postseason games. They finished with a 60-56 victory against St. Joseph's at Madison Square Garden.

"The NIT run was incredible when you look at the teams we beat and how we beat them," Nee said after the remarkable run. "I don't care what anybody says, it was domination."

The 1996 NIT championship team was one of the most talented in school history. Two Nebraska won its only Big Eight Tournament title during the 1994 season as the Huskers won three straight over Oklahoma, No. 3 Missouri and No. 23 Oklahoma State.

future NBA players, Erick Strickland and 1998 first-round draft pick Tyronn Lue, were in the backcourt. And two other players on the team scored 1,000 career points, Jaron Boone and freshman Venson Hamilton, who would finish his career in 1999 as the school's all-time leading rebounder and shot-blocker.

Lue's contributions as a freshman to the NIT championship team were only a preview of what was to come. The lightning-quick, 6-0 point guard finished his career as the seventh-leading scorer in school history, and he ranked in the top 10 in 12 other career categories. His leadership carried the 1996-97 Cornhusker team, the first to play in the Big 12, to another NIT appearance.

Behind a late-season run, which included Nebraska's longest conference winning streak in 20 years, Nee's 12th team finished fourth in the Big 12 and returned to the NCAA Tournament. The bid was the Cornhuskers' fifth during the 1990s and extended the school-record postseason run to eight.

The streak reached nine in 1999, as the Cornhuskers just missed an NCAA Tournament bid and advanced to the second round of the NIT. In the process, NU reached the 20-victory mark for a second consecutive season, and Hamilton was named Big 12 Player of the Year.

The optimism that preceded the 1999-2000 season, Nee's last, quickly faded with the loss of guard Cookie Belcher, who was sidelined by a wrist injury and forced to take a medical redshirt. The Cornhuskers were off-balance almost from the beginning of the season and fell far short of expectations.

Even though Nee became the winningest coach in school history in 1999-2000, getting victory No. 254 to pass Joe Cipriano in the Cornhuskers' final home game against Colorado, his final team finished with an 11-19 record. The 19 losses tied for the most in school history.

With then-Director of Athletics Bill Byrne setting his sites on bringing NU basketball back to national prominence, he hired Barry Collier as the Cornhuskers' new coach on April 5, 2000. In Collier's first season with the Huskers, Nebraska finished with a 14-16 mark as Belcher returned to the lineup and earned second-team All-Big 12 Conference honors while finishing third in NCAA history for career steals with 353.

In Collier's fourth season, Nebraska ran to an 18-13 record and its first postseason bid in five years. Nebraska won its first two games in the 2004 NIT, including an exhilarating 71-70

Nebraska won the 1996 NIT title at Madison Square Garden. It was the third time since 1980 that the Huskers reached at least the NIT semifinals.

Venson Hamilton was the second Husker to be named conference player of the year when he earned the award in 1999.

road victory over in-state foe Creighton in the opening round. After a home-court victory over Niagara, the Huskers' season came to an end three days later in a valiant effort at Hawaii when NU came back from 17 points down at halftime to tie the game at the first media timeout of the second period before eventually falling by a point.

Nebraska struggled the following season but an influx of young talent helped the Huskers move forward. Aleks Maric made an immediate impact as he broke the NU freshman rebounds record and ranked in the rookie top 10 for blocked shots. Maric was a force in the paint as he tied the school freshman record for double-doubles. It was a sign of good things to come as he finished his four-year career ranked fifth all-time in scoring and was only the second Husker ever to record at least 1,000 career rebounds.

NU made its second postseason appearance in three years in 2006 before finishing with a 19-14 record. It was the most wins under Collier and the first time his Huskers won a game at the Big 12 Championship as NU reached the semifinals of the conference tourney for the first time since winning the Big Eight Tournament title in 1994.

Collier looked to have a solid base in place for 2006-07 before abruptly resigning in early August to take the position of athletic director at his alma mater, Butler University, ending his career at Nebraska with an 89-91 overall record.

The late opening posed little challenge for Nebraska as one week later, on Aug. 8, 2006, Kenneth 'Doc' Sadler was introduced as the 26th head coach in program history.

Nebraska finished first in the Big 12 and 18th nationally in scoring defense in 2007-08, allowing just 60.7 points per game. Sadler's specialty was highlighted again in 2008-09 as the Huskers proved it was no fluke, claiming another first-place defense in the league while ranking 22nd nationally by giving up just 60.4 points per contest. It was the second-lowest total in the Husker record book since 1951, giving Sadler-coached squads three of the top four Husker scoring defenses in the past half century.

The Huskers' 20-13 record in 2007-08 included a 7-9 record in league play, after starting the Big 12 campaign with an 0-4 mark. In 2008-09, Sadler helped Nebraska continue its upward trend with eight league victories, marking NU's first .500 record in conference play in a decade. Nebraska's 2010-11 season was highlighted by wins over three ranked teams, including No. 3 Texas, as the victory over the Longhorns was marked the highest ranked team Nebraska had defeated since 1994.

The 2011-12 season began a new era for Nebraska basketball, as the Huskers joined the Big Ten Conference. That season also marked the opening of the Hendricks Training Complex, an 84,000-foot facility for the Husker basketball program which includes practice courts, locker room, team lounge, offices as well as strength and nutrition areas, giving Nebraska one of the best facilities in the nation.

In March of 2012, Nebraska moved in a different direction as then-Athletic Director Tom Osborne chose Tim Miles to run the basketball program. It took Miles only two years to turn the fortunes of the Huskers around.

The 2013-14 season was a rebirth for the Husker program. Nebraska moved into the $179 million dollar Pinnacle Bank Arena in August of 2013 and presold the entire season six months before the opener. The Huskers went 15-1 in its inaugural season in PBA, culminating with a win over ninth-ranked Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 15,998. Terran Petteway earned consensus All-Big Ten honors while Miles was named Big Ten and National Coach of the Year after leading the Huskers to the NCAA's following a 1-5 start in Big Ten play.

Aleks Maric finished his career ranked fifth all-time in scoring and second in rebounding, becoming only the third player in Big 12 history to record at least 1,600 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career.

Since the opening of Pinnacle Bank Arena, Husker fans have been coming out in record numbers, as has averaged more than 15,000 fans per game in each of the past six seasons.

In 2017-18, the Huskers exceeded expectations, winning 22 games, including a pair of wins against ranked Big Ten teams, and finished fourth in the conference with a 13-5 mark. The 13 conference wins was a school record while the 22 wins were the most since 1990-91. Newcomers James Palmer Jr. and Isaac Copeland both earned All-Big Ten honors, as Palmer garnered first-team accolades by averaging 17.2 points per game to rank fifth in the Big Ten.

The Huskers returned to postseason play in 2018-19, going 19-17 and earning another berth in the NIT. Nebraska, which was ranked in the top-25 earlier in the season, battled through a trio of season-ending injuries and with its 80-76 win over Butler in the first round of the NIT, won its first postseason game in 11 years. Another streak was snapped in June of 2019, when Isaiah Roby was drafted in the second round of the NBA Draft, becoming the first Husker taken in 20 years. Miles ended his Husker tenure on March 26, 2019, after guiding NU to three postseason appearances in seven seasons at the helm of the program.

On March 30, 2019, Athletics Director Bill Moos named Fred Hoiberg the 28th head coach in school history. Hoiberg brings a distinguished resume to Lincoln that includes four years as an NBA front office executive, four years as an NBA head coach and five years at Iowa State, where he orchestrated the biggest turnaround in Big 12 history in 2011-12 and guided the school to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Hoiberg, who was born in Lincoln, joins the Husker men's basketball coaching fraternity, a group that includes his grandfather, Jerry Bush, who guided the Husker program for nine seasons from 1955 to 1963.

A crowd of nearly 2,500 were on hand to celebrate with the Huskers on their 2014 NCAA Tournament berth.

After earning all-league honors as a junior, Tyronn Lue was a first-round NBA selection in 1998. During his collegiate career, he helped Nebraska to three postseason appearances and finished eighth in school history in scoring.

Bill Johnson won a gold medal for the United States at the 1954 FIBA World Championships (now called the FIBA World Cup) in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Johnson averaged 9.5 rebounds per game during his three-year career at Nebraska.

Danny Nee is the winningest coach in Nebraska history with 254 career victories over 14 seasons. A 2009 Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame inductee, Nee was the Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1991 after leading NU to a school-record 26 victories.

WATSON JR. SELECTED AS JACK MOORE AWARD WINNER

Senior Glynn Watson Jr. was selected as the 2018-19 recipient of the Jack Moore Award winner, which is annually presented to the team's Most Valuable Player.

The award is named for late Husker guard Jack Moore, a 5-9 playmaker who set 17 school records in a career that ended in 1982. Moore was presented with the 1982 Francis Pomeroy-Naismith Award as the best collegiate player in the nation under six feet tall. A consensus All-Big Eight performer in 1982, Moore was killed in a plane crash in March of 1984.

Watson put together a strong senior season, as the Huskers went 19-17 and won their first postseason game since 2008. The Bellwood, Ill., native started all 36 games and set career bests in scoring (13.6 ppg), rebounding (4.1 rpg), 3-pointers (82) and minutes per game (34.4). He reached double figures 27 times in 2018-29, including five 20-point performances. Watson played some of his best basketball over the final month of the season, averaging 18.9 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game while shooting 42 percent from 3-point range over Nebraska's final nine games. During the Huskers' Big Ten Tournament and NIT games, he averaged 17.4 points, 4.8 rebounds and 4.2 assists while posting a 3.5-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio and played every minute for NU in that stretch.

A four-year starter, he set NU's school mark with 134 games played and closed his career on the top-10 of NU career lists in starts (113, second), steals (177, fourth), assists (382, seventh) and 3-pointers (184, fourth) while totaling 1,532 career points to rank 11th all-time at NU. Watson will play for Lavrio Aegean in Greece in 2019-20.

6-11, 235, C, 1983-86, Omaha, Neb. (Benson)

Three-time All-Big Eight center Dave Hoppen finished his career as Nebraska's all-time leading scorer with 2,167 points. Hoppen, whose four-year collegiate career was cut short by a knee injury in a game at Colorado, Feb. 1, 1986, broke or tied 19 Nebraska records and five Big Eight marks during his standout career. A native of Omaha, Neb., Hoppen was the first player in Husker basketball history to have his jersey number (42) retired. Originally drafted by the NBA's Atlanta Hawks in the third round of the 1986 draft, he played with both Charlotte and Philadelphia, and a stint in the CBA. Hoppen was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1996 and Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

2. ERIC PIATKOWSKI – 1,934 POINTS

6-7, 215, F, 1991-94, Rapid City, S.D. (Stevens)

One of only two players in school history to play on four consecutive NCAA Tournament teams, Eric Piatkowski finished his career as the second-leading scorer in school history with 1,934 points. The Most Valuable Player in the 1994 Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament, Piatkowski had a school and tournament-record 42-point outburst in Nebraska's first-round victory over Oklahoma. A two-time, first-team All-Big Eight pick, Piatkowski averaged 21.5 points in his final season as a Husker, and became the first player in school history to score 1,900 points (1,934), grab 600 rebounds (669) and dish out 300 assists (322). A first-round draft pick of the NBA's Indiana Pacers, Piatkowski's draft rights were then traded to the Los Angeles Clippers, who he played with for eight seasons. He also played with the Houston Rockets, Chicago Bulls and Phoenix Suns. Piatkowski's No. 52 jersey was retired by the Huskers in 2006, the same year he was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame.

3. JERRY FORT – 1,882 POINTS

6-3, 170, G, 1973-76, Chicago, Ill. (Franciscan)

The first Husker basketball player to earn All-Big Eight honors for three straight seasons, Jerry Fort finished his career with 1,882 points – a record that stood for nine seasons, until Dave Hoppen broke it on Dec. 15, 1985. Fort was a third-round draft pick of the Boston Celtics following his senior season. He scored a then-school-record 40 points against Missouri as a junior. Fort was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1991.

4. ANDRE SMITH – 1,717 POINTS

6-7, 215, C/F, 1978-81, Chicago, Ill. (Kennedy)

Andre Smith closed his brilliant four-year career in 1980-81 when he led the Big Eight Conference in scoring with a 19.5 average in league-only games. Smith was named the conference's player of the year for his efforts – the only Husker to earn that honor in the Big Eight era. Smith was also a two-time all-conference selection. He scored 1,717 points and grabbed 753 rebounds during his Husker career and was chosen in the seventh round of the 1981 NBA Draft by the Cleveland Cavaliers. He was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1994.

T5. ALEKS MARIC – 1,630 POINTS

6-11, 275, C, 2005-08, Sydney, Australia

(Life Center (N.J.)/Australian Institute for Sport)

Aleks Maric was one of the most dominant big men in the first 12 years of the Big 12 era. The Aussie was a first-team All-Big 12 selection by the Associated Press as a senior and a two-time second-team pick by the coaches. During his senior year, he became only the third player in league history to record at least 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career. Maric tied the school single-season record with 335 boards as a senior in 2007-08. Maric led NU and ranked in the top seven in the league in scoring, rebounding, field-goal percentage and blocked shots as a senior. He finished his career tying or breaking 19 Nebraska and Big 12 Conference records. After declaring for the NBA Draft following his sophomore season, Maric withdrew and returned to Nebraska where he became just the ninth player in program history to reach 1,000 points before the start of his senior campaign. He has played overseas following his career and was an All-Euroleague first-team selection in 2010. In 2011, he helped Panathinaikos win a Euroleague title and represented Australia in the 2012 Olympics. Maric played in the Bahraini Premier League in 2018-19.

T5. SHAVON SHIELDS – 1,630 POINTS

6-7, 225, G/F, 2013-2016, Olathe, Kan. (Northwest)

One of the most accomplished student-athletes in program history, Shavon Shields left his mark in the Husker program. One of five players in school history with 1,500 points and 600 rebounds, Shields finished his career in the top 10 in six categories, including points, field goals and free throws made. As a senior, he earned second-team All-Big Ten honors, averaging 16.8 points, 5.1 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game. A two-time All-Big Ten performer, Shields is third in school history with 112 starts. In the classroom, Shields was a two-time first-team Academic All-American (2015-16) and was chosen as Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year in 2016. He will play his second season with Baskonia in Spain after previously playing in Germany and Italy.

9. TYRONN LUE - 1,577 POINTS

6-0, 175, G, 1996-98, Mexico, Mo. (Raytown)

Tyronn Lue became one of the few Huskers to eclipse the 1,000-point mark by early in his junior season. He finished his career with 1,577 points before turning pro a year early. Lue was a first-round NBA draft pick of the Denver Nuggets before being traded on draft night to the Los Angeles Lakers where he won a pair of NBA titles. He also played for the Washington Wizards, Orlando Magic, Houston Rockets, Atlanta Hawks, Dallas Mavericks and Milwaukee Bucks. Lue ranks in the top 10 in 13 Husker career categories, including assists (fourth, 432), 3-pointers (10th, 145) and steals (eighth, 154). Lue started 96 of 99 games in his Husker career and led NU to three straight postseason appearances, including an NCAA berth in 1998. A 2013 inductee into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame, Lue was named head coach of the Cleveland Cavaliers on Jan. 22, 2016. In his first season, he guided the Cavs to the first NBA title in franchise history, as Cleveland overcame a 3-1 deficit against Golden State in the NBA Finals. Lue, who coached the Cavs to three NBA Finals appearances in his tenure, is one of only 14 individuals in NBA history to win a title as both a player and head coach. He became the fourth Husker to have his jersey retired when he was honored on Feb. 2, 2017.

10. COOKIE BELCHER - 1,552 POINTS

6-4, 205, G, 1997-2001, Mexico, Mo. (Mexico)

During the 1999 season, Cookie Belcher became the 21st player in school history to join the Huskers' 1,000-point club. With another stellar campaign in 2001, he moved into the Huskers' all-time top 10, finishing his career with 1,552 points. He was just the eighth player in NU history to reach 1,000 points before the start of his senior season. Belcher made a strong mark on the Husker record books in other areas. He owns the Nebraska game, season and career records for steals and is fifth in NCAA history with 353 steals. He also ranks in the top 10 on NU's career 3-point (ninth, 146) and assist lists (second, 477) and owns the school records for most career starts (129) in school history. He enjoyed a successful professional career in Italy, Israel and Greece for a decade before going into coaching at the IMG Academy.

11. GLYNN WATSON JR. - 1,532 POINTS

G, 2016-2019, Bellwood, Ill. (Westchester St. Joseph)

A four-year starter in the Husker backcourt, Watson went over 1,000 career points late in the 2018-19 season and guided Nebraska to consecutive postseason appearances in 2018 and 2019. The Bellwood, Ill., native was Nebraska's all-time leader in games played with 134 and finished in the top-10 in starts (113, second), 3-pointers (184, fourth), steals (177, fourth) and assists (382, seventh). He enjoyed a stellar senior season, setting career highs in scoring, rebounding and 3-point percentage as the Huskers won 19 games and advanced to the second round of the NIT. As a junior, Watson helped Nebraska to a 22-11 record and a school-record 13 Big Ten wins, as the Huskers finished tied for fourth in the conference standings. During his sophomore campaign, Watson averaged 13.0 points per game, including a career-high 34 point performance in a win over Iowa. He will play professionally in Greece in 2019-20.

6-10, 240, C, 1996-99, Forest City, N.C. (Oak Hill Academy)

One of two Huskers to reach the 1,000-point plateau in 1998-99, Venson Hamilton was a four-year standout for Coach Danny Nee. Hamilton finished his career with 1,416 points and ranks 12th on NU's all-time scoring list. His senior season was one of the finest campaigns in school history. For his efforts, Hamilton earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors, the first Husker since 1981 to capture the league honor. Hamilton still owns NU records for rebounds (1,080) and blocked shots (241) and is fourth in games played (129). Hamilton was just the fourth player all-time among Big 12 schools to score 1,000 points, grab 1,000 rebounds and block 200 shots in his collegiate career. He was a second-round draft pick of the Houston Rockets in 1999, and enjoyed a successful professional career in Europe and Morocco.

14. CARL MCPPIPE - 1,300 POINTS

6-8, 225, C, 1976-79, Hammond, Ind. (Technical)

One-half of the "Hammond Hustlers" (Brian Banks was the other), 'Pipe' and 'BB' provided Nebraska with a great four-year, one-two punch. McPipe, a three-year starter, finished his career with 1,300 points. As a junior, McPipe earned USBWA District V honors and was one of 12 starters designated as an All-American by the Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation. In his final year in a Husker uniform, McPipe was a repeat pick on the USBWA team and a fifth-round draft selection of the Philadelphia 76ers.

15. TOM BAACK - 1,299 POINTS

6-5, 192, F, 1966-68, Fort Wayne, Ind. (Concordia)

Tom Baack, a 1995 Nebraska Hall of Fame inductee, finished his career with 1,299 points, a figure that stood as the school record until guard Jerry Fort came along 10 years later. Baack played on three straight winning NU teams from 1965 through 1968, and helped the Huskers to an NIT appearance in 1966-67—NU's first-ever bid to the nation's oldest postseason tournament. Known for his satin-smooth jump shot, Baack had a 17.3 points-per-game average for his career, which still ranks fifth in school history. Baack served as an assistant at Nebraska for eight seasons after his playing days. He was selected in the 10th round of the 1968 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons.

16. JAMES PALMER JR. - 1,276 POINTS

6-6, 207, G, 2018-19, Upper Marlboro, Md.

(St. John's Collegiate/Miami)

One of the most prolific scorers in school history, James Palmer Jr. guided the Huskers to 41 wins and back-to-back NIT appearances his NU career. Palmer averaged 18.5 points per game in his two seasons at NU, while his 1,276 points at NU were the most by a two-year player. As a senior, he averaged 19.7 points, 4.2 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.4 steals per game to earn all-district and All-Big Ten honors. He was third in the Big Ten in scoring and fourth in steals and set school single-season marks for points (708), free throws attempted (282), free throws made (215) and minutes (1,269). He had 18 20-point games as a senior, including a 34-point effort against Rutgers in the Big Ten Tournament. Palmer burst on the scene as a junior, averaging 17.2 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game, ranking in the top five in scoring and among the team leaders in both rebounds and assists to garner first-team all-Big Ten honors. He signed a deal with the Los Angeles Clippers.

6-5, 220, F, 1997-2000, Phenix City, Ala.

Forward Larry Florence surpassed the 1,000-point milestone midway through the 1999-2000 season. Florence ranks fifth at Nebraska in career starts (105) and is tied for 13th in games played (123). A four-year starter, Florence was Nebraska's captain as a senior and led the Huskers in scoring at 13.0 points per game. In his senior season, Florence earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches. Florence also earned the reputation as a strong defender and a hard worker in the weight room. He was named the Husker Power Male Athlete of the Year for all sports in 1999 and was a three-time men's basketball lifter of the year.

20. JACK MOORE - 1,204 POINTS

5-9, 165, G, 1979-82, Muncie, Ind. (Central)

Jack Moore will long be remembered by Husker faithful for his gutsy play on the basketball court. He was honored with the 1982 Francis Pomeroy-Naismith Award, which was presented annually to the nation's top player under 6-feet tall until 2014. During his four-year career, Moore scored 1,204 points, and shot .901 from the free-throw line – among the all-time best career marks in NCAA Division I history. Moore's .901 free-throw percentage broke the Big Eight record for career marksmanship, which had been held by his coach, Moe Iba. A consensus All-Big Eight selection as a senior, Moore was the first Husker cager to earn first-team academic All-Big Eight honors for three straight seasons, and his 382 career assists ties for seventh on NU's all-time chart. Nebraska's MVP Award is named in honor of Moore, who was killed in a March 1984 plane crash. Moore was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1993.

6-6, 215, G, 2014-15, Galveston, Texas (Ball/Texas Tech)

Terran Petteway finished his two-year career as one of the most prolific scorers in school history. Petteway's career scoring average of 18.1 points per game ranks third in school history, while he was one of only three Huskers to reach the 1,000-point plateau in his first two seasons at Nebraska. As a sophomore, Petteway led the Big Ten in scoring at 18.1 points per game to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors. In his final season, he averaged 18.2 points per game and was among the Big Ten leaders in scoring, assists, and 3-pointers per game. Petteway played in the NBA D-League in 2015-16 and has also played professionally in Italy and France.

27. RYAN ANDERSON – 1,125 POINTS

6-4, 195, G, 2006-2010, Seattle, Wash. (Rainier Beach)

One of the most versatile players in Nebraska history, the 6-4 Anderson played out of position all four years, working in the '4' spot where he made a name for himself. Anderson created mismatches on the offensive end, where his ability from 3-point range was evident. He finished his career ranked third in 3-pointers at Nebraska with 185 and was in the top 10 in Nebraska history for 3-point percentage (.394), steals (166) and games started (101), while also ranking in the top 25 for points, rebounds, assists and games played. He was named to the Big 12 All-Defense Team as a junior and the All-Underrated team as a senior, when he became the first Husker in the Big 12 era to record 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 150 3-pointers. Anderson has played in Europe, the NBA D-League and in Canada during his professional career.

Tai Webster earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior in 2016-17, ranking among the conference leaders in scoring, assists and steals.

28. TAI WEBSTER – 1,116 POINTS

6-4, 195, G, 2014-17, Auckland, New Zealand (Westlake Boys)

Tai Webster showed the power of persistence throughout his Husker career. A four-year letterwinner, the 6-foot-4 guard made dramatic strides during his career, becoming one of the Big Ten's best players as a senior. Webster started 30 games as a freshman, helping the Huskers to the 2014 NCAA Tournament. He averaged double figures and was one of the Big Ten's top sixth men in 2015-16 before taking over as a senior. Webster garnered second-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and third-team accolades from the media, averaging 17.0 points, 5.1 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game as a senior. He ranked in the top-10 of the Big Ten in scoring (third), assists (eighth) and steals (fifth) and reached double figures in 30 of 31 contests to capture first-team all-district honors by the USBWA. He played in Turkey in 2018-19 and represented New Zealand in the FIBA World Cup in 2019.

30. HERSCHELL TURNER – 1,056 POINTS

G, 1958-60, Indianapolis, Ind. (Shortbridge)

The first Husker cager to top the 1,000-point mark, Herschell Turner finished his career with 1,056 points. Turner teamed with Al Maxey to provide a strong offensive punch for Coach Jerry Bush's teams in the late 1950s. A first-team All-Big Eight selection as a senior, Turner earned All-America honors as a junior. Turner was a strong rebounder and held NU's single-season rebounding record (244) for 10 seasons, until Leroy Chalk grabbed 257 rebounds in 1969. Turner finished his career with 626 rebounds, which ranks 13th on NU's all-time chart. He was a sixth-round draft choice of the NBA's Syracuse Nationals in 1960. He was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 1990.

He has been a broadcaster with the Lakers for 31 seasons, spending the last 15 years as a broadcaster on the Los Angeles Lakers' television network as of 2018-19.
- Lehmer, Frank– First basketball coach in school history (1897-99), he finished his career with a 7-3 record.

Cookie Belcher set the Nebraska and Big 12 record for steals and ranks fifth in NCAA history with 353 during his Husker career.

Lue, Tyronn— 1998 All-Big 12 pick who ranks ninth in career scoring at Nebraska and is tied for the school record with seven 30-point games. A first-round NBA draft pick in 1998, Lue won two NBA titles and played for seven teams during an 11-year NBA career and was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 2013. He won an NBA title with the Cleveland Cavaliers in 2016, as Cleveland became the first team in NBA Finals history to overcome a 3-1 deficit. He had his jersey retired at Nebraska on Feb. 2, 2017.

M

Maclay, Don— Earned All-America honors in 1931.

Maric, Aleks— Australian big man finished his career fifth in scoring (1,630 points) and second in rebounding (1,080). He was only the third player in Big 12 history with more than 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds. He represented Australia in the 2012 London Olympics.

Matzke, John and Stan— Stan lettered from 1952 through 1955, while his son, John, was a second-team academic All-America pick in 1984.

Moore, Jack— One of the most popular Cornhuskers ever, he earned the 1982 Francis-Pomeroy-Naismith Award as the nation's top player under six feet. Nebraska's most valuable player award is named in honor of Moore, who was killed in a 1984 plane crash.

Moore, Mikki— One of four Huskers to play in the NBA after signing as a free agent. Led the NBA in field-goal percentage in 2007, the first undrafted player in league history to accomplish the feat. He played for nine teams during his 13-year NBA career.

N

National Basketball Association— Twenty-seven Huskers have been drafted by NBA teams over the years, including Isaiah Roby, who was a second-round pick in 2019.

National Invitation Tournament— NU has made 19 appearances in the nation's oldest postseason tournament with its most recent berth coming in 2019. NU captured the 1996 tournament title, defeating St. Joseph's in Madison Square Garden.

NCAA Tournament— The Huskers have earned seven bids to the "Big Dance," including five bids in the 1990s. The Huskers made their most recent appearance in 2014.

Nee, Danny— Winningest coach in Nebraska history, who posted a 254-190 record in 14 seasons from 1986 to 2000 and led NU to 11 postseason appearances.

O

Overtime— The Huskers are 62-47 all-time in OT games, most recently a 93-91 win over Iowa in the 2018-19 regular-season finale.

P

Parsons, Robert— Two-time first-team All-Big Six performer who earned All-America honors in 1937.

Pinnacle Bank Arena— The home of Nebraska basketball that opened in August of 2013.

The $179 million facility seats 15,000 and is located in the Haymarket District of Lincoln.

Polish Rifle— Nickname of two-time All-Big Eight pick and 1994 Big Eight Tournament MVP Eric Piatkowski, Nebraska's second all-time leading scorer before spending 13 years in the NBA with four teams. He was inducted into the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006, the same year he had his jersey (No. 52) retired.

Postseason— Nebraska has made 26 all-time appearances, including an NIT appearance in 2019.

Q

Quadruple— Nebraska and UAB played four overtimes on Dec. 22, 1979, (NU won 92-84), in the school's longest game ever.

R

Rankings— Nebraska posted its highest year-end national rankings ever in 1990-91, finishing at No. 9 in UPI and No. 11 in AP.

Red Zone— The Nebraska student section at Pinnacle Bank Arena. The group has nearly 1,000 seats in the lower bowl of Pinnacle Bank Arena.

INFORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION AND POLICIES

The 2019-20 Nebraska media guide is designed to assist the media in its coverage of the Nebraska Cornhusker men's basketball program. Additional information, including releases, photographs and video may be obtained by contacting the Communications Office at (402) 472-2263, or in many cases can be found on Huskers.com.

Please take a moment to review the following policies and services, which are intended to assist media members in their coverage of Nebraska basketball this season.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials for Nebraska basketball home games should be directed to Vicki Capazo (vcapazo@huskers.com), One Memorial Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, 800 Stadium Drive, Lincoln, NE, 68588-0123. Credential requests can also be sent via e-mail to Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight (smcknight@huskers.com) at least one week before the game.

As a general rule, working space is allocated on the following basis:

- 1) Writers covering for same or next day publication;
- 2) Radio personnel for broadcast originations;
- 3) Sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers;
- 4) Official school student daily newspaper, one seat only;
- 5) Approved special coverage as space allows;
- 6) Press and TV working photographers;

Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of the Nebraska Communications Office. Generally, weekly newspaper representatives, Internet news services and non-originating radio representatives cannot be accommodated because of space limitations. Internet writers for sites affiliated with established, nationally recognized media outlets will be considered on a game-by-game basis as space allows. Credentials will not be granted for writers or photographers for Internet sites that are not affiliated with an accredited news organization.

MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA PARKING

Media passes that are not mailed may be picked up at the Will-Call window, located near the main ticket office at Pinnacle Bank Arena. The main ticket office is located on the south end of Pinnacle Bank Arena. The will-call window opens 90 minutes before tipoff and photo identification is required for pickup of credentials or tickets.

For the 2019-20 season, media parking is located in Lot 24, which is located on 8th Street between R and S streets. Media should enter the lot from S Street and the media lot is located about two blocks from the main entrance of Pinnacle Bank Arena. Parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

COACH HOIBERG INTERVIEW TIME

Coach Hoiberg will hold press availability with the local media prior to each game, either at the Hendricks Training Complex or at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Typically one or two players will be available at that time, depending on class schedules. All interviews with Coach Hoiberg must be scheduled through the Communications Office.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Nebraska's locker room is closed to the media at home and on the road. For home games, Nebraska's postgame news conference will be held following a brief cooling off period in the interview room (C-145) off the northeast corner of the court. The opposing team is housed in the visitor's locker room, located off the northwest corner of the playing floor and will be available following the cooling off period. The visiting coach will also be brought to the postgame interview room. Make requests for opposing players and coaches through the visiting SID. To access the media work room and postgame interview room, take the elevator from the main concourse behind Section 103.

On the road, Coach Hoiberg and select players will be available upon request after the cooling off period. Check with Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight regarding where player interviews will take place.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska basketball players should be directed to Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight [office phone: (402) 472-7772, cell phone: (402) 540-0268] at least one day in advance. The best time for in-season interviews is after practices, depending on class schedules. Players are not available on game days or off days.

PRESS SEATING

Press row for writers and non-originating radio networks is located in Section 121 (northwest corner), just below the main concourse. The visiting radio network is located across from the scorer's table, along with the Husker Sports Network spot and live television tables. Television crews broadcasting live may shoot from either floor level (northeast or southwest baselines) or the camera deck, but they may not occupy space in the upper-level video area.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

A media work room (C-151) is available on the east side of Pinnacle Bank Arena, a short walk from the Interview room. Media can use the room prior to, during and after the game to write and send stories. Wireless Internet is available in the room, while media entities needing ethernet lines to transmit photography and video should contact Joe Mack, Technology Manager at Pinnacle Bank Arena, by phone at (402) 904-5660 at least three days in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEO BOXES

Photography and video boxes are located along both baselines in front of the court side seating area. Spots will be assigned on a game-by-game basis, and those boxes are the only place photographers can shoot from on the court. Once the team enters the court for pregame warmups, photographers and videographers should not be on the court at any time.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Pinnacle Bank Arena has a secured media wireless network for working media. Instructions will be available on how to access the network in the media work room and on press row. A member of NU's computing services staff will be on hand to assist media needing access.

MEDIA SERVICES

Notes, flipcards and media guides will be provided before each game. Final statistics, play-by-play sheets and quotes from each locker room will be distributed via email following the game and will be available on Huskers.com. A light pregame meal will be served in the media work room (C-151) approximately 60 minutes before tipoff.

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

The University of Nebraska Communications Office is located on the third floor of the Osborne Athletic Complex, which is at the north end of Memorial Stadium. The building

RADIO/TELEVISION BROADCAST SPACE

Requests for live radio and television broadcast space should be made to Sr. Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight at smcknight@huskers.com. If statisticians are needed, contact Shamus McKnight at least three days in advance.

RADIO BROADCAST RIGHTS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Learfield/IMG own exclusive radio broadcast rights to all of the University's men's basketball games. Other than the Learfield IMG Husker Sports Network and the University of Nebraska student radio station (KRNU), the only radio stations or networks allowed to broadcast Nebraska games from Pinnacle Bank Arena are those that have rights to broadcast games played by the opposing team.

All radio stations and networks broadcasting from the Pinnacle Bank Arena must receive prior permission from the University. Any representative of a radio station or network that has not purchased such rights shall not air live game action or description of any game while it is in progress, nor shall such representatives air tape-recorded or live commentary of Nebraska coaches or players from the premises for one hour before or 20 minutes after a game.

Only stations that have purchased broadcast rights may install telephone lines on press row, or use telephone lines on press row for reporting on games. By accepting media credentials, representatives of stations and networks that have not purchased broadcast rights signify their agreement to all stipulations.

BROADCAST TELEPHONE LINES

The Husker Sports Network installs telephone lines for visiting official broadcasts and charges a fee for the use of those lines for non-conference games. Big Ten official stations receive the use of the lines free of charge as part of a cooperative. Those interested in using the lines should contact Mike Elliott of Husker Sports Network at (402) 742-8624.

Official visiting radio stations are welcome to have their own telephone lines installed at the visiting radio position and may do so by contacting Joe Mack, Technology Manager at Pinnacle Bank Arena, by phone at (402) 904-5660 or jmack@smglincoln.com.

PRO SCOUTING PASSES

Per Big Ten Conference rules, the University of Nebraska provides press box access to scouts of professional basketball teams based on availability. If no space is available in the press box, scouts may arrange through the Communications Office (402) 472-2263 to purchase tickets for Nebraska home games.

TELEVISION, RADIO, INTERNET BROADCAST RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

Nebraska, its opponent and the respective conference designate the broadcast rights for all games. No pregame coverage shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska, the Big Ten Conference and the broadcast rights holder. Live postgame interviews may not be aired while the television rights holder is still on the air.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the Big Ten Conference. A maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the 96 hours following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, including such television programming simulcast on the internet, wireless or other forms of media, but otherwise may not be distributed on the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

Local television stations may not originate a pre- or post-game show from inside Pinnacle Bank Arena. Any blogs, tweets, live chats, social media posts, etc. from the game site should not serve as a substitute for, or approximate, play-by-play accounts of a game in any medium.

Non-originating radio stations or internet sites may not provide play-by-play coverage, live or delayed, but may provide short news updates provided such news update is one minute or less occurring no more than once per hour. No pregame coverage from inside the arena shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska and the broadcast rights holder.

COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES

COMMITMENT TO COMPLIANCE

On behalf of the University of Nebraska student-athletes, coaches and Athletic Department staff, I would like to express my appreciation for your continued support of our entire athletic program.

The University of Nebraska is known for its loyal, passionate, and knowledgeable fans. It is this type of fervent support that not only assists Nebraska student-athletes in reaching their full potential on and off the playing field, but also draws the next generation of student-athletes to our campus. However, as a University of Nebraska booster, please remember that you are also required to know and follow NCAA regulations.

Our coaches, student-athletes, and Athletic Department staff members are knowledgeable about NCAA regulations because they receive on-going education. But, to truly attain the excellence the University of Nebraska strives for, we also need our supporters to be educated about these same regulations. In turn, you will be assisting us with protecting the eligibility and well-being of our current and future student-athletes.

Please review the information listed below, which includes some of the most important and frequently asked questions about NCAA regulations for boosters. Since this document cannot address everything you may need to know, I encourage you to contact our office with questions that may arise. Our staff can be reached at (402) 472-2042 or Compliance@Huskers.com.

Thank you and Go Huskers!

Jamie Vaughn, Senior Associate Athletic Director for Compliance

NCAA PRINCIPLES INSTITUTIONAL CONTROL

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference.

RESPONSIBILITY

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

COMPLIANCE

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FROM BOOSTERS

AM I A BOOSTER?

Anyone who engages in the following is a booster for the University of Nebraska:

- a) Belongs to a University of Nebraska Athletic booster club;
- b) Makes financial donations to the Athletic Department or a specific Husker team;
- c) Assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- d) Employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relatives/friends of either; or
- e) Promotes the University of Nebraska athletic programs.

WHAT IS AN "EXTRA BENEFIT"?

An "extra benefit" is any benefit provided to a student-athlete or a student-athlete's relatives or friends that is not authorized by NCAA legislation or available to the general student body. The following list is not exhaustive, but includes examples of "extra benefits" that jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility:

- a) Free or discounted: food, merchandise, housing, tickets, repairs, haircuts, tattoos, golf/gym memberships, jewelry, etc;
- b) Use of a car, boat, or ATV; and
- c) Gifts, loans, money, or gift cards.

CAN I CONTACT PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES (RECRUITS) FOR THE HUSKERS?

No. It is not permissible for boosters to contact recruits. This restriction applies to, but is not limited to, the following forms of contact:

- a) Face-to-Face Interaction;
- b) Phone Calls/Skype;
- c) Email/Text Messages; and
- d) Facebook, Twitter, and all other forms of social media communication.

Remember to ask before you act. Contact the Athletic Compliance Office by phone at (402) 472-2042. The compliance fax number is (402) 472-6961 and the office can be reached by email at compliance@huskers.com.

Former Husker point guard Jake Muhleisen and Nebraska Basketball Hall of Famer Kent Pavelka call all of the action of Husker basketball on the Learfield/IMG College Husker Sports Network.

The Learfield/IMG College Husker Sports Network will continue the strong tradition of broadcasting excellence in 2019-20, as it brings Husker basketball to fans across the nation and the world.

In the state of Nebraska, KXSP AM 590 ESPN (590 AM) serves as the Omaha affiliate. KXSP-AM's strong signal reaches a good portion of the Midwest day and night, including parts of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri and Kansas. KLIN (1400 AM) serves as the Lincoln affiliate while KRVN (880 AM) is a powerful central Nebraska affiliate that reaches around the state. In addition, the network has nearly 30 locally-based affiliates across Nebraska. All broadcasts are heard live on Huskers.com, the Husker App, the TuneIn Radio App, TuneIn.com/Huskers and SiriusXM Satellite Radio.

The Husker Sports Network, in its 24th year of producing and marketing the live broadcasts of University of Nebraska Athletics, extended and expanded its agreement with the University on June 13, 2008. Under the agreement, Learfield/IMG College's Husker Sports Marketing manages and markets all rights associated with the radio programming, Coaches' TV and radio shows, program sales, in-venue signage, sponsorship inventory, digital, social media and publication printing rights.

Kent Pavelka returns behind the microphone to handle his 33rd overall season calling Husker hoops in 2019-20. Pavelka previously called Nebraska basketball for two long stints between 1974 and 1996 before returning to the Husker basketball play-by-play chair prior to the 2006-07 season. A six-time winner of the Nebraska Sportscaster-of-the-Year Award, Pavelka also handled color analyst duties on NU football broadcasts from 1974 to 1983, and was the play-by-play announcer from 1983 to 1996. Pavelka was honored in January 2009 with the Bud Cuca Special Merit Award given by the Nebraska Basketball Hall of Fame for his contributions to the NU men's basketball program. He was elected to the Nebraska Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame earlier this year and called his 1,000th broadcast during the 2018-19 season.

Alongside Pavelka as color analyst will be former Husker point guard Jake Muhleisen, who begins his second full season on the broadcast team. Muhleisen, who has served in a part-time role for the network for the last few seasons, was a four-year starter and three-year captain for the Huskers, totaling 901 points and 284 assists during his collegiate career from 2002-05. Ben McLaughlin will also be part of the broadcast team for selected broadcasts. McLaughlin co-hosts Sports Nightly and is part of the network's football and baseball broadcast teams.

In addition to unmatched game coverage, Sports Nightly airs Monday-Friday evenings for three hours year round across the network. During the basketball season Sports Nightly features a weekly basketball radio show with Coach Hoiberg and Husker assistant coaches. Sports Nightly can be heard on a network of over two dozen radio stations across Nebraska, as well as the Husker App, Huskers.com, TuneIn.com/Huskers and the TuneIn App.
